Col. Davidson Comments on Aspirants for Civic Honors -Will Not Be a Candidate.

Lieut.-Col. J. I. Davidson, while in-terested in municipal affairs and adterested in municipal affairs and advising that more attention be paid to civic matters, will not be a candidate for the mayoralty for 1908.

Col. Davidson, whose name has been Col. Davidson, whose name has been mentioned previous to municipal campaigns for several years past as a prospective contestant, says that he has pective contestant, says that he has not the necessary time.

valuable information.

"I am more than ever convinced of the utter absurdity of paying our mayor and aldermen a salary," he said yesterday, "Thruout England and Scot-land the position of a municipal representative is one of very great honor. The aspirant realizes that there is no financial yardstick by which honor or leyalty can be measured.

"We are getting a lot of rich men in Toronto and in other cities in Canada, the honor it should carry. "In Toronto men may seek these positions for the money that is attached to them, and at the same time call it the name of 'honor.' Just as long as there is a big salary attached to control, there is no reason why the same cannot be done here."

While the mayoralty race is, of course, the feature event in the municipal electics, there is considerable interest in the coming controllership contest. It is generally felt that the four present controllers will make endeavor to retain their seats. Ex-Aid, Dunn is again on the warpath and makes no secret of his intention to battle for the hon.
