Was Your Coffee Good This Morning?

If not remember there are Two Kinds—

Michie's Coffee

and The Other Kind, and you had

THE OTHER KIND.

YANKEE MURDERERS.

Two of them are located in Toronto by the Police.

The Toronto police have located an Italian named Domenico Gazzo, who it is claimed, was the murderer of the Chicago authorities for murder, and have notified the department of that city that Gazzo can be taken into custody at any time. The fugitive was the proprietor of a restaurant at No. 665 Lake-street, Chicago, and he was arrested by the police, and he is now in the hands of the Chicago authorities.

The Italian Got There First! Gazzo saw them coming, and securing a revolver waited for them. He declared that they started the fight, and that if he had not fired, he would have been killed, so he shot one of his brothers-in-law dead. He was arrested, and he is now in the hands of the Chicago authorities. He is a somewhat singular story of his experience.

He says that an official offered to secure him his liberty on payment of $500. Gazzo paid him the money, and after being spirited from the prison was put on board a train and ordered to quit the country. He came straight to Toronto, after shaving off his mustache and otherwise disguising himself, and has been here for four or five weeks. He has been warmly welcomed by his friends in Chicago, who are looking for him, but it would appear that they cannot very easily find him, as they have neglected to take advantage of the information supplied from Toronto.

Another Murderer Italian. The authorities here have also found another Italian murderer, who it is supposed is wanted in the United States. Giuseppe Loberto was a prosperous fruiterer in Spooner, Wis., who was arrested by the police, and he is now in the hands of the Chicago authorities. He is a somewhat singular story of his experience.

Saturday's Civil Court Proceedings. The suit of Mrs. William Spence, whose husband met his death at Wm. Craig & Co.'s sawmill, against the order has been granted, and the Master on Saturday for judgment on the case. The Master on Saturday for judgment on the case.

The Townsends Will Receive $1000 The jury in the Civil Assizes on Saturday gave a verdict of $1000 for the plaintiff in the case of Townsend v. the Scarborough Electric Railway. The jury in the case of Townsend v. the Scarborough Electric Railway.

Sale of Irish Lanes. It will be remembered that on the occasion of Lady Aberdeen's visit to Toronto in the early summer of last year, she intended to make a tour of the work of the Irish Industries Association, with headquarters at Dublin, Ireland, and a collection of these goods on sale has been made through Mr. Simpson not taking occupation of his new store until after the new year, but it may be intimate that all arrangements are now being completed to keep on hand a very select stock of these goods. The department will hold a prominent place in Mr. Simpson's new store, and he will be directly placing the same in the hands of the public.

Patents Issued. The following is a list of United States patents issued last week to Canadians, as reported by Mr. Chas. H. Riches, solicitor of patents, Canadian Life Building, Toronto: Joseph H. Coleman, fair box; S. J. Laughlin and Hough Macdonald, MacPherson, railway frog; George Porteous, sportsman's cabinet; A. Drake, casting brake-coupler; James Coleman, automatic closing telegraph key; George Fitchell, harness; William G. Borden, a device for the purpose of one-third of the above patents were taken out by Mr. Charles H. Riches.

The Inaugural Ceremony. The inaugural services attending the dedication of the new bridge over the Don River, which was held on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, were attended by a large number of guests. The ceremony was presided over by the Mayor, and the bridge was dedicated to the memory of the late Mayor, who was killed by the bridge.

SIXTH DAY.

SAMSON-KEENEY BANKRUPT.

Greatest Retailing ever known in Canada. It is a boon to the buying public. It has set other people advertising us—men and women who have been here have told their friends, and they have come. It is a bonanza for the newspapers, as they are bought eagerly to see what John Eaton's have to say. It has been thunder "free" for many an unscrupulous merchant who would dare to insult you by crying Samson-Keene goods.

It has been turkey without CRANBERRY SAUCE for the imported Yankee advertising boomers, but everybody—merchants—and "our public"—friends and foes—we're glad to have you all and judge. Buy, if you like—and if after you've bought you don't like your purchases—whether goods are cut or not—come back—we'll return you your money—'tis ours to please.

We recognize no competition. No store can now buy cheaper than we. And we'll risk our judgment that no store in this civilized country ever sold goods so cheap. Think of twenty-five-cent dress goods at fifteen cents a yard. Think of fifty-cent-table linen at twenty-nine cents a yard. Think of twenty and fifteen-cent dress trimmings at five cents a yard.

Think of twenty-five-cent shirts at twelve and a half cents. Think of ladies' cashmere hose, worth a quarter, at fifteen cents a pair. And in coming after goods announced in the John Eaton columns you will always find them—when John Eaton's advertise goods—they don't tell the people next day—"Oh, madam! We're just sold out."

We sent to a big shop the other day to get some shirts at 25c—especially advertised worth 50c—it was just eighteen minutes after eight a.m., and the clerk said: "Just sold out"—we couldn't afford to treat "our public" in like manner—why cannot advertising be honest?
