Galt, Ont., May 24.—(Special.)—Galt turned out en masse to welcome the famous Highland regiment of Canada, 37th, on their arrival at 11.15 a.m. The station was crowded with the Mayor, Aldermen, and members of the town council, and the A. O. F. Reception Committee, composed of Messrs. J. W. Wardlaw, E. J. Wilkins, J. Bernhart, T. J. Eason, Wm. Elliott, J. Hines, A. Ferguson, Wm. Scott, R. Baird, Wm. McGregor and A. Aiken.

The celebration commenced at daybreak with firing salutes, ringing bells, etc. At 9.30 a.m. there was a grand exhibition by the Galt Fire Department, led by Chief Curran, on Queen's Square.

The Galt band turned out and played several selections, after which the crowd went their way to the C.P.R. Station to meet the visitors.

When the 48th regiment was formed up by Major Acheson, joined in the procession, and led the march through the principal streets to Dickson Park. All along the route of march the citizens looked on and admired the military bearing of the brave lads.

On reaching the grounds, the men were drawn up and were received by His Worship the Mayor and the members of the Reception Committee. His Worship, in a short speech, expressed his pleasure at having the regiment join them in their celebration of the Queen's Birthday. He then extended to the visitors the liberty of the town, and concluding expressed the wish that a most enjoyable time would be spent.

Lieut. Col. Cosby, who was mounted on a white charger, replied on behalf of the visitors, and thanked the present for their enthusiastic reception. The officers, non-commissioned officers and men then repaired to their respective tents, where lunch was served under the direction of Capt. Orchard acting purveyor.

In the afternoon the 48th and Galt bands assembled at Market-square and marched to Dickson Park, where a grand military display was given by the visiting soldiers. The program embraced bayonet and sword exercises, marching past, manual and firing exercises, physical drill, fancy field movements and trooping of the colors. The last number was a very pretty spectacle indeed, and at the close the regiment was heartily applauded.

After the military portion of the demonstration was finished a championship game of lacrosse was played between Galt and Guelph, the home team winning by 3 goals to 2. While the lacrosse game was in progress a program of sports was run off. The winners are as follows: Central School boys' race, H. Willard, Dickson, 100 yds.; Clinton, Victoria, C. Barlow; Separate, R. Cooper. Girls' race, Miss K. Last, Juvenile Foresters' race, D. Ford.

The decorations consisted of Union Jacks and Stars and Stripes entwined, and an abundance of flowers, which, together with the shining accoutrements of the "Reds," gave a very pleasant effect to the head of the table were seated His Worship Mayor Harbord, chairman; Lieut. Col. Cosby, Major Robertson, Assistant Deputy Major Macdonald, Major Acheson and Rev. R. Dean Ridley. The proceedings were opened with grace said by Rev. R. Dean Ridley.
