

SNAPSHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS

Outlaw baseball is getting to be a serious menace to the organized variety and something will soon have to be done to stop the still greater and discredited organizations that go to make it up. It is getting so that players who are with teams that are within the protection of the national agreement can not rely on their players. Some little bit more happens and away go the men to some outlaw league. Discipline will soon get to be ineffective and many good men will be lost to the recognized game.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Reports of the Atell-Nell fight glitter with words like fierce, vicious and terrific, and the descriptive part of the physical affair tells of discoloration of eyes, bruised noses and bleeding faces. The public is expected to forget all this in the touching statement that when the referee declared Atell winner, the victor "rushed across the stage and embraced his defeated opponent." A fine setting for the display of a good sporting instinct!

Great interest is being manifested in the arrangements for the international yacht races to be held at Norfolk, Virginia, next year, in connection with the Jamestown exposition. England, Germany and France will have their respective teams to compete against those in this country off the mouth of Chesapeake Bay. With four nations striving for supremacy, the contests promise to be the greatest events of their kind ever held. They will probably be the greatest expansion in international yacht racing. With the three great foreign countries represented by the fastest boats that can be built in those countries, and all striving to take the laurels of the sea, the races will be more truly international than any hitherto sailed on this side of the Atlantic.

The idea of yacht racing between countries had its inception in the honor America's visit to England more than half a century ago, and has since been fostered mainly by the matches for the cup then won by that famous vessel. In the natural order of development it is now taking a wider range, as evidenced by the trans-Atlantic race last year for the Kaiser's cup and the German-American match to be sailed off Marblehead, Mass., next September.

While next year's races will include none but cruising yachts of forty feet overall length, the new boats, it is great feature will be the bringing together of the four countries' representatives. The limitation to size has been fixed to obviate the necessity of subjecting foreign entrants to the difficulty and risk of crossing the ocean on their own bottoms, and the limitation to type with a view to discouraging racing machines. Foreign owners will be able to send their yachts to this side of the Atlantic on shipboard.

The Windsor harness meeting is scheduled for next week. This will be a sort of a curtain raiser for the Grand Circuit.

Kinley, Dymally's crack 3-year-old, died at Salem, N. H., Sunday. With his death disappears one of the gamiest and truest running thoroughbreds ever turned out by a Canadian owner.

The defeat of the mighty Shamrocks by Montreal puts a new complexion on the lacrosse race. At this stage it looks like a close finish between Capital and Montreal. Teumsehans have not proved the world beater that they were touted to be, and will do well if they beat out the Irishmen.

GEERS WILL BE THERE

Cleveland, July 10.—Now that the races at the Libertyville track have ended, it is expected several of the horsemen who have been at the western track will move this way and put the finishing touches on their horses for the opening of the grand circuit meeting. It is almost certain that Ben Walker, who is training James Butler's stable, will ship over to the Glenville track immediately, while "Pop" Geers and some more may remain in the west for a while and take in the Windsor, Ont., meeting, before coming to Cleveland. Walker has such horses as East View Maiden and Ann Direct, both M. and M. candidates; Boliver, 2:06 3/4; Ariato, 2:08 1/4; Judge Green, 2:09; Prince Altie, 2:13 1/4, and some other ones. Altie Jay's victory at Libertyville on Independence Day was glad news for Clevelanders and the railbirds think that the Chisholm mare has a good chance in the M. and M.

BASEBALL

PLAYER'S LEG BROKEN.

Berlin, July 9.—Victor Cochrane had his right leg fractured in a baseball game here this afternoon. He was being third base for the Scotch Grays, and Gus Miller, of the Alerts, in running to third, jumped into Cochrane in his attempt to make the base, and came down on the latter's right leg, breaking it. Cochrane was removed in the ambulance.

WENT 12 INNINGS.

The game in the St. John's A. C. diamond on Saturday between the Junior Stars and Imperials went twelve innings. The Stars won 12 to 11. The batteries were: Stars, Collins and Daniels; Imperials, Summers and P. Martin.

TORONTO TRADES WHITE.

Toronto, July 9.—The Toronto Ball Club today closed a deal whereby Jack White will be transferred to the Buffalo Bisons in exchange for "Bobby" Woods. The deal has been hanging fire for some time. A new infielder is being angled for, presumably to work at second.

THE TURF

WILL NOT RACE AT FORT ERIE.

After a very successful season at Kendalwood Park, Buffalo, Jack O'Leary, the well-known horseman, has returned to his home in this city. His horses will not run at Fort Erie, but will be sent to Saratoga, where racing commences August 4.

London Will Make Strong Bid for the Labatt Trophy

Several Good Rinks to Compete at Western Ontario Bowling Tournament.

The greatest lawn bowling tournament in America—the annual of the Western Ontario Association—will commence on Monday, July 23, on the greens of the London Rowing Club. To say that the tournament is the biggest on this side of the briny is no exaggeration, as it attracts players from more clubs than does any other gathering of its kind. They come from the north, the south, the east and the west, and they come for the purpose of winning the Labatt trophy and having a good time, such as they can only have at the Western Ontario tournament.

Last year there were 100 bowlers here, no less than 91 rinks being entered in the trophy match. This year the number will be greater. All of the old clubs will be on hand again, and there will also be rinks from clubs affiliated since, including Orangeville (three rinks), Lucknow, the Royal Canadian Yacht Club, and several others.

London is to make a strong bid for the trophy. The prize has been twice won by the London Rowing Club, Ed Weld's rink capturing it in 1902, and Jim McDougall's rink landing it in 1904. Possibly, the rink that will do the best work for London this year will be skipped by that cool-headed chap, Jim McDougall. He will have as his lead Jack Spry. Second on the rink will be Jack McNeen, who is coming to the front rapidly, while Ed Weld, a veteran at the business, will play third. There will also be a number of other strong rinks, one of which is to be skipped by Jack Stevenson.

In addition to the trophy match, there are to be an association match, a consolation, a singles and doubles, in all of which good prizes are to be hung up.

Here is the programme sent out by Secretary J. D. Tylor:

Trophy Match (18 Ends.)
Open to any four players of the same club. To be held by the club represented by the winning rink one year, and to become the property of the club whose rink shall win it three times.

First prize—The Labatt Trophy and four pieces hand-decorated china.
Second prize—Four cases (half dozen each) pearl handle knives and forks.

Association Match (15 Ends.)
For all rinks defeated in the trophy match.

WEAK BATTING BY THE CANUCKS IN THE INTERNATIONAL CRICKET

Only Thirty-One Runs Scored for Loss of Five Wickets in Philadelphia Game.

Philadelphia, July 9.—Under ideal conditions the annual international cricket match between the United States and Canada began today on the grounds of the Germantown Cricket Club, and when stumps were drawn at 4:30 p.m. for the day the home players had scored 274 runs for their first inning and the visitors 31 for the loss of five wickets.

The American eleven is made up of players selected from local clubs. The Americans, who won the toss, elected to bat first. Seven of the home players reached double figures. J. B. King made the top score today, 63 runs. By comparison the batting of the Canadians was rather weak against the splendid bowling of King, Clark and Greene. Score:

ENGLISH DERBY WON BY RINGER, BUT FRAUD WAS DISCOVERED

The history of the turf contains many stories of fraud, but none more audacious and impudent than that associated with the Derby of 1844, which has been described as the most sensational race on record—at least in its developments.

The Derby of that year was won, as the records tell us, by "Mr. A. Wood's Running Rein, by the Saddler, out of Queen Mac, by Duncan Grey," ridden by Mann. The same horse had won a 2-year-old race at Newmarket in the previous autumn, and it was then rumored that he was a year older than he claimed; and when he romped in first in the Derby, Col. Peel, whose horse, Orlando, ran second, promptly lodged an objection against the winner and obtained an injunction against the payment of the stakes to Mr. Wood until the dispute had been settled in the law courts. Messrs. Weatherby accordingly paid the stakes into court, and left Mr. Wood and Col. Peel to fight the matter out.

Col. Peel's contention was that the winner of the Derby was none other than Faccabueus, a 4-year-old horse bred by Sir Charles Ibbotson, and thus disqualified by age for the Derby; and so zealously and successfully did he and Lord George Bentinck collect evidence that, when the great action Wood v. Peel came on for hearing before Baron Alderson, a 4-year-old horse was in a position to prove their case up to the hilt.

Scarcely ever has a cause celebre created so much excitement. The court was crowded to suffocation; hundreds were unable to gain admittance, and feeling ran dangerously high. After counsel had opened the case for the plaintiff, the judge very sensibly suggested, "Produce your horse, and let him be examined by experts. That is the best answer to the whole question," and the case was adjourned for

The Derby chronicles, too, record several cases of unfair running. Glenartney was, by common consent, the best horse of his time, and could not have failed to win the 1827 Derby if he had been allowed to run free. His jockey, however, had his money on the inferior horse to Glenartney, and there is little doubt that he deliberately pulled his own mount in order to let Mameluke win. And, to give but one more example of this species of fraud, in the Derby of 1847 Van Tromp only ran third to Cossack and War Eagle, although he had proved that he could show his heels to both horses. Lord Eglington, Lord George Bentinck and other experts swore that Mameluke had willfully "pulled" Van Tromp, and although the jockey declared that he had ridden the horse in strict obedience to orders he was promptly dismissed from Lord Eglington's service.—Tit-Bits.

Parkhill Also Said To Be Anxious for a New Group of Northern Towns.

A Toronto dispatch says: Rugby prospects are already being discussed and from the number of inquiries received so far by the officials of the O. R. F. U., the coming season promises to be one of the best in the history of the union. One of the most recent letters received comes from H. V. Laughton, of the Parkhill club, who suggests a new group in his district, consisting

THE TURF.

200 TO 1 AND WON.

New York, July 9.—The surprise at Sheepshead Bay today was the victory of Arcite, a 300-to-1 shot, in the third race. So little was thought of his chances of winning that he was quoted at one time at 300 to 1, and a number of small bets were made on him. McCarter, the favorite, made the pace for five furlongs, when Troxler brought Arcite up and won easily by two lengths. Comedienne, in winning the fifth race, equaled the world's record for the 6 1/2 furlongs by covering it in 1:13 2-5. Three favorites won.

LAST IN BATTING, FIRST IN FIELDING

The Somerville nine leads the East League in team batting, with an average of 253. The team has no cinch on the position, however, as the Tigers are only nineteen points behind, while the Ramblers have a percentage of .223. The Wortman & Ward sluggers are at the tail end in stick work, with an average of only .187.

While they are at the foot of the ladder in the batting table, the foundrymen are great in fielding, leading the other clubs in this branch of the game. Their average is .899, with the Somerville second, with .875, and the Ramblers and Tigers tied for third place, with .872. The figures:

SHERIFF "BUTTS" IN; FIGHT'S OFF

Schreck and Burns Not Likely to Meet at Seattle as Planned.

Chicago, July 9.—It now looks as though Mike Schreck, of Cincinnati, but who is making his home here, and Tommy Burns, the Canadian, who have been matched to meet before the Seattle Athletic Club of Seattle, Wash., will not meet. Word has been received here from Seattle that the sheriff had informed the promoters of the club that the bout would not be permitted, and any attempt to hold it would be met with arrest.

This is a sad blow to the promoters of the club and to the fight fans of west, yet it is a much sadder blow to Schreck. To Burns no doubt it is a godsend. After days of censure or anything you might call it, Tommy Burns finally consented to meet the German.

It was not just because he wanted to, but because he was forced into the match by newspaper criticism.

The Washash Athletic Club, of Terre Haute, Ind., offered the two a $2,000 purse. There was joy in the Schreck camp. There was, however, little time to enjoy the good news when it was learned that the Washash Athletic Club could not give the purse offered and the bout was called off.

Mike had almost become discouraged when an offer came from Seattle. It was immediately accepted. Joy again ran high. Now comes the news that the sheriff has raised his hand. While things look bad, yet the parties connected have not entirely given up hope. The promoters of the club are trying to arrange to hold the fight in some town nearby, which is out of the jurisdiction of the sheriff.

It will be known definitely soon whether the bout is to take place or whether it must again be called off. Both men are good cards, and it seems strange that some club does not take the match.

ASTHMA IS COMMON IN THE SUMMER TIME.

Awfully distressing is asthma. But worse if possible when combined with bronchitis. Relieved quicker by Catarrhose than anything else; cured so thoroughly by "Catarrhose" that it doesn't return.

Catarrhose's "heating vapor" is breathed right into the lungs destroying the cause of asthma, and succeeds in most chronic cases. Try it; two sizes, 25 cents and 51, at all dealers.

It doesn't matter much what else you have for breakfast if you have good coffee. Everybody likes Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand.

BALL GAME WITH HEAVY SLUGGING

Nationals Scored One Hundred and Six Runs and Made Ninety-Four Hits.

The recent death of Senator Gorman, the founder of the old National baseball club, occasioned the publication of many reminiscences of the national game in the sixties. In those days gate money was an unknown quantity, and the stands and reserved seats were given only to those who were fortunate enough to be invited to the first finding seats on the grassy fields. The men playing baseball because they were in love with the sport, and by regulation of the then existing association, the National Association of Baseball Players, were restricted from charging admission. It is interesting to read the general synopsis of the games published in those times, especially that part that deals with the summary and box score. It is not so systematic as the present style of record-keeping, but is impressed with the fact that it is more intelligible and really gives more details of the game. In those days a foul caught on the first bound was out, and many of the "old boys" who played in those days recall with pleasure the wonderful catches made by Berthrong, of four bounds after a run sometimes of 50 yards. In the preliminary work of the games, compared with the practices of today, the story reads like a romance, as the visitors were always royally entertained and the freedom of the city was presented to them. The National club of this city, while making its historic western trip, invaded Indianapolis, July 18, 1867, to meet the Westerners of that city, who had an average of only .187.
