NO SHARKS NEED APPLY VETERANS TO HOLD LAND

At Meeting Last Night Proposition to Appoint a Locating Board Was Considered.

At a general meeting of the South African Association held in the armories last night the land grants to be given out by the Dominion Government were the one absorbing question of interest. President "Jim" Kennedy presided and a letter from the Ottawa Association was laid on the table. It asked that a meeting be held in Ottawa on Oct. 12 to organize a Dominion Association to look after the grants. Out of this big association would be appointed a locating board, whose object and purpose of being would be locating the land to the best advantage if they desired to sell. That was the only part of the big meeting last night did not fall in line for each man to look after his grant himself or appoint someone to do it for him.

However, if the rest of the delegates are in favor of having one central board the Toronto men will ask that it be made up of one man from each of the big Dominion centres: One from Ottawa, one from Montreal, one from Calgary, one from Winnipeg and one from Toronto.

The original purpose was to hold the meeting for the formation of the big Dominion body in Winnipeg instead of Ottawa, but as there are more veterans in the east than in the west the soldiers thought it was best to hold it in the east.

Then, too, it was thought better terms for the grants can be obtained at the terms are not considered very good. All land has to be located by the end of 1910, and home-standing must commence within six months of locating. Then, too, the veterans will be taxed as soon as the men get on it, as there is no freedom from taxes as in the giving of the Ontario land grants.

When the talk of land grants from the west came up, the members solemnly pledged themselves not to sell to them or to speculate in. In fact, most of them expressed themselves to be anxious to work the land for themselves; and there were 250 members present, amongst whom were two from the Peterboro Association.

Many letters from Western members of the association were read to the meeting, in which the writers said that the land would be worth from $5 to $10 an acre. The land sharks were credited by some of the members last night with having offered them the magnificent sum of $35 to $40 for their 320 acres.

THE WEATHER

Yesterday was one of those days that you can't remember from yesterday. We had many a day like it. There was nothing strange about it in any sense of the word, except the changeableness of the sky.

In the morning the sun came out in all his glory, and shone down upon an earth which showed its thankfulness for the welcome rain of the day before. There was a rim of blue in the sky to the west which extended half way around the horizon, and the white purity of the sky above it gave an effect easier to appreciate than describe. It looked like one of those jellies that mother makes—the variegated kind with a light grey streak below; then above was the rich color that fairly made your mouth water. It was a beautiful sky, and if you had believed not in a supreme being looked upon it held change his mind and want to worship something besides his money.

But we were talking about the weather. Well, it was cold, especially going west. That wind fairly chased you straight back for your overcoat, even if it was with "your uncle" down by the "third ball." Many a man minus his summer's wages paid the price of indiscretion yesterday as he shivered in the wind, while his more fortunate or more forehanded fellow being strolled by in his new outer-garment, and with a "good morning" and a "nice morning." Thus it is—it all depends upon the way we are going, whether the going is good or no.

The sky was bright and cheerful all morning and the air cool. In the afternoon Mr. Sun again hid himself away and hid behind some sheltering leaden clouds. But the brisk wind kept on doing business and there were thoughts of warmer things, especially coal, in the minds of many. Heat contracts cold expands. You could find that deduction in the coal dealer's smiles yesterday.

But after yesterday's weather was not had kind of a day, even if it did ask a few questions about the summer's wages. To-day will be somewhat more friendly, as far as warmth goes, and many of the park benches will be occupied this afternoon.

There is all kinds of nice, cheerful, get-ready-for-winter weather ahead yet, so keep cheerful.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE AGAIN IN SYNOD

Bishop's Resolution Carries After Further Discussions—To Take Care of Immigrants.

OTTAWA, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—The upper house of the Anglican Synod today put forward a plan to have Anglican chaplains co-operate with the regular port chaplains at Quebec, Halifax and St. John. Chaplains will be attached to the Missionary Society of the church, by which they will be paid. It is proposed that they receive immigrants of the Anglican faith, and pass them on to the care of an immigration department in connection with the church.

Several western members during discussion by synod on reorganization of Sunday school work opposed the appointment of a general field secretary on the ground that it would interfere with diocesan autonomy. However, it was finally decided to appoint a general secretary for the whole of Canada.

During a discussion of the Lord's Day observance, Judge Harrington, New Brunswick, said there was a growing evil in Sunday observance. F. H. Gisborne, Ottawa, said there was not a man in the synod who did not want to have the Sunday properly observed, but he agreed with Lansing Lewis in not wishing to have sermons read to children.

Canon Smith of Hull believed that the greatest menace to church and to society was the contempt with which people were beginning to look upon the Lord's day. The boys of his own choir were often enticed away to act as caddies on golf links on Sunday.

Resolution Carried.
Chancellor Kerwin Martin of Hamilton, moved that the resolution, passed by bishops, be amended by changing the recommendation for the reading of a sermon to the advising of service in the home. Archdeacon Penrath of Vancouver and others supported this, but after discussion the amendment was withdrawn and the resolution of bishops was carried unanimously.

Rev. Canon Cody of Toronto, in moving the acceptance of the report of the Sabbath observance committee, said there was an earnest desire to do as a depressing side to the question. There were two special features in the Lord's Day Act, it was applicable to all the provinces and all the creeds, but it rested on the ground of general welfare it should be enforced. The primate was now president of the alliance and Sir James Whitney, another ardent churchman, was vice-president.

The resolution of the bishops favoring each family giving a tenth of their income to the church was carried unanimously.

Church Union.
E. G. Henderson of Windsor, seconded a resolution to get the synod to make recommendations to the synod immediately as to what manner they should be brought forward. Judge E. Ermatinger, St. Thomas, who has a resolution favoring church union, said he had waited a long time to bring it forward, and hoped it would not be stifled now. It was explained that the synod had no desire to stifle the church union proposition, but merely to get the vigorous resolutions upon the subject in order.

The protector remarked that this would be the proper question coming before the house. It was decided to refer the resolutions to a committee.

Archdeacon Timms brought before the synod the question of Indian missions in the west. He presented a memorial signed by himself and other members from the west, and in this the new policy of the federal government was proposed to introduce in regard to the treatment of Indians was criticized. It will be considered later.

Won't Call Strike Off
But Labor Leaders Trying to Settle It in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.—(Special.)—James O'Connell, president of the International Machinists Union, is at present in Montreal.

Interviewed this afternoon he emphatically denied that the striking mechanics of the Canadian Pacific Railway had been asked to go to the strike. He stated that he and other representatives of various international unions had come to Montreal for the purpose of settling the strike here to effect a settlement with the company. Failing this, measures would be taken to strengthen the hands of the men and carry on the struggle.

The other gentlemen are J. E. Franklin, president boiler-makers; J. W. King, president blacksmiths; James Wilson, president pattern makers; J. Keough, president iron molders; F. Ronnon, president carmen; A. B. Gault, president metal workers, and a few other officials of the various unions involved. They all come from various parts of the United States.

Three Bargain Upright Pianos.
For immediate clearing Heintzman & Co., Limited, 115-117 King-street west, Toronto, have put out for sale in their warehouses three upright pianos of well-known makers. These instruments have been but slightly used, are practically as good as new, but prices are only $175, $200 and $225 each—about half the original price. A small sum down and a small payment each month will buy any of these instruments.

Habit of Golf Enthusiasts.
Enthusiastic golf players are usually thirsty after a hot day's play, and it is very noticeable at all the clubs how radnor has become the popular beverage.

Radnor, by itself, or as a mixer, can be depended upon to give the thirsty immediate relief.

Sensor Can Wait This Time.
It was stated last night that a writ for libel had been issued against Premier Roblin, but the solicitors said to be interested denied any knowledge of this intention.

Pianos to Rent.
Heintzman & Co., Limited, 115-117 King-street, Toronto, make a feature of renting pianos at a small sum per month, and what is paid in this way will, when desired, be allowed on the purchase of a piano. It interested see them.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE

Sir James P. Whitney will speak at the big meeting to be held in Montreal on Oct. 9. This will be in the St. Antoine division, H. B. Ames' constituency.

Another meeting on the 7th, to be held in Montreal, will be attended by Hon. Dr. Reame.

No other arrangements have yet been definitely concluded for meetings at which Sir James is expected to speak.

Joseph Martin has announced that he will run in Victoria as well as in Vancouver.

Richard Blain, the Liberal-Conservative candidate for Peel County, is holding a series of public meetings throughout the riding. To-night he will speak at Brampton, Houghton Lennox of South Simcoe also addressing the audience on Thursday night, Oct. 1, at Castlemore, at Malton on Friday night and on Saturday night at Churchville. The meetings have been very largely attended and considerable interest is being manifested by both parties in the contest.

Yesterday at the Liberal convention held at Winchester Springs, it was decided that it would not be expedient to present to place a candidate in the field to contest the county. The convention was well attended and a hearty endorsement given to the federal house at Ottawa, with Sir Wilfrid Laurier as leader. It is understood that S. S. Reveler, B.A., barrister, will run as an Independent Conservative.

Aaron A. Wright, who failed to secure the Liberal nomination in South Renfrew, has secured his re-election as postmaster of Renfrew. He has not taken over the duties yet, but he has taken the oath of office.

Hon. G. W. Ross will address the Progressive Club at evening luncheon on Oct. 6.

Except that a meeting in Massey Hall is being arranged in the interests of the local Conservative candidates, at which Sir James Whitney may speak, no further engagements had been definitely made in the city Conservative campaign last night.

It is rumored that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will speak in Massey Hall, but no confirmation is obtainable.

"During a recent visit to England it was assumed that in the British house of commons it is not suspected that one member has been elected corruptly or holds his seat for purposes of graft," says Rev. Dr. Chown.

Hon. Frank Cochrane and A. Plante of Valleyfield were speakers yesterday at the East Algoma Conservative convention in Blind River.

The Liberal convention for the Assiniboia turned down Sir Wilfrid Laurier's cousin, Dr. Laurier, former member of the House of Commons, in favor of P. A. Seguin, a notary.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, minister of finance and Hon. A. B. Aylemer will speak in Massey Hall on Thursday evening.

A Stratford special says: A newly organized young Liberal Club has elected officers as follows: President, Dr. Quinn; first vice-president, J. R. McDaniel; second vice-president, W. J. Hamley; third vice-president, Dr. Forster; treasurer, W. J. Hamley; executive, John Stevenson, M. J. McCullough, O. F. Flaherty, A. Pidgeon, C. Campbell, J. D. McCarthy, John Murray, H. H. Morris, Chas. Collingham.

The railway brotherhoods of Ontario are said to be considering the advisability of putting up a railway man in one of the Toronto's most likely in the west, and the name of Harvey Hall, president of the Ontario Brotherhood, is one of the names prominently mentioned. A decision in the matter will be reached at a conference to be held in a few days.

Whichever party wins, says The Christian Guardian, let us have from there is no doubt that in both parties there are enough unscrupulous men to make possible an election which shall not be clean, and in the case of each party the sole justification urged will be the suspicion that the other party would resort to these same indefensible methods, and self-defence is deemed a sufficient apology. It is surely time that Canadian politicians had done with such reasoning, and instead of defending the wrong-doings of their own party, what Polk in Missouri said in reference to similar wrong-doings applies here, "These men are not Democrats nor Republicans; they are criminals." So we have a right to say in our own land of certain "fellows of the baser sort." These men are not Reformers nor Conservatives; they are criminals. Let our public men refuse to own their success to such men, and Canadian public life will be the gainer. Let us have a clean election campaign, and let scantest mercy be shown to any who shall try to introduce criminal practices into any party of our wide-spread territory.

A Ridgetown special says: D. A. Gordon was nominated for East Kent by the Liberals. Prominent on the platform were Hon. Sydney Fisher and Speaker Sutherland. The East Kent Convention rules for a primary ballot was read, but one delegate asked for suspension, which was adopted, only one name being in the mind of the delegates. The nomination of Mr. Gordon was accepted by a standing vote. There were over four hundred delegates present. The convention was most enthusiastic and the speeches all along were on general political lines. Mr. Fisher spoke chiefly on agriculture and Speaker Sutherland and Mr. Clark, Essex, supported Candidate Gordon and the Laurier administration.

Hon. Frank Cochrane has gone north again. He will attend the miners convention.

Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the hydro-electric commission in the Ontario Government, has accepted Windsor's invitation to address a public meeting early in November on Niagara power.

The big Liberal rally held in the Windsor Armories last night was attended by about 1200. The chair was taken by A. R. Bartlett, barrister, and speeches were made by Hon. R. P. Sutherland, candidate, North Essex, H. Clark, candidate South Essex, J. Tremblay, Hon. W. S. Fielding, French and Hon. W. S. Fielding.

Hon. Thomas Cashin, ex-attorney-general of Quebec, who was yesterday by the Basco Conservatives, will receive his answer on Thursday.

by reason of the greater importations from other countries.

Mr. Borden also dealt with the timber and land scandals, and concluded with a prediction of a triumphal return of the Conservative party on Oct. 26.

Mr. Hanna alluded to the remark of Mr. Guthrie, the Liberal candidate, at the Toronto convention that it was not literature but postulates that appealed to the voters. Such a statement did not do justice to the intelligence of the people. At Berlin, minister of the crown had promised that a new clock would be in place in the postoffice tower, bought and paid for by the people of Canada, by the 26th of October.

Memorable Precedent.
Mr. Hanna compared the situation with the condition preceding the defeat of the Ross government. Mr. Whitney had promised to give clean charges that he had administered elections, and honest administration. He was sneered at by Mr. Ross and his friends, just as Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his friends were sneering at Mr. Borden when he was elected in 1905, an election judge had not mounted the bench to try the things that disgraced the province during the Ross regime.

The Liberal papers had been making personal attacks on himself because they had not chosen to answer the charges that had been made against the government. Not one of these papers had made these charges against him during the provincial campaign, and they would not make them in the next.

One reason why he should be on Mr. Borden's platform was he was one of the trustees of the people of Ontario. Mr. Hanna then elaborated the charge that the federal government had invaded the domain of the province by granting federal charters to purely local companies, and said Mr. Borden's policy was to respect the rights of the provinces in this respect. It was only in the past few years after several of the provincial governments had become Conservative that the federal government had attempted to strip the provinces of their rights, and the right which had undoubtedly been theirs for forty years.

His next point was the Immigration policy of the Dominion Government, quoting the figures of the increase in the number of admissions to the asylum by reason of the influx of undesirable citizens.

No Inside Reformation.
There would be no reform of the Liberal party, within said Mr. Hanna, referring to Sir Wilfrid's statement that he would take care of black sheep. The reform would have to come from the people.

"We know what Sir Wilfrid did a year and a half ago to reform his administration," when he substituted Mr. Pugsley for Mr. Emmerson," said Mr. Hanna. Mr. Pugsley was one who would be sitting on Mr. Borden's doorstep the morning after a change of administration. He was the man who had made charges about a Conservative campaign-fund in the Maritime Provinces, and when challenged to make good in the house of commons, he had said "Silent. Mr. Conna, who was driven out of the public life of the province in disgrace, Mr. Stratton, and others he could name, had gone to Ottawa to help Sir Wilfrid to reform his administration.

Col. Hugh Clark made a witty speech and Major Craig and J. P. Downey closed the meeting.

OPENING OF NEW ORGAN.
Musical Treat Last Night at the Centennial Methodist Church.

A musical treat was afforded the large audience attending the opening of the new organ at the Centennial Methodist Church, Dovercourt-road, last night. The organist of the church, Arthur B. Biele, gave an organ recital enriched with selections from Lemmens' "Storm Fantasia," Wagner's "Lohengrin" and "Die Walkure," H. Ruthven McDonald, baritone, and Dr. Frederic Nicolai assisted in making the concert a most successful one.

The new organ was constructed by Brockels & Matthews of this city. It includes great organ, pedal organ, swell organ and nine important accessories.
