TWENTY-ONE PLOTS FOR WOMEN'S WAR WORK

Will Be Rented to Different Clubs With Total of Four Hundred Workers.

The garden section of the women's war time thrift committee, as part of the scheme for food production, will be divided into twenty-one plots of equal size. These will be rented to different clubs of women, 400 of whom it is expected will be interested, and in this way gain a course of gardening.

Up to the present fourteen clubs have joined, and work has begun. A few days ago, when experienced gardeners did the planting while the women and girl students looked on. Later the clubs will do the weeding and the vegetables to be grown, and it is expected that next year the students of this season will be in a position to teach others.

Some of the clubs interested are the Women's Conservative Association, the Sherbourne Club, Rosary Hall Guild, the Deacons Home, the teachers of Osgood School, the Girls' Friendly and a group of girls from the establishment of a wholesale grocer.
