

RACE DEVELOPMENT IS BY EVOLUTION

Occult Lecturer Expounds
Doctrines of Progress—Believes in Canada.

"A great many people are anxious to be occultists," said Mrs. Maude Lambert Taylor, the famous English theosophical lecturer to a large audience which gathered last evening in Belmont Hall, 1217 St. Clair avenue. "But," she continued, "few of these would-be occultists are able to forego their dinners and other comforts." Mrs. Lambert Taylor pointed out that the only real path to freedom of will was that of annihilation, a path fraught with much sacrifice and a quality higher than unselfishness. She stated that the dreamy unpractical mystic was, as a matter of fact, a menace to the world.

Touching upon the problem of the coming sixth sub race of the Fifth Root Race, the lecturer stated that the United States had been considered as the ground of development, but that was now considered rather problematical in view of the fact that that country had become chained to a force which was detrimental to the growth of higher ideals, and this being the case, growth of a higher race in that country would be impeded. Hence the importance of any nucleus being formed there, although such a nucleus might be possible in Canada. The chief factor of the evolution of that race would be the intellect, as intellect had been the chief factor in the evolution of the fifth sub race, the Germanic.

During the course of her address the lecturer traced the course of evolution of the soul thru the varied phases of experience, in which desire and lower forms of action governed, to that phase in which the higher aspirations of the higher self in turn governed the desires controlling them, and making them subject to the greater will. This was a state attained only through a process of self-examination and self-purification—purification of the physical as well as all other bodies. After the determination to purify the physical body came the determination to purify the other selves. And the purification of these selves was brought about thru a transmutation of the lower desires into higher channels, thus creating a force of aspiration as against desires. And, as our efforts toward devotion and universal love become more pronounced, we also did life itself become more and more worth while and easier to carry to the goal of perfection. Today brotherhood was on everybody's lips, but its manifestation was in the heart of but the very few. This was the practical application of the principle of universal brotherhood and love. Having attained this conception and realization of these principles, release from the slavery of the mind to passions and desires would be quickly accomplished.

SAYS DRURY HAS BROKEN PLEDGES

Major Tolmie, M.L.A., Criticizes Government's Failure to Abolish Patronage.

Windsor, Ont., Dec. 8.—The Drury government must answer for its broken pledges, according to Major Tolmie, M.L.A., of Windsor, especially with regard to its failure to abolish patronage as promised the electors during the 1919 U.F.O. campaign.

Not only is the government to be held to account for its broken pledges, but the local member also declares that the manner in which certain government departments have been administered will furnish heavy ammunition for both opposition parties immediately the session begins.

Scored Clarke's appointment upon the appointment of J. B. Clarke of Chatham to the registrarship of Kent county. "Mr. Clarke's appointment," said he, "is an injustice to the returned soldiers, who were capable of undertaking such an office and who needed the work."

Major Tolmie also expects that the question of Hon. Mr. Ryan's administration of the Ontario temperance act along the border will come in for a special review.

DISCUSS REMEDIES FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Central Council of Ratepayers to Confer With Mayor—Controllers Speak.

The unemployment situation was discussed from all conceivable angles, and many suggestions were received by the central council of ratepayers at their meeting in the city hall last night. It was finally decided to select a committee to wait on the mayor and see what concerted action could be taken.

D. Moncur made a suggestion to the effect that all Toronto employers be asked to pledge themselves to give ten per cent of their output to employment to returned soldiers. Another suggestion was that each employer should give one day's work each week to a man. This was met with approval.

It was decided to petition the Dominion government to secure the co-operation of the provinces and municipalities in a scheme to relieve the situation. Work and improvements of various kinds could be commenced, which would give employment.

Con. Maguire spoke of the Hydro deal and urged the central council to exert all its influence to get the public to vote for the taking over of these utilities.

He also said that action had been taken to relieve the unemployment situation, and was confident that something definite would be done soon.

Controller Gibbons said that these public utilities taken over would be self-sustaining. A letter from W. Chapman of the Riverdale Ratepayers' Association was received, wherein Mr. Chapman announced his intention of resigning from the central body because, he said, it was ridden and controlled by The Evening Telegram, and that it was impossible for a member to get his opinions heard unless they coincided with that paper's. This was directed at Chairman George Shields, who, at the previous meeting of the body, had refused to permit a vote on the question as to whether a resolution should be made asking the Hon. Honeyford's tax reform motion should go to the people at the municipal elections. At that time a number of the members had walked out. The meeting, however, passed a vote of confidence in the chairman.

NET COST OF WAR WAS 24 BILLIONS

Secretary of U. S. Treasury
Fixes Price of Hostilities to Country.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The net cost of the war to the United States government was fixed by Secretary of the Treasury Houston today at $24,010,000,000. This, he said, represented the "adjusted" expenditure of the treasury, excluding all other outlay which had no relation to the actual prosecution of the war during the period from April 6, 1917, to June 30 last, which, he said, covered the expenses of the government's war-time fiscal operations.

Total expenditures by the government during the period covered, excepting only postal disbursements from postal revenues were $38,830,812,895, treasury figures showed. Of this amount $16,078,844,097 was obtained in taxes and revenues from sources other than borrowed money.

Mr. Houston said a deduction of $9,523,000,000, the amount loaned to foreign governments, should be made from the grand total since these loans will be repaid and consequently cannot be charged as an actual expenditure. The secretary made other deductions aggregating approximately $4,500,000,000, which he said, represented the excess cost of actual government operations for the three years and three months over what they would have been in normal times.

A special measure giving the complete expenses of the United States peace commission during its work abroad was transmitted to the senate today by President Wilson.

Total expenditures amounted to $1,651,191.09 from Dec. 1, 1918, to Dec. 4, 1920. The amount actually paid was $1,703,712.08, but repayments and gains in exchange reduced this by $52,520.97.

ONTARIO STEER WINS BLUE RIBBON EVENT

Matchless Pete, Owned in Elora, Gains Classic Prize of Winter Fair.

Guelph, Ont., Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Ontario and Wellington County achieved a triumph over western Canada at the Winter Fair today, when "Matchless Pete," a grade Shorthorn steer, carried off the grand championship of the show, well known as the blue ribbon event of the week. He defeated the champion Hereford steer, "Greenwood Day," who was exhibited by the University of Alberta, in a great contest, and when the judges, after deliberating for some time over the two animals, finally placed the championship ribbon on the broad back of "Matchless Pete," there was great applause. The grand champion is the property of John Kofas & Sons, R.R. No. 3, Elora, and was bred and cared for by one of the sons, this being the first steer he ever fed for exhibition purposes.

The judges were unanimous in their decision, and no fault was found with the largest of several years past. It is certainly a handsome steer, and compares very favorably with the winner of previous years. The judges were somewhat disappointed, as they expected to carry off the honors with their steer, "Greenwood Day," but reserve champion was the best he could get here.

There was a tremendous crowd in the buildings all day today, the attendance being the largest for several years past, and while the judging was in progress every available seat and point of vantage around the arena was occupied. The handsome black Aberdeen Angus cattle and the grades and crosses occupied the attention of the judges and kept them busy all forenoon, the grand championship not being awarded until after 12 o'clock.

Alberta Type is First.
In the Aberdeen Angus class, for years under one year, the championship went to Alberta type, exhibited by the University of Alberta. Lowe & Haldin of Elora, with Middlebrook Prize 31st, captured the championship for heifers under one year old.

A letter from W. Chapman of the Riverdale Ratepayers' Association was received, wherein Mr. Chapman announced his intention of resigning from the central body because, he said, it was ridden and controlled by The Evening Telegram, and that it was impossible for a member to get his opinions heard unless they coincided with that paper's. ## MAY REQUEST U. S. TO CURB DE VALERA

British Government Considering Doing So in Interests of Friendship.

London, Dec. 8.—The British government is considering whether it will request the United States government, in the interests of Anglo-American friendship, to take official notice of the anti-British activities in the United States of Professor Eamonn de Valera, "president of the Irish republic," according to a statement made today by Andrew Bonar Law in the house of commons, in response to questions.

Mr. Bonar Law answered: "I think there is no doubt that we would, from the diplomatic point of view, have the right to take the course suggested, but it is not a question of a right but of what is expedient." Responding to another query, Mr. Bonar Law said: "Undoubtedly a very severe campaign is being conducted in America against this country, but so far we have found the Americans can be trusted to look at the matter from a reasonable point of view."

FIUME GROWS TIRED OF D'ANNUNZIO RULE

Italian Government Wants
Populace to Be Guaranteed
Self-Determination.

Rome, Dec. 8.—Members of the chamber of deputies who have returned from Fiume have reported to Premier Giolitti the impressions they received from their visit there, insisting upon the necessity of a quick settlement of the problem in order to avoid unforeseen incidents like that of the destroyer Decio and the submarine-chaser P3, which have gone over to d'Annunzio, threatening to complicate matters.

Meanwhile the government has received reports from Fiume to the effect that the Socialist, Catholic and democratic parties do not recognize the authority of the government, and that the people there must be left free to choose their own form of government. The reports add that a large majority of the population of Fiume are ready to accept the Italian government, only wishing to settle the question of the port of Barossa, which they think cannot be separated from the remainder of the port of Fiume.

The people of Fiume also are anxious to emerge from the abnormal situation, which for 15 months has cut the city off from commercial activities. The government difficulty seems to be that the Italian government does not wish to recognize the regency without positive guarantees that before long the population of Fiume will be allowed freely to express their self-determination, and that the regency will not take such action that once the regency is recognized d'Annunzio shall not continue a perpetration of his military rule.

MUST UNDERSTAND DOMINIONS' IDEAS

Times Says They Have Not Been Grasped Yet by British Statesmen.

London, Dec. 8.—Discussing the visit of the prince of Wales to the city yesterday, the Times remarks that it is almost a year ago since he spoke at the Mansion House, after his return from Canada.

The burden of his speech at that time was the change the war had made in the mutual relations between the various states of the empire, and he insisted that the old country must understand the stress and aspirations of the dominions.

Those truths, says the Times, have made their way into the consciousness of the British people during the past year, but they are not yet understood here in their full significance even by some leading statesmen of those islands, as witness the antiquated ideas of the regency which means which have been evident in recent contributions to the Irish question.

WISE OF PASSPORTS REFUSED BY GEDDES

Special Commission of Committee of 100 Forbidden to Visit Ireland.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The British embassy today refused to vize the passports of the members of the special committee selected by the "Commission on Conditions in Ireland," now in session here to visit Ireland to study conditions there at first hand.

This means that the members of the committee will not be permitted to visit Great Britain. The decision of Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, not to vize the passports was made known in a letter sent to Wm. MacDonald, secretary of the commission, by R. L. Craigie, first secretary of the embassy.

The letter follows: "In application for vizes of passports of certain gentlemen whom your commission have designated as their representatives to proceed to the United Kingdom to investigate conditions in Ireland. I am directed by His Britannic Majesty's ambassador to inform you that the proposed visit to British territory is not agreeable to His Majesty's government. Vises will, therefore, not be affixed to the passports in question. The passport office in New York has been instructed accordingly."

Case Well Considered.
This decision has been reached after full consideration of the circumstances of the case, and I refer you to the ambassador's letter of Oct. 23, in which he informed you that he was unable to believe that the truth could be established unless there had been a period of quiet in Ireland and then only by persons of the greatest experience of the laws of evidence with power to compel the production of books, papers and records, and that any other form of enquiry would, in his opinion, lead only to a mass of statements unsupported by facts being made for propaganda purposes.

Sir Auckland Geddes has ventured to hope that the full meaning and significance of these observations would have been clear. In view of the fact that the ambassador's letter to you of the 23rd October last appeared in the press, I am to inform you that this letter will be published."

NO SETTLEMENT YET ON GERMAN CABLES

Disposition Not Solved by International Communications Conference.

Washington, Dec. 8.—Technical recommendations of the delegates of the five allied and associated powers, who have been in session here at the preliminary international communications conference, to be submitted to the general conference of all nations for approval, as made public here today thru the state department, show that disposition of the former German cables seized by France, Great Britain and Japan, in 1914, still remains unsolved. This was one of the principal questions for settlement with which the conference was charged.

Resolutions adopted by the delegates looking toward the improvement of communications between the principal allied and associated powers, are expected to serve as a basis for continued efforts along that line.

AIM TO DEVELOP INLAND WATERWAYS

Congestion in Railroad Traffic in United States Must Be Relieved.

Washington, Dec. 8.—Importance of a studied and systematic development of the waterways of the United States as a means of relieving congestion in railroad traffic, particularly in bulk commodities, and of insuring more economic movement of export freight, was emphasized by speakers at the opening session here today of the national rivers and harbors conference. Secretary of War Baker told the congress the country faced a period when it must conserve to the utmost its transportation resources and facilities while Secretary of Commerce Alexander emphasized the importance of cheaper movement of export freight from the interior if the United States is to maintain an export trade commensurate with the carrying capacity of its new merchant marine. Both declared these necessities could be met only by a systematic development and use of inland waterways.
