

ship to the Treasury Board Secretariat and the Public Service Staff Relations Board; and

That the review entail a study of the relationship of the Public Service Commission and the departments and agencies; and consider the development of an audit system for performance accountability with respect to matters delegated to departments and agencies under the Public Service Employment Act.

Hon. J.-J. Blais (Postmaster General): Mr. Speaker, I chaired the joint parliamentary committee relating to the public service and staff relations within the public service. There was much deliberation. I feel it would not be useful at this time to proceed with this debate, so I move:

That the House do now adjourn.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): In my opinion the yeas have it.

And more than five members having risen:

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Ethier): Call in the members.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Blais) which was agreed to on the following division.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Speaker: For the convenience of hon. members, we might take a half minute to explore what the business will be on Monday. I do not know if that would warrant to be done by way of a point of order.

Mr. Blais: Mr. Speaker, I will be pleased to do that. On Monday we will be proceeding with Bill C-60 relating to redistribution in northern Ontario.

Mr. Woolliams: Mr. Speaker, when is Bill C-51 coming up for debate?

Mr. Blais: Thereafter, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker: This House stands adjourned until Monday at 2 p.m.

At 4.50 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
