

The Evening Times

LAST EDITION

VOL. IV, NO. 155

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, MARCH 28, 1908.

EIGHT PAGES—ONE CENT

SOCIETY LEADERS WILL MIX IT WITH PUGILISTS

Athletes with Blue Blood and Dollars will face Professional Pugilists in Philadelphia Club just to show that they can do it.

Philadelphia, Pa.—With Attorney J. Drexel-Biddle, known on two continents as a social leader, crack amateur athlete and friend and biographer of "Bob" Fitzsimmons, as their leader, a half dozen well known men of this city will face, in boxing bouts at the Merion Cricket Club next Saturday night, the same number of square shouldered, muscular pugilists and for five rounds mix up things generally with the gloves.

STRIKE FACTS

The Sun this morning prints several incorrect statements about the strike of the Times pressmen. It is not true that the delegation on Thursday night told the manager what would happen. They said they would report to "a higher power."

DIVINE HEALER SENT TO PRISON

Fall River, Mass., March 28.—Frederick La Plante, thirty years of age, talking in Webster, Mass., and who represents himself as a divine healer by reason of being the seventh son of a seventh son was arrested today on a charge of obtaining money on false pretenses.

CHEAPER GEMS BEST SOLUTION

Johannesburg, March 27.—Ex-Mayor Henderson, of Kimberley, who is interested in the diamond trade, writes to the press advocating a reduction in the price of stones as a panacea for the depression in the industry. He recalls that the late Cecil Rhodes at the last meeting of the De Beers Mining Company that he attended laid down that it was the best policy to maintain the dividend steadily at 40 per cent, which could be attained by charging 40 shillings a carat, which was a fair price.

LATE PERSONALS

Rev. David Lang returned to the city on the Montreal train today. James Patterson came in on today's Montreal train from Toronto. Guy Johnston came in on today's Montreal train.

HOW ONE AMERICAN CITY STARTED BOOM MOVEMENT; COULD WE DO THIS HERE

An American city of 25,000 inhabitants recently awakened to the fact that it was experiencing a period of inertia; its development and growth were at a standstill. Its merchants realizing this, a campaign of publicity was commenced, a committee of the Merchants Association took the matter in hand, and the fame of the city began to spread.

DR. MACPHAIL AT HALIFAX

Halifax, N. S., March 28.—(Special)—Dr. Andrew Macphail addressed a large meeting here last evening on "Protection and Politics" before the Canadian club. The lecturer dealt with the ethical rather than the economic side of the question. He traced the history of protection in Germany, France and Canada, and showed how it constituted the basis of defence at certain critical periods in the history of these countries.

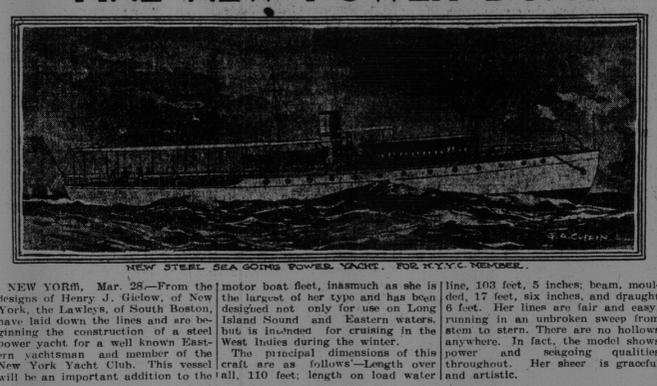

HAS NOW SLEPT FOR 52 DAYS

Mrs. Bella Hawkins who is still in a Trance has broken all records. Los Angeles, California, March 28.—Mrs. Bella Hawkins has now surpassed all records for long sleeps in this state, according to authorities at the hospital here. Today was the fifty-second day of the aged woman's sleep. She has spoken but two words since entering the hospital. A score of attempts to awaken her have been without success.

MONTEAL STOCKS

Montreal, Que., March 28. (Special)—Stocks were slightly easier today. Canadian Pacific sold at 133 to 134 and Sea 27. The features were Dominion Coal 41; Nova Scotia Steel 55; McKay 57; Montreal Power 62.

FINE NEW POWER BOAT

NEW STEEL SEA GOING POWER YACHT. FOR N.Y.C. MEMBER.

NEW YORK, Mar. 28.—From the designs of Henry J. Gielow, of New York, the Lawleys, of South Boston, have laid down the lines and are beginning the construction of a steel power yacht for the well known Eastern yachtsman and member of the New York Yacht Club. This vessel will be an important addition to the motor boat fleet, inasmuch as she is the largest of her type and has long designed not only for use on Long Island Sound and Eastern waters, but is intended for cruising in the West Indies during the winter.

ANOTHER STREET MURDER IN NEW YORK'S CHINATOWN

Ing Mow, who is said to have given Tong secrets to the Police falls before Assassins' Bullets—Two Suspects Arrested.

New York, March 28.—A street murder which is believed to have been an outgrowth of the recent trials of a number of Chinamen for murder in Boston and Philadelphia, intensely excited the local Chinese quarter for a time yesterday. The victim was Ing Mow, who, in the troublesome times two years ago, was known as a lieutenant of Book Duck, leader of one of the rival Tong and who, since the retirement of Book Duck, has been looked upon by many Chinese men as the real leader of his faction.

BAKER POISONED, JURORS DECLARE

Arsenic Given Him by Persons Unknown to Them, Says the Verdict. New York, March 27.—After hearing several witnesses and refusing to hear others, a Coroner's jury sitting in Hackensack, N. J., yesterday decided, after two hours' deliberation, that the sudden death of Walter Farnsworth Baker at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurd, in Bergen county, on October 25, was due to arsenic administered by persons whose identity the jury was unable to determine.

A BICYCLE ROAD RACE

Rollaway Athletic Club will hold one for boys on May 9th. The Rollaway Athletic Club will hold a bicycle race on Saturday, May 9th, from 10 to 11 a.m. at the finish being at the Clifton House. Only those 16 and under are eligible. Entries may be made with James Hunter, 40 Princess street, or Jack Olive, 133 Princess street. The following have already signified their intention of starting: Jack Olive, W. Florio, James Hunter, and Harry Gleson. The admission fee is 25c.

JOHN H. ANDERSON

At his home at Peteswick Harbor, the most highly respected and beloved of its residents, passed away in a whole community to especially and deeply mourn its loss. Of his immediate relatives he is survived by a wife and six sisters, Mrs. Alex. Bayers and Mrs. Captain Park Kenham, of Bridgewater; Mrs. L. B. Cochrane, of Medicine Hat, and Mrs. Whicken Dickie, of Middle Musquodouit. The late W. Charles Anderson, of Halifax, and James A. Anderson, of Peteswick Harbor, are brothers.

LOST CATTLE IN THE RIVER

Amathy Coy of Upper Gagetown lost some valuable cattle in the river on Wednesday last, a fine cow and a steer. The animal had evidently wandered out on the ice.

POLICE COURT

Albert McKinnon, who appeared before Judge Ritchie this morning to answer a charge of smoking in No. 5 shed on the West side pleaded not guilty, and the case was set aside till 5 o'clock this evening. The case against Capt. Moore of S. S. Montrose, for dumping rubbish into the harbor was also heard and, as satisfactory explanations were finished the matter was dropped.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

A CALL FROM BIRDIE. The Times new reporter received a severe shock this morning. He was on the top floor with a smudge on his nose, an apron tied around him, his sleeves rolled up, and both hands full of type when a messenger announced that the lovely Miss Birdie McWhat was awaiting him down stairs. The young man had never revealed himself to Birdie except in a high collar and irreproachable apparel. Before venturing to call he always scrubbed his face till it shone. With the air of one going to his doom he dropped the type and went below. The fair Birdie set her head on an angle which made her face visible under the new spring hat which she wore, and surveyed the new reporter with a cold stare.

"I don't think you need a pencil," she said sweetly. "I am sure you can write with the end of your finger the