Next Week Should Be Notable in Local Theatres.

EDWARD TERRY COMING.

W. S. Harkins Stock Company to Open in the Opera House — Terry at the York Theatre in "Sweet Lavender."

Next week should be a notable one to St. John theatre goers. Edward Terry, the dean of the English stage, will appear for one night only at the York Theatre, while W. S. Harkins' stock company, will open a three weeks' engagement at the Opera

As for Sweet Lavender, the bill which Terry will produce for St. John's theatre, outside of the marvellous character of Pheny, there is little to it.

It is about—well, about Sweet Lavender, the landlady's daughter, at 8 Brain Court Temple, where lodge Clement Hall and Dick Pheny, law student and brilliant barrister, respectively, Clement Hall is the adopted son of a rich banker, and normally engaged to Miss Minnie Gulligan, the banker's niece; and he falls in love with the landlady's daughter, to the great perturbation of his friend, Dick Pheny, his aunt, Mrs. Gulligan, and the landlady's daughter's mother, herself, so much so that the storehouse landlady's daughter's mother decides to run away, and hide herself and her child. The "wicked uncle," in the person of the banker, consigns his obstinate adopted son to the gutter, and promptly slaps him on the wrist, by manning his bank for him, and further lacerates his feelings by revealing in the landlady's daughter's mother, the girl he had wronged eighteen years before. It is all very sad, but of course, prospective produce penitence. "Sweet Lavender" and her mother come back, the banker repents and tries to make reparation, and the bank goes on its feet again, mainly through the disinterestedness of Dick Pheny, whose legacy of $40,000 is the big claim ing to work in one of the Japanese act stores on Fifth avenue, had been a local stage favorite in Tokyo.

Walter Hale, leading man of Wm. H. Crane's company, purchased an 18-horsepower Northern touring car during the recent automobile show in Chicago. It will be shipped to Naples early in May, and Mr. Hale and his wife—Louise Closser Hale—now playing in "Aladdin" at the Savoy, will make a tour through Italy and France to Paris, writing and illustrating a series of articles for Harper's Magazine.

"I want to go into the show," said a countryman to the treasurer of a theatre where "The Bonnie Briar Bush" was playing recently, "and I don't want to be crowded, neither. I'm willing to pay for what room I take up. How much does a seat cost?" "One dollar and fifty cents," was the reply.

"How many does a seat hold?" was the next query. "I said," said the treasurer, wondering at the question, "Well, that's all right," said the man, whose mind seemed to be relieved by the reply. "I bought a seat in a train coach," into town this morning and there was five of us in it before we reached here."

MORNING NEWS IN BRIEF.

Local.

The collection taken in the cathedral yesterday for the orphan amount to about $270.

It was Ellsworth McBeth, engineer, who met with painful injury Wednesday afternoon on board the tug Norrid.

Information from Yarmouth yesterday was to the effect that the shareholders of the Bank of Yarmouth are likely to be called upon for double liability.

A letter has been sent to the branches and some of the friends of the L. D. A. by Rev. J. A. Richardson, president, and Rev. C. W. Hamilton, secretary, announcing that the date of the annual meeting of the provincial L. D. A. has been changed to the 31st inst.

An article about six or seven inches long, fell from the roof of the Windsor Hotel yesterday afternoon and it went crashing through the skylight of Freese Bros' workshop. Fortunately there was no one below at the time. The damage done will probably be covered by $20 or $30.

William Harvey, one of the chain gang, escaped yesterday afternoon on Marsh Road, as the gang were pursuing to the jail. He slipped his hand out of the handcuffs and ran. Harvey, who is 22 years of age, was arrested about a week ago for being drunk, profane and resisting the police.

On Monday evening a concert will be given in the school room of St. David's Presbyterian church, under the auspices of St. David's Young People's Association. A good programme has been arranged, which will be rendered by Miss Smith, Miss Manning, Miss Fowler, Miss Sinclair, Mrs. H. Cole, Mrs. C. Froese, Mrs. Croighton, Mrs. Barnes, Messrs. McNorth, and others.

The evening will be national and the programme will consist of English, Scotch and Irish music.

Provincial.

Several passengers who wished to go from Moncton to St. John yesterday morning in No. 134, were left standing on the station platform, on account of the train leaving ahead of the train for Halifax. Usually the St. John train does not leave until after 88 pulls out, and the St. John men relied upon the same course being followed today, but they were fooled.

General.

Fire broke out in the third floor of the Crompton block, a five story building in the heart of the mercantile district, Worcester, Mass., last night, and wrecked the building with an estimated loss of upwards of $150,000.

Mrs. Mary Kenchett, aged 82 years was burned to death at Eastport yesterday in a fire that destroyed a two-story house at Lord's Cove, Deer Island (N. B.).

The household property of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was sold at auction yesterday to A. D. Nelson, of New York, for $25,200. Samuel L. Winteritz, of Chicago, was the second highest bidder, with a bid of $25,100. There were twenty bidders.

RINKS CLOSE TONIGHT.

That skating is popular in St. John has been proven by the large number of people who have patronized the rink of the city during the past few months. On band nights, carnivals, hockey matches, or whatever the attraction was, the rinks have been well filled, and the St. John people have shown that skating and ice sports are always popular here. Tonight will be the last chance the people of this city will have to indulge in this form of pleasure, as both rinks will close after this evening for the season. At the Queen's and Victoria's skating rinks the management has been ahead of previous years.

ONE THING LACKING.

A Southern planter was asking one of his colored servants about her wedding.

"Yes, sah," she said, "it was jes' the finest wedding I ever see—six bridesmaids, flowers, everywhere, hundreds of guest, music an' er heape er prayin'."

"Indeed," commented her master, "and I suppose Sambo looked as handsome as any of them?" An embarrassed pause. "Well, no—not 'xactly, sir. Would you believe dat fool nigger never showed up!"—Harper's Weekly.

Afflicted with Erysipelas For Ten Years.

Cured by Four Bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters.

Mrs. N. Peisler, of Brighton Ont., was Cured Two Years Ago and Has Had No Return of It Since.

Read what she says:—"It is now about two years since I was cured of a terrible attack of Erysipelas, with which I had been afflicted for about ten years. I had tried almost everything, including medicine from several doctors, but could get no relief. I had given my case up as hopeless, but I procured five bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, and it completely cured me. In fact, the cure has been permanent. It is now two years since I took Burdock Blood Bitters, and I have not had the slightest sign of the disease returning. I fully believe that your wonderful remedy has taken it so completely out of my system that I shall never be bothered again with it. I have the greatest of faith in Burdock Blood Bitters."
