

We regret the loss of the following teachers: Mrs. Clunas, now in Hamilton; Mr. Passmore, lately appointed Superintendent of King Street School; the two Miss Harwoods and Mr. Brown. These teachers took an active and earnest part in the work.

We have welcomed the following additions to our teaching staff: Mrs. Milliken, Mr. James Dickson and Miss Robb. One vacancy being, at writing, unfilled.

Mr. Robert Kippan, who has so well filled the office of Secretary for several years, declined re-election. His place has been filled by the election of Mr. Alex. Craig, with Mr. D. Kippan as assistant.

We regret the loss, by death, of a member of our infant class, Charles Herman Pennecott.

One of the largest items of expenditure is for lesson helps, of which we endeavor to supply the best procurable, and while we note with pleasure the manifest interest taken in their studies by some, we regret its lack in others. We would urge on parents their duty in this matter—to see their children prepare the allotted lessons; catechism, golden text, memory verses and the lesson points. The teachers are at considerable pains in their preparation, and the scholars should be equally faithful.

We cannot close without expressing the help received by the presence with us of Mr. Scott and his successor, Rev. Walter Moffat; both gentlemen attending regularly and taking part faithfully in teaching. Much of our success is due to them.

Our thanks are again due to the First Presbyterian Sabbath School for their kind donation of $50.00.
