DETECTIVE FINDS MAN; LETTER IS DELIVERED

Detective Thos. Barrett received a letter a few days ago from Mrs. Andrew Bryce, who is at present in Muthill, Perthshire, Scotland, asking that he locate her father, and if successful to hand over to him a letter which she enclosed in the one to the detective. Detective Barrett located the man and mailed the letter to him this morning.

Mrs. Bryce's husband went overseas with a New Brunswick regiment. At that time he and his wife lived in St. John. Following closely after her husband's departure his wife went to her home in Scotland. Pte. Bryce crossed to France to do his bit and in recent heavy fighting he was taken a prisoner and is now in Germany. Mrs. Bryce has heard from him and she said in the letter that he was doing well.

Some years ago Detective Barrett and Pte. Bryce were stone cutters in St. John together.

NO COUNCIL MEETING.

As there was no quorum, the common council did not meet in committee before the commissioners meet in council, and it was thought at city hall this morning that the council will not convene until next Tuesday, with the commissioners' meeting for committee sessions on Monday morning.

GOLD WATCH FOR SOLDIER.

There was a pleasant gathering last evening at the home of Charles Addison, Hawthorne avenue, in honor of his brother, Private Herbert Addison, who is going overseas with the 28th Battalion from No. 8 Field Ambulance Depot. A gold wrist watch was presented to Private Addison on behalf of the gathering. Music, games and dancing helped to make the affair an enjoyable one.

GLAD HE WENT

Private William Ross, of the 26th Battalion in writing to his sister, Miss Helen, of 55 Murray street, says that the country in which he is at present is very beautiful and that he not only likes the climate, but also the work, and adds that he would not have missed the trip over to Europe for a lot. IN TROUBLE AGAIN

John Travis, who has figured in police circles several times, was again arrested last night by Sergeant Journey and Policeman McAnish, on an old commitment. Travis secured his release some time ago on condition that he would keep the peace in future and upon condition that the sentence that was then struck be allowed to stand. The sentence was lifted pending his good conduct. Now the commitment went out against him for acting disorderly and drinking. He will now have to serve out his former sentence.

WIDOW OF SHERIFF REID

On last Tuesday evening Mrs. Amelia Reid, widow of Sheriff Reid, passed away at the home of her son, J. Frank Reid of Gagetown in the seventy-first year of her age. Mrs. Reid, nearly five months ago, suffered a stroke of paralysis and never recovered from the effect. It is with a feeling of deep regret that the community has lost the widow of a death, as, owing to her quiet, beautiful, Christian life she was much esteemed and loved. Mrs. Reid leaves to mourn a loving mother, three sons, James Frank Reid of Gagetown, Wm. C. of New York and Richard R. of Gagetown, and two daughters, Mrs. F. H. Colwell and Mrs. Alexander Duncan of St. John. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Harry Harrison and interment was made in the Methodist burying ground at Gagetown.

MISS BESSIE J. COLLINS

General regret was expressed this morning when it became known that Miss Bessie J. Collins, daughter of I. C. R. Policeman Collins, died at the home of her parents after an illness of five weeks. The young lady was only twenty-one years of age. Up to the time she fell ill she had been matron in the I. C. R. station. Typhoid fever was the cause of her death. She leaves besides her mother and father, four brothers and one sister. The brothers are William, James F., Albert C. and George C., and the sister, Mrs. C. A. Comeau, all of whom reside in the city. The sympathy of the entire community will go out to the bereaved ones. Her death comes just when life stretched out most invitingly before her. She was popular with a large number of friends, and her loss is missed not only from the family circle but also at the depot, where she rendered valuable service in the capacity of matron.

LANCE CORPORAL HAROLD MCKIEL IN TRENCHES AGAIN

In a letter to a friend in this city, Lance-Corporal Harold McKiel writes: "My good times in England are over for the present but I did have a very good time while I was there. After rejoining the battalion, we started on the march to a new part of the line, that is new to us, and on the sixth day of the march we landed in the trenches. The first night we were pretty tired but it was fine, thank goodness, and so we managed very well. It is a quiet spot where we are now, quiet for a place with a war on."

"We have now finished our first trip in this line and it is quite comfortable in an old house in quite a large French village. That is a peculiar thing about this country; the people all live in villages, with perhaps no houses at all on the road between. The houses generally are built in a clump of trees and whenever you see a bunch of trees, you may be pretty sure there is a village there."

"The mail arrived and caused quite a stir. I was lucky enough to get one of the letters and one of the fellows had a parcel to share with the rest of us, so it was quite a lucky event all together. The weather is getting rather nasty now but our trenches here are much better than where we were last winter and we know how to take care of ourselves much better."

MILK DEALERS MAY RAISE PRICE OF MILK

Meeting Held Last Evening and All Favored Increase to Ten a Quart

Some local milk dealers met in the Palmer building, Princess street, last evening and discussed conditions. They were unanimous in the opinion that the price of milk be advanced to ten cents a quart. There was no definite action taken, owing to the absence of some of the larger dealers, so the meeting was adjourned until Friday evening.

The majority contended that owing to the advanced cost of feed and other commodities the price would have to be increased. L. C. Prime, one of the largest dealers in the city, was not at the meeting, and as he was absent from the city today his views on the matter could not be ascertained.

Solid Comfort and Good Looks in a Good Overcoat, or Shabbiness and Shivers Without One--Which?

We believe in the intelligence and common sense of the men who read this.

We have no bait to throw out to them, and in fact we don't believe many men of any account are looking for bait.

We have just two things to offer, and we will back these against the field.

They are our goods and our service. There are more Men's Overcoats in this store today than there have ever been in twenty-eight years of trying to give the men of Saint John a better kind of clothing service.

So far as close inspection can discover, every one of these belongs here by right, the right of good, honest, dependable quality.

We know that the test of them is not in what we say of them, but in what they prove to the experience of the wearers.

In selecting them and in having them made, we kept that fact in mind; and our own minds are now easy, for we know as surely as we write this that at their prices, $10 to $40, these Overcoats are not to be improved upon, and we doubt if, taken as a whole, they are equalled.

We are not less particular about Suits than we are about Overcoats, because we cannot afford to be. Our Suits are marked 10 to $35, and they carry a full measure of value for every penny of their price.

FURNITURE as Christmas Gifts

This winter weather sends our thoughts ahead to the holiday season, and the old question arises: "What shall I give for Christmas? The common-sense answer is Furniture!"

There never was a time in the history of Canada, when wastefulness was in such disfavor as at present, and the natural tendency at the Christmas season will be to make gifts of a practical nature.

For members of your household and your intimate friends, there are sure to be articles of Furniture which will make acceptable gifts and serve as lasting mementos for years to come, while, if you wish to remember your less fortunate neighbors, you will easily find something, usually classed as a necessity, which they lack and which will be received with joy at the season of Good Will.

Our large stock contains every conceivable article to meet every requirement, and you will do well to look it over early.
