SUGGESTIONS IN COURT REMOVE SHOT FROM ACCUSED
Millen, Ga., March 28. —A surgical operation performed in open court upon Sydney Rowe and Roscoe Chance, two of the five men charged with the murder of Watson Allen last Christmas, was the feature of the trial here of R. H. Chance, Roscoe Chance's father.

Using cocaine to deaden the pain, the surgeon extracted several shots to bear out the contention of the defence that they were fired by Allen, who was then killed in self-defence.

Roscoe Chance's body was bared to show the jury wounds in his left arm, left side and left thigh. He was driving a car containing the five men, which, it is contended, was fired upon near the Allen home.
