The new radiator for Centennial school has arrived and will be installed with all speed without inconveniencing the teachers and scholars. There were many complaints last year about the heating system of the school and the new equipment is intended to remedy the worst of the trouble.

Mrs. John Sealy gave the third lecture in the five weeks' course arranged by the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society, yesterday afternoon. Her subject was illustrated with lantern slides and the title was "Men and a Book" and she showed what remarkable effect the Bible stories had on art. Mrs. W. H. Shaw, presided, and a vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. George Matthews and seconded by Miss Grace W. Leavitt.

There was a happy gathering in the Sergeant's Mess at the Armory last night when the celebrating or Armistice Day took the shape of a smoker. There was no lack of good talent, plenty of soloists and speakers, while many a story was swapped between the returned men of happenings at the front during the great war. The gathering came to a close about midnight with the singing of the National Anthem.

A meeting for the purpose of re-organizing the original No. 6 company of the 1st Battalion, 1st Airborne Division, at the signallingers was held at the armouries last night under the supervision of Lieutenant Colonel J. H. Gowers, D. S. O., officer in charge of signalling in this district.

The organization is for the purpose of giving instruction to members of other corps who so desire. Steps are being taken to recruit 230 men. It is expected that former service men will organize a "Blue and White" Club here with the purpose of keeping in touch with each other. Clubs of this nature are already formed in various cities in the dominion and meetings of a social nature are held twice a year.

TO SELL A WORKHOUSE
London, Eng., Nov. 12.—Rather than pay further increases of salary to the officials, Hollingsbourne Board of Guardians have decided to sell the unprofitable workhouse.

At Woodstock yesterday under the Speedy Trials Act Judge Carleton sentenced Harry Roddie (colored) and George H. Jeffel to two years in the penitentiary on a charge of breaking in to the store of the United Farmers in Woodstock and stealing goods. The prisoners were taken to Dorchester last Francis J. Carey, teller of the National City Bank of Ottawa, Illinois, yesterday admitted to the police that he had stolen $45,000 of the bank's money. He disappeared after the robbery and it was thought at first that he had been locked in the vault. Most of the money taken has been recovered, though at the time of his arrest Carey had only $2 in his pocket.

The closing down of all the separate schools in Ottawa is forecasted in proceedings which have been instituted by the Bank of Nova Scotia before the master in chambers at Osgoode Hall, Toronto. Acting on behalf of the bank, Charles S. Smith, manager of one of the branches, has made application to the courts for leave to issue a writ of execution of a judgment obtained in the supreme court of Ontario whereby the bank was entitled to recover from the board of trustees the sum of $77,800.28.

According to a despatch from Port-au-Prince, Hayti, where an inquiry by a naval board of the United States is in progress, eleven hundred and thirty-two Haitians were killed in twenty-eight engagements since the intensive campaign of the United States marines began in October 1919.

Thomas R. Donovan of Ottawa, secretary of the national convention of the Self-Determination League for Ireland, Canada, and Lindsay Crawford of Toronto, president of the league, addressed a meeting in Charlottetown last night. There was a number of interruptions.

J. T. Foster of Montreal, president of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council, said yesterday that industrial prospects were gloomy and he expected a hard winter. Stephen Lemay of Cyr and Lemay employment bureau, said that 20,000 men were idle in Montreal at the present time.

PRISON DEMOCRACY.
