PARLIAMENT OPENING. Ottawa, Feb. 27—Following the speech rom the throne yesterday, Sir George Foster, acting premier, moved a resolu-tion of acknowledgement. tion of acknowledgement.

Hon W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the opposition, seconding the resolution of acknowledgement, referred to the general regret felt in the absence of the premier, Sir Robert Borden, as in the circumstances which compelled his absence. There was another whose absence was sadly felt, said Mr. King, in referring to the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Especially on such occasions of ceremony was the absence of Sir Wilfrid Laurier noticeable.

SPRING SUITS FOR GIRLS AND WOMEN

Styles as fresh and cheerful as the spring-time itself, and a good assortment from which

When it comes to fine tailoring, these Suits will stand the test of the closest examinations and will be found splendid examples of painstaking care in every little de-tail of finishing.

COATS are showing with loose or semi-fitting backs, free hanging or belted, and skirts are fairly narrow in width.

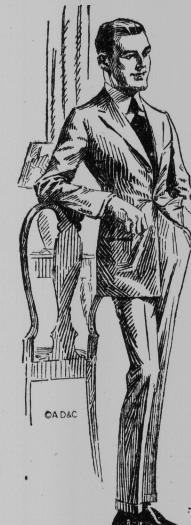

GABARDINES, TRI-COTINES, TWEEDS and SERGES are all favored for early spring wear and are developed in splendid shades of grey, light and dark sand, Copen, navy and

Silk embroidery are evident on several of the more dressy models. Collars are mostly in roll shawl shapes. Pleated shawl shapes. Pleated Coats are favored by narrow leather bands. Pockets of various shapes and sizes are used in both

Many other new style notes are also to be seen in these late Spring Models.

The Spring Bride-to-be could do no better than make a choice from among these well chosen assortments. NEW SPRING STYLES IN MEN'S SUITS AND TOP COATS

All that goes to make good clothes can be readily seen in our new stocks of Suits and Top Coats.

Men of all tastes will find here style, pattern and wearing qualities far removed from the common place, and customers who buy here take quality for granted.

TOP COATS for Spring are showing in many cleverly designed models. For the younger men Slip-ons seem to be the most favored, as they are correct for all occasions and offer the wearer complete comfort and snappy style. For the more conservative taste, "Chesterfields" are here in plain greys and blacks.

IN SUITS - Semi formfitting models are proving very popular. These are in two and three-button styles with soft roll peak lapel.

Other styles equally attractive are also being dis-
