Living From Hand to Mouth.
The following is from a recent statement by the ministry of food:
"We have reached a stage when every one must think and must realize the seriousness of the food situation." Every one is bound to live from hand to mouth, country folk as well as townpeople. The nation's food supply is uncertain, depending as it does on the ships. The whole community has to get its stores from day to day.
