

disobedience and
 Now here is
 ing to utilize it?
 preparation. All
 ble Society have
 us languages of Bible of every
 on. Now, what ady to go to the
 to send them.
 entury depends
 ey, the means.

on come when aries." Unable
 s life at home
 principles. Exess, they will
 conversion of

sure at being
 ed something
 ich had been ook more and
 been due to
 as addressing,
 He said that
 rs and carried
 t of Canada
 m the much
 for the day
 harmonized tings. This printed, and
 hich a Bible
 rest and best appreciate the
 into it, and
 od himself.
 opportunity to second the resolution and say amen to the words of three clergymen. He felt great satisfaction to stand up as one of the congregation and say, "these are our sentiments."

If we give in aid of this great work we shall receive the reward and blessing. Prayer, he thought, is not complete without giving. The large attendance at the meeting was an earnest of the increased interest in the work of the Bible Society.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. H. H. MACPHERSON.

A meeting, fairly attended, was also held in Kaye street church, and presided over by Rev. Mr. Hockin, the pastor, and was addressed by Revs. J. McMillan, A. C. Chute, N. I. Perry, and Capt. Winn, R. E., all of whom earnestly advocated the claims of the Bible Society. As no report of their addresses was furnished, we are unable to give them.

