

finding thine own pleasures, nor speaking thine own words."

We would call your attention to Sabbath Schools, this nursery of the Church and means of moral good to the rising generation; and which from their commencement have been of such general benefit to the world, and which are engaging so much of the talent of the church generally. We are happy to observe a rising interest in our own Denomination in this heaven-born institution; but hope the interest will be more general and intense in the future than it has been in the past.

As members of the Christian Church give your influence to the support of all the philanthropic Institutions of our country, such as the Bible, Tract, and Temperance Societies; which have been of such immense importance to mankind, but which might be greatly more so if the Church of God were fully alive to the aids these might in turn lend to her.

Our Missionary Funds are greatly improved this year, for which we thank God. But still they are unequal to the calls for the labors of our Church.—Several new Missions could be established were the funds at our command. All our funds are in an improved condition, and we are happy to add that there has been during the year an increase of membership. For the general improvement we feel thankful and ask your prayerful assistance for greater advances in the year on which we are just entering. We have no resources except the voluntary offerings of our people on which to depend, nor do we want, nor would we have any other. Yet if we meet the calls of our country your liberality must needs be increased.

We have witnessed with great pleasure the laudable efforts of the brethren on the Yonge street Circuit to raise a fund for the support of the Superannuated ministers, their widows and families. This is quite in Character with the liberality of the brethren on that charge, and we hope all the other Circuits will follow their example.

The present Conferencē has been one of great harmony. In this as in all other Conferences, matters
