

ABOUT TINWARE

We sell tinware lots of it, we keep a man making and repairing tinware all the time, and our tinware trade is growing, we want your tinware trade, and we are in position to do as well by you as anybody.

Just now we have a good stock of

Creamers, Milk Pans,
Cream Pails, Strainer Pails,
Dairy Pails, and Butter Tins.

you want a milk pan that will last, we make a pan out of
EXTRA HEAVY TIN,

That with care

Ought To Wear 10 Years

It is the cheapest pan to buy.

We have also a few Enameled Milk Pans, 6, 8, 10 quarts, give us a call when in need of Dairy Goods.

Second Hand Bicycles

We have two which we will sell cheap, we also keep one bicycle to let by the hour, day or week.

Try us when in need of

Paints, Brushes, Varnishes &c.

We keep the assortment. We are also right in it with

White Lead, Paint oil & Wire nails

We can sell these goods at St. John prices—freight added
Another car of Purdy & Green Lime; it is Good Lime.

SHAW & DIBBLEE,

Hardware -- Tinware -- and -- Bicycles.

Agents for Massey-Harris Farm Implements.

The Local News

The law firm of Young & Comben, Woodstock, has been dissolved.

Mrs. Edward Bateman of Chatham, took ill and died in church last Sunday.

A young man in P. E. I., recently captured a litter of six young silver foxes.

See notice elsewhere in this issue about the "Hartland Grocery"—D. D. Porter & Son, proprietors.

Mrs. Boyce of Fox Harbor, Cumberland Co., is in her 99th year. She is a wonderfully smart old lady and does all the necessary housework for her infant son, who is but three score years old.—Sackville Post.

Hay and straw has taken a sharp advance in the Boston market. Hay sells at wholesale at from $12 to $18 per ton. It is hoped this may have a tendency to send the price of hay a-soaring in our local markets.

Hugh Gillin was riding his wheel down street in the pitch darkness of Monday night when the storm was in progress, when he came into collision with S. Hayden Shaw who was driving in the opposite direction. Hugh got a severe cut over the eye, and it was necessary to have two or three stitches put in. The wheel was very badly broken.

Mrs. David Young of West Glassville, died very suddenly after an illness of measles.

Rev. G. W. Foster preached to a large and appreciative audience in the Free Baptist church last Sunday evening.

It is said one of Hartland's popular store clerks will wed a young lady from one of the suburban districts before the June roses cease to blush.

Guy R. Balloch, Centreville has applied at the law library, Fredericton, for admission as a law student.

Attention is directed to the change of date to which tenders for the construction of the new school house will be received.

There is renewed excitement over the Stanley gold discovery. Recent pannings have showed a value of $50 per ton of dirt panned.

Three years ago a man from the country went into Kentville and got into a fight, in course of which one of the frolicsome chaps he encountered kicked one of his eyes out. On the Queen's Birthday the one-eyed man visited Kentville again, got into a fight again and had the other eye kicked out.—Annapolis Spectator.

Contrary to report last week, John Kilburn's and William Neales' drives were gotten safely into the St. John.

A trotting park is to be made at Edmundston. Those interested in the matter are Messrs. Malcolm, Hebert, Marquis and Emmerson.

George Sanderson, agent of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Woodstock, has been promoted to the Halifax branch of that institution.

Charles Henderson, conductor of the Grand Falls branch train, has been spending a month attending the convention of railway Conductors at New Orleans, La.

The corporation drive got in to Woodstock on Monday and the crew returned to Grand Falls on Tuesday for a second run. There are about 80 men in charge of Sam Aikens.

Last week a party consisting of a gentleman from Ottawa, one from the States, and F. H. Hale, M. P. P. went up to Plaster Rock in Mr. Timmerman's private car to inspect the gypsum resources. They have in view the opening up of a greater plaster business.

Generally speaking, the Leader does not approve of newspapers making pathetic appeals through their columns to their patrons, but when the exchequer contains not the price of a postage stamp, the paper is the only medium by which the ear of the sinful delinquent can be reached. If there is no hell, there should be one, for the accommodation of delinquent subscribers.—Parrsboro Leader.

Try "Lion Brand," the fine Ceylon Tea, for sale at Carr's.—tf.

W. B. Jewett has come back to Woodstock, where he will for a time carry on a jewelry business. Charles F. Clare has also returned from Buffalo.

Last week the "hobo" train ran into a span of horses belonging to Moses Hallet, half a mile above Hartland, and injured them so that they had to be killed.

Unflagging interest prevails everywhere in the Union Blend Tea keys.

Sawyer's mill is doing excellent work this season, and it has not been two slow in the past, either. Since it "hoisted" it has been down for repairs but one-hour and a half. From 30,000 to 40,000 feet per day is cut, and from $5,000 to 45,000 laths are cut each day. About 50 men are employed in and around the mill. Campbell's mill at Upper Brighton is likewise doing good work and gives employment to 10 or 12 men.

- $5.00 -

... will buy a beautiful.....

Crayon Portrait

size 16x20 inches, with a fine frame if you get it enlarged by

G. A. KEITH,

Woodstock.