WIND UP OF AMATEUR LEAGUE. The 2.20 and 2.30 classes were hotly con-On account of the shortness of the evenings it has been found impossible to finish the St. John amateur league schedule. Therefore as matters stand, the Jubilees are the victors, being the league leaders. They also won the West End League.

The 2.20 and 2.30 classes were hotly content to investigate the business methods of the Washington departments, and do away with their efficiency.

The horses will be shipped tomorrow, some to Moncton and some of the washington departments, and do away with their efficiency.

The Athletics came a good second in the amateur league. In the greater number of games played the Athletics defeated the Jubilees, while the Y. M. C. A. won most of their games with the Athletics. The league winners, however, lost only a small number of games with the Y. M. C. A. The league will be the last races held here

Several of the members of the N. R. C. are much incensed at the Beavers being allowed in the league. They object solely because of the presence or one or two members in the new club, and advocate Neptunes dropping out of the league. However, this is not likely to occur. If it did it would mean the loss of a good team, and the N. R. c., with men like Marshall, Fairweather, Ellis, Barnaby, Coll and Emerson to form the nucleus of a fifteen, ought to give a good account of them-MOOSEPATH RACES ON LABOR
