BANK OF N. B. DISCUSSES INGREASE OF STOCK.

Some of the Shareholders Ask More Time For Consideration and Meeting Was Manchester occupied the chair.

The purpose for which the meeting was called, to increase the capital stock to $1,000,000, was first given. The Bank of New Brunswick, it was announced, had come to the position when an increase must be made and the directors now suggest making it in the usual manner, namely by an increase in the stock. A resolution was made that this should be done.

A short discussion followed. A number of those present asking for more time to consider the matter. Others spoke in favor of increasing the stock next Saturday.

Although the majority were in favor of deciding on the resolution at once, the views of the minority were consid-

About fifty shareholders of the Bank of New Brunswick attended the meeting called this morning at eleven o'clock by the directors. The meeting lasted for over an hour. President Manchester occupied the chair.

Messrs. Gerow and Morrell objected to Mr. Jones' question whether the girl said anything to the witness about what she believed was the matter with her. The objection was sustained, but the witness was allowed to answer a question as to what she said about her condition; how ill she believed she was. Continuing, witness said he asked how about 9 o'clock. Witness saw a small bottle of medicine pretty sick. He asked her how long in her room. It was brought to her on Mrs. Robert Clark, stepmother of
