MEMORIAL SERVICE IN CHAT-HAM.

A memorial service was held in St. Audrew's church, Chatham, last Saturday at 10.30 a. m. Rev. R. Henderson, the pastor of the church, presided, and with him in the pulpit were: Revs. D. MacIntosh, J. M. Maclean, W. C. Matthews and A. W. Lewis. St. Andrew's church was magnificentily draped, pulpit, choir gallery, organ gallery and along the side walls in royal purple, crape, black serge, etc. The pillars were shrouded in the same colors, and the draping along the gallery front was very effective.

The congregation, on assembling, found in their pews forms for the special service about to be observed. These are worthy of being preserved as mementoes. Printed in black and silver, bearing on their face an excellent portrait of her late Majesty, they are most tasteful and appropriate.

The service was begun promptly at half-past ten o'clock, Miss Edgar, orpanist, St. Andrew's church, playing a prelude. Revs. J. M. Maclean and W. C. Matthews led the devotions of the congregation, while Rev. Messrs. MacIntosh and Lewis delivered eloquent and impressive panegyrics on

Her late Majesty Queen Victoria.

Psalm xxiii. and I. Cor. xv., 42-58, were read by Rev. Mr. Henderson hile such hymns as O God Our Help in Ages Past, and Rock of Ages, etc. were sung, the choir of St. Andrew's appearing at their best. Blessed are the Dead was the anthem, beautifully rendered by the choir.

The church bells tolled for threequarters of an hour, from 9.30 a. m. and the day generally observed as a day of mourning.

AT FREDERICTON.

FREDERICTON, Feb. 2.—One of the most impressive services ever held in this city was the memorial service St. Paul's church this morning. A vast crowd filled the edifice and the service was conducted by the pastors of St. Paul's the Methodist and Bap-tist churches, with amalgamated choirs. Printed In Memoriam programmes were distributed among the was held in Christ Church Cathedral.

The military attended in a body. The city is in deepest mourning business being completely suspende for today. Citizens are dress mourning and a more than Sabbath

In the windows of the atter are two pictures, one of her late majesty with the inscription below it; "Whom we loved and honored," the other of King Edward VII., and below it the words "In whom we trust." Hats are taken off invariably as me gaze at the pictures and inscriptions. Frederiction is loyal to the core.

AT CAMPBELLTON.

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Feb. 2.-Christ's church, the rector, Rev. James Specter, conducted the service this forenoon. The local militia company attended. In the forenoon Rev. C. F Carr and Rev. J. C. Ives held service in St. Andrew's church, and in the afternoon Rev. Mr. Kierstead conducted service in the Baptist church. The churches were draped in mourning.

AT WOODSTOCK. WOODSTOCK, N. B., Feb. 2.—The stores in town were closed today and the windows draped in mourning colors of purple and black. A solemn memorial service was held in St. Luke's church, at which there was a large congregation. The ministers of St. Paul's Presbyterian, the Methodist and Baptist, the Free Baptist and the Reformed Baptist churches were all present on the occasion and represenpresent on the occasion and represen-tations from their congregations. The service was of a very solemn and im-pressive nature and an eloquent and most impressive sermon was preached by the archdeacon from the 15th verse of the 115th Psalm, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his neighbors with our own.

At 10.30 the Presbyterian, Baptis and Methodist congregations held a union memorial service in the Methodist church, over nine hundred people including the mayor and council and Victoria Rifles crowded into the edifice, while many more sought admission in vain. Addresses were delivered by Mayor J. D. Chipman, G. W. Ganong, M. P., and Hon. Judge Stevens. The service was deeply impressive and the room was draped with mourning.

At noon a memorial service was held in Trinity church, and at 3 p. m. in Christ church. This afternoon a lodge of sorrow was convened in the Masonic lodge room, Grand Master Forbes and other grand officers participating. This evening the sympathy of our cousins across the river is to find expression in a memorial service in the Congregational church. The Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Universalist denominations uniting.

AT OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Feb. 2.-The Royal standard at half-mast on the parliamen buildings swayed gently in the breeze this morning as the governor general's procession was being formed on Parliament hill. It was a superb winter's day, the most beautiful of the present winter. As "Queen's weather" has become proverbial during the reign of Victoria, so it was felt by the thousands in Ottawa who observed the national day of mourning for the great and beloved sovereign who has just passed away, that the record has been maintained to the very last. Every store and every hotel in the city was closed; there were thousands of people on the streets, and when the memorial services commenced in the different procession was held in St.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—From the British colonies all over the world today came stories of elaborate official memorial services involving universal display of mourning and the suspension of business. It was marked that foreign countries were not behind the colonies. The day was commenced by special services in cities throughout the world, some of which were of an official character.

At Lisbon the day was one of national mcurning, and throughout Portugal flags were half-masted, the ships and forts firing guns at fifteen minutes' intervals. Tonight a salute of 21 guns will be fired, and the theaters will be closed.

At Tehran an impressive service in the Procestant church was attended by the prince, grand viser, the ministers, the high officials, the diplomatic corps and all the Europeans. buildings swayed gently in the breeze erial services commenced in the different churches the officiating clergymen were confronted by great crowds of people garbed in the habiliments of wee. Christ Church Cathedral was crowded to the doors by men in every walk of life, by statesmen, by judges by representatives of foreign nations and by the humblest in the land. The Methodists held their union memorial their excellencies arrived at the Cathedral, where a tremendous concourse of people had assembled. The interior of the church had been beautifully draped in black and purple, the combination of colors on the white walls being most striking. The altar, chancel, pulpit and reading desks all bore the emblems of mourning, most tastefully arranged. Among those noticed in the church were Sir Richard Cartwright, Hon. Messrs. Tarte, Mulack, Borden and Fisher, all wearing their uniforms as colonial privy counsellors. Chief Justice Sir Henry Strong and Judges Sedgwick. King and Gwynne, in their official robes, represented the supreme court of Canada. Others present included Col. Turner, U. S. consul general; Mayor Morris and city council, Justice Lavergne, Justice Burbidge, Col. Tilton, Col. Jarvis, Col. Sherwood, Col. MacPherson and Col. Vidal. Standing like statues two feet apart, up the centre alsle, were stalwart Guardsmen, their scarlet uniforms making a striking contrast to the mourning garb worn by the two thousand people present. As his excel-lency passed up the alse to the pew reserved for him and his party, the Guardsmen presented arms. His excellency was attended by Capt. Graham, A. D. C., Capt. Bell, A. D. C., and Mr. Guise, controller of the house hold. Lady Minto, with their children, and Lady Antrim, sister to Lady Minto, were present. As soon as the vice-regal party had taken their seats, the choir, clergy and Cathedral authorities entered, his grace the Archbishop of Rupert's Land, the primate of all Canada, being the central figure in the procession As the clergy passed up the aisie the great congregation united in singing the hymn commencing For All the Saints Who from Their Labors Rest. Saints Who from Their Labors Rest.

Then followed the selected passages of Scripture for the day and the burial service, modified to suit the occasion. Archbishop Machray, who had travelled a thousand miles to officiate, spoke from the text: "So David slept with his fathers." The venerable prelate sketched the glories of Victoria's reign and spoke of her great logized King Edward for his many noble qualities, and concluded as follows: In no part of the great Empire was the Queen more reverenced, and is the King, who has succeeded her, more cordially welcomed, than in this Canada of ours. May our affection for him and for the throne grow in strength as the years go by, and may God grant to Edward the Seventh a long and happy and prosperous reign.

After the benediction was pronounced, the congregation remained standing while the Dead March in Saul was played.

IN MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Feb. 2.-A pall of purple and black mourning hangs over Montreal today, while flags are at half mast everywhere there is a semblance of a flag pole. In the business por tions of the city, the fronts of all the buildings are draped, so that St. James street appears as a sombre lane of black and purple, relieved here and there by glimpses of the red flag of England. The Montreal brigade paraded this morning at 10.30 from the drill hall. It was an impressive sight to see 6,000 men marching with mourning badges on their uniforms and and with full bands and not a sound of music. The regiments attended the various churches where their chaplains were preachers.

The 65th Riffes attended the grand mass chanted by Archbishop Bruchesl at St. James cathedral. The mass was a very elaborate one, its purpose being to pray for the King and roya family, not to pray for the soul of Her late Majesty. All the Protestant churches held memorial church services. Bishop Bond preached at Christ Church cathedral, and Dean Carmichael at St. George's. The churches were crowded to the doors. All business is suspended throughout Canada today and public offices are closed.

In Jerusalem a service was held in St. George's church. The consuls and the local authorities attended in uniform.

The Methodists held their union memorial serwice in Dominion church and hundreds had to be turned away. The Presbyterians worshipped in St. Andrew's church, and in like manner that beautiful edifice could not contain all who desired admission. Roman Catholics paid their tribute of dewotion and respect to their departed sovereign at the Basilica, and there also a large congregation was present.

Every arm of the service was represented in the vice regal procession, and although the soldiers in their winter uniforms did not present as im-

AT WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—In the presence of a distinguished assemblage, including the president of the United States and his entire cabinet, impressive tribute was rendered to-day to England's dead Queen.

The ceremony occurred at St. John's Episcopal church, beginning at 11 o'clock this morning, and was distinctly official in character.

The ceremony occurred at St. John's Episcopal church, beginning at 11 o'clock this morning, and was distinctly official in character.

The British ambassador, Lord Pauncefote, had been directed by the London foreign office to bestow this last mark of respect to the dead Sovereign, and the time was chosen so as to correspond exactly with the pageant in London, as the mother of rulers was borne to Windsor.

Bishop Satterlee, who made the address, said: "This is a memorable moment in the annals of history. As the church belis are tolling the eleventh hour in England this day the solemn funeral rites of England's Queen for three score years, are being held amid the hush of a nation's silence; and at the same hour, as the sun circles the earth all through the British Empire, and wherever else the Church of England service is held, the same office for the burial of the dead is being said.

"It is as though the funeral at Windsor today were a mirror in which we behold ten thousand other passing scenes; as though the service there was echoed over land and sea, with "the voice of a great multitude like the sound of many waters" rising up from earth to heaven. And at each of these myrlad services, human lips are uttering the same devotional words, human souls are breathing the same prayers and human hearts are bov-id down with the SAME DEEP SENSE OF LOSS—the loss, as it were, of a personal friend. The familiar words of that consecrated burial office with which the poorest and lowilest of England's sons and daughters have been carried to their graves is now said over England's Queen. She was one with her people in their lives; she is now one with them in her death; the Lord shall give unto her a crown of life. "For the world is a better world for this Queen's life as a servant of God. "There are some characters so pure, so true and so selfish in their unaffected simplicity, that they belong not only to their own country, but to the world f

AT PHILADELPHIA.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 2.—Public services in honor of the memory of Queen Victoriawere held today at All Saints' cathedral in this city. Bishop Croswell Doane delivered a strong eulogy, in which he reviewed the reign of the dead Queen and its many events.

AT PARIS. PARIS. Feb. 2.—Flags draped with crape floated from the Elysee and all public buildings this morning, and every English place of business was closed on account of the funeral of Queen Victoria. At il o'clock the official services in the English church in the Rue Daguerseau were held in the exact form of the services in St. Paul's, London.

The church was elaborately draped, the entire facade of sable arches, while the church bore the insignia V.R.I., with the royal arms on a black background.
