Sunday School Atte Large Falling Off.

Final Draft of the Station Shee After Mr. Pickles Had Been Made a Supernumerary - The Ordination Service.

SACKVILLE, N. B., June 23.-After prayer on Saturday morning, the Rev. John A. Clarke delivered an interesting address on "What Kind of a Christian Should I Be?" Sabbath school matters occupied the greater part of the forenoon, and from the report as presented by Mr.

Machum, it would appear there has been a large decrease in the number of scholars. This led to a searching enquiry into the reasons, when it was found serious errors had been made in some of the entries and in tabulating some of the entries and in tabulating the returns, and yet after making due allowance for these, the fact remains that the showing is not what it should be. There is a feeling with some that the union school idea has had something to do in bringing about the present condition of things. The report was as follows:

1. The committee draws the attention

1. The committee draws the atten tion of the conference to the large number of preaching places not re-porting any Sunday school, namely, 178 out of 392, and they would recommend that our ministers be urged to organ-ize Sunday schools in all preaching places where it is possible to do so.

2. Your committee notes that with 10,338 encolled in our schools who are not church members, the number uniting with the church (328) is altogethe small, and they would recommen That the ministers be urged to make spiritual condition of the pupils in the Sunday school; that an endeavor be made to more thoroughly arouse the teachers and officers to a sense of their responsibility for the salvation of these scholars, and that the week of these scholars, and that the week following the "week of prayer" be appointed a week of intercession for our Sunday schools, and that on the following Sunday a special effort be made to secure decisions for Christ.

3. The memorizing of scriptures, the catechism, our best hymns, and the giving of pur pupils a knowledge of God's Word as a book, including a study of its structure, authorship, blo-recommend upon the necessity of supplemental systematic Bible study,

4. Your committee believe that it would be in the interest of our Sunday schools if the conference Sunday school committee were made a standing committee, and would recommend that it be made such this year, with power to communicate with circuits to suggest improved methods of organization and work and generally to assit in advancing Sunday school

The conference adopted a resolution moved by Dr. Paisley, of which the following are the sections of interest to the general body of Methodists:

This conference memorializes the General Conference to adopt such legislation as will enable conferences either by themselves individually or in qo-operation with one or more other conferences, to appoint a secretary for Sunday schools within their boundaries to provide for his salary and to make such regulations for the government of the office as may be necessary in the premises

The afternoon of Saturday was devoted to a consideration of general conference matters by the joint action of the two conferences. The first matter was the educational. Some adverse criticism of college matters by Rev. of their conversion and call to the Mr. Morton called forth a protest from Dr. Allison, who stoutly maintained that most excellent work was being done at Sackville, but what was wanted was funds sufficient to endow two chairs of theology, and to do that at least $75,000 would be required. The charge delivered by Dr. Read on Monday evening to the newly ordained ministers was quite unique. Taking it for granted they were sound in the faith and in full adcord with Methodist usages, he directed attention to what some might term little things, but which he deemed very fimportant. He advised them to enter the church quietly, take the pulpit with a serious air, handle the sacred books with reverence, never to pound or turn down the leaves; to cultivate the voice, avoid the vociferous, to be natural: to study gesture, to standerect, not to lean upon the desk, as if they were weak or timid; to read, think, keep abreast of the times, be leaders of men; no need ever to cross the dead line, keep bright, don't be drones, do no careless work; and keep right with God. It was considered an admirable address, and well calculated to prevent or correct errors along the leaders of the conference at the conference.

At the close of the address a service was held in memory of Rev. Job Shenton, in which several took part and an obituary notice adopted and ordered to be printed in the minutes of conference.

A resolution was passed expressing the regret of the conference at the SACKVILLE, June 25. Superni

Dr. Allison moved in amendment that the general conference be requested to modify or revise said note so as to make it more intelligible as to what the preceding rules did or did not mean. The church received by letter and on trial 1,013 persons; lost by letter, withdrawal and death, 1,064; net decrease, 51; total membership of conference, 13,792; infant baptisms, 932; adults, 128; marriages, 391; burials, 608. During the year there were 71 local preachers, 85 exhorters, 152 class leaders and assistants, 566 stewards, 357 board representatives; 207 Sunday school uperintendents, 34 Element Lagrage of Physician ents, 34 Epworth League of Christia dents, 34 Epworth League of Phristian Endeavor presidents; net total, 1,382. In the evening session sundry matters were attended to at the close of the sustentation meeting, but little interest could be aroused at that late hour. The vote for adjournment was halled with pleasure, the minutes vere signed by the president and secretaries, all standing in solemn silence, the benediction was pronounced, and the nineteenth session of the conference was numbered with the past.

After the conference closed the following changes were made by the district authorities of the districts concerned: Mr. Palmer goes to Newcastle, Mr. Thomson to Bale Verte, Mr. Leard to Alma, and Mr. Williams to Deer siland.

THE curse of mankind is constipation. Ninetenths of the ailments we have can be traced to constipation. The bowels are for no other earthly purpose but to cleanse and keep clean and in working order our systems. Constipation is more prevalent among women than men, but it is too common in both. You may imagine you have dyspepsia, or chronic headache, or rheumatism, or heart affections, or bad blood causing eruptions—you may feel dull and ambitionless. Unless your case has been diagnosed and you know otherwise, the chances are your trouble is constipation. Laxa-Cara Tablets, if taken after meals, draw nature into her natural course and keep the bowels regular and in healthy action. Ordinarily a short treatment will prove sufficient. In stubborn cases several boxes may be needed. It is only a question of a short time, however, when the whole intestinal system will be made strong and naturally active. Then Laxa-Cara Tablets should be stopped. They come in small, chocolate-coated form, easy to take and palatable.

From the first day you will feel their gentle but sure effect.
