Poetry,
FOR THE PRINTER.
By Many Hands.

The reviews tell—the times are dear;
Wise, cared a tilt, for your ear cleaner
At ever-light to the winter,
That he should come without delay—
That's all the case—that bill to pay,
And end he pass his purse away,
"Put over" to the Printer.

The Printer's check is seldom seldom red,
The fine machinery of his head
Is working where you are in bed,
Your wife and faithful "Mentor;"
All day and night he wears his shoes,
And brains to tweaks you with news;
But men of conscience ne'er refuse
To pay the toiling Printer.

The known, if ought to be, by all
The sums are sanctioned, and they're small,
And if not paid he's bound to fall
In debt—for fuel, bread, rent, or
Perhaps his paper; then to square
Up with his help—a double care
Bows down his head—now, is it fair
That you don't pay the Printer?

His wife and little prattlers too,
Are now depending upon you;
And if you pay the score that's due,
Necessity can't stint her;
But if you don't as gnaws the mole,
Twill thro' your conscience eat a hole
And brand the forehead thus: "N. Soul!"
Of him who cheats the Printer.

The cats will mew between your feet,
The dogs will bite you in the street;
And every urchin that you meet,
Will roar with voice of Stentor,
"Look to your pockets—there he goes
The chap that wears the Printer's clothes!
And proud, though everybody knows
The grub, he gnaw'd the Printer!"

Be simply just and don't disgrace
Yourself, cat beg the "Lord of grace,"
To thaw that hardened key "ease,"
That honesty may enter;
This done, man will with man set fair,
And all will have the tin to spare;
Then will the "Editorial Chair"
Support a well-paid Printer.

The large Capital of the Company, and the number and influence of its Proprietors, enable it to rank with the most eligible Offices, either in America or Europe, with respect to the advantages offered to the Public.

FIRE BRANCH.

Persons Assured by this Company are not subject to any covenants or calls to make good losses which may happen to themselves or other, nor do they depend on any uncertain fund or contribution, the Capital Stock of this Company being an unquestionable security to the Assured in case of Loss or Damage by Fire.

LIFE BRANCH.

In addition to the more customary methods of Insurance, the Company likewise Assures Lives on any of the following contingencies:—

For the terms of One Year, Seven Years, or any other definite period.

For Two Joint Lives.—The sum assured to be paid on the death of either.

On the longest of Two or Three Lives.—The sum assured to be payable at the death of the last survivor; or,

Two Survivorships.—To secure the payment of the sum assured, if a life A die before another life B.

For a sum to be payable at age 60, or at death.

Premiums on Credit.—A portion of the Premiums on Credit. Assurances may be effected in various ways, not enumerated, to meet the convenience of parties.

The important advantages afforded by the Company in the Life Branch will include the following viz:—

The Guarantee of an ample Capital, and Exemption of the Assured from liability of Partnership,

Moderate Premiums.

Large Participation of Profits by the Assured amounting to Two-thirds of its net amount, which may be applied at the option of the party effecting the Assurance:—1st. By the immediate payment of the sum so apportioned.—2nd. By an equivalent increase of the sum assured.

Small Charge for Management.—The expenses of the Office being borne in due proportion by the two Branches.

Prompt Settlement of Claims.

Policies lapsed by non-payment of the Premium may be renewed within three months, by paying the premium, with a fine of 10s. per cent., on the production of evidence to the satisfaction of the Directors of the good health of the life assured.

The Company will always be prepared to Purchase the Policies of this Office at their equitable value or will grant a New Policy in lieu thereof without any further payment of Premium, for a sum to be agreed on.

Extra Premiums, suitable to special circumstances, will be accepted to enable a party possessing a Policy on the life of another to guard against the possibility of its being vitiated by the Life departing beyond limits, or by any other cause.

Thirty Days are allowed for the Payment of Premiums after the day on which they respectively Additional Advantages offered to Lives Assured with this Company at St. John, N. B.
