CHARMS WITH ELECTRIC SMILE

ESTELLE WENTWORTH.

This American grand opera singer went to Europe recently to sing and study. Among other paraphernalia she took along a case of wine, the parting gift of an American admirer. Knowing little of Italian, she nevertheless studied up a nice little speech to say when the Italian customs inspector began poking through her baggage. The speech didn't work, for no native could understand her Italian, but her "electric" smile proved very convincing. It again came into play at the German frontier, and proved much more effective than mere language.

Thanking you for the liberal patronage extended to the late firm, and trusting to receive a continuance of the same, at the old stand, 181 Union street.

Respectfully yours,
T. J. McPHERSON.

SMART FRENCH LINGERIE SUIT

This stunning costume is to be the first importation for the summer season. It was designed by Paret, the well known French modiste. Our illustration is from a photograph made in Paris. The suit, although called "lingerie," is a strictly tailored effect with 26-in. semitight coat. It is developed in linen batiste, with alternating panels of the batiste hand-tucked and separated by panels of lace. This lace is hand-made in the Greek key pattern, and the embroidery shows the Madeira eyelet work in combination with burrhole scallops and heavily padded relief patterns. The jaunty little coat is semitight and opens with broad graceful shawl revers. The sleeves are kimono cut. The skirt is fashionably narrow and mounted on a high empire belt. (A Worth costume will be shown on this page tomorrow.)

DR. COURTNEY ADVISES MONTREAL SYNOD

Montreal, Feb. 8.—Mesmerism, hypnotism, the sub-conscious self, socialism, science, metaphysics, prayer book revision and falling off in church attendance, are all matters which when the routine work of the day is done, could well be considered by the Anglican Synod, said Right Rev. Dr. Courtney, formerly Bishop of Nova Scotia, now rector of St. James' Cathedral, New York, addressing a large gathering last night at the annual meeting of the Synod of Montreal.

He strongly urged that these and other live topics of the day be taken up.

COOK IN VAUDEVILLE

New York, Feb. 8.—Dr. Frederic A. Cook, who said he had reached the North Pole, will make his first appearance on the vaudeville stage in the Manhattan Opera House next week. He has caused a moving picture to be made portraying his adventures and will go before the public to explain his claims.

WHY NOT?

Now if a female suffragist is called a suffragette. A lady socialist, 'tis plain, should be a socialiste. A linguist of the lovely sex a linguette she should be. A palmette, that would be a girl who's up in palmistry.

While optimist may better be than optimette a lot. A woman bonnetist should be a botanette—why not?

A lady lobbyist a lobbyette we mightn't call. A Methodist a Metholette—that wouldn't do at all.

An artette, that a girl would be who wields the brush with skill. A dentette, one who in the chair would give to us our fill. At planetette for planet there might be some demur—An oculette would test our eyes while we made eyes at her.

And having changed these words we then could start another list. Beginning with the male coquette, who should be called coquist.

Meanwhile let's give the girls their due—henceforth that pretty pet. Who fixes up my nails, to me, is a manicurette.
