WAR DRUMS WILL BEAT AT APOHAQUA TONIGHT

Gallant Canadian Soldiers There to Repel Enemy at Sussex.

AWFUL CARNAGE IS PROMISED TOMORROW

Col. MacKenzie of Canadian Army and Col. McLean of "Red" Force Will Lead Hosts to Strife—With Boys at Camp Sussex.

Special to The Standard.

Sussex, N. B., July 2.—Intense heat greeted the soldiers at Camp Sussex this morning, several men being prostrated. The army bearer corps had a busy hour carrying them off the field and this afternoon it was reported at the hospital that two of the sufferers were delirious. In spite of the heat the branches continued drill in preparation for the inspection by General Cotton, the director general, which will take place today. General Cotton will arrive in Sussex this evening.

A part of the infantry battalion carried out a very interesting drill on the upper field this afternoon when, under the direction of their officers, they went through the maneuvers of attack. The men separated the usual distance and advanced firing blank shells. At the lower end of the field they took possession of a hedge and defended it against an imaginary foe. Hundreds of spectators gathered on a mound a few hundred yards away and watched the proceedings with interest. The sharp volley firing gave a realistic turn to the maneuvers.

The Eighth Hussars and 23rd Dragoons on leaving camp this afternoon proceeded to Middleton field, a distance of eight miles, and engaged in a cavalry sham battle. The maneuvers embraced a considerable scheme and were carried out with much success. The commanders of the Eighth Hussars and 23rd Dragoons have reason to feel proud of their regiments.

Sussex in Enemy's Hands.

The big sham battle of Thursday night and Friday, which embraces a tactical scheme of considerable magnitude, promises to be the most successful.

JOHNSON MAY LOSE HIS BOND

Effort Being Made to Have $30,000 Bond Given by Fighter in Chicago Forfeited to State.

Chicago, July 2.—United States District Attorney Wilkerson entered a motion in the federal court today asking that the personal bond for $30,000 given by Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, on eleven indictments under the Mann White Slave Act, for which he has not yet been tried, be forfeited. Arguments on the motion will be heard tomorrow.

Appeal bonds for $15,000 are also pending against Johnson. These were signed by Matthew Baldwin, a real estate dealer, when the negro was granted permission to carry his case to the United States circuit court of appeals.

In the bonds given in the untried indictments there is a provision that the negro must not leave the jurisdiction of the district court of Northern Illinois. It is because of this provision that Mr. Wilkerson has asked that the bonds be forfeited. These indictments charge that Johnson paid for the transportation of Belle Schreiber between Milwaukee and Chicago, Christmas week, 1910. Johnson now is on a ship bound from Montreal to Havre.

THE PREMIER GIVES ADVICE TO SOLDIERS

Hon. J. K. Fleming Delivers Practical Address to New Brunswick's Boys in Attendance at Camp Sussex.

Special to The Standard.

Sussex, N. B., July 2.—Premier Fleming was given a rapt reception by the soldiers at Camp Sussex this evening when he delivered an address indirectly on temperance, and directly on the necessity of keeping clean and strong.

Premier Fleming gave an eloquent and forcible address and complimented the soldiers on their loyalty in training for the defence of their country. "I have the greatest respect," said the speaker, "for men who give their time to fit themselves for the defence of our homes, our country and our citizenship. (Cheers)"

"The trend of events today," said Premier Fleming, "is toward the consolidation of the Empire and Canada must not be backward in her duty. The men of New Brunswick will favorably compare with any. Canada has produced many great men, all of whom have been clean and strong. Canada needs such men, and it is the duty of all Canadians to keep themselves strong for their own advancement and their country's. 'What we need is strong, clean citizenship, and to have this the drink habit must be abandoned together with other evils which weaken the physical and mental ability of men. Let us not forget that righteousness exalts a nation. 'In Canada we have the best heritage on God's green earth. The Dominion needs strength, and it is for the young men to keep their powers and abilities unimpaired. I have a message for you," said Hon. Mr. Fleming, "and that is, if you desire to be strong I implore you to shun all that is not clean and to be clean men for the sake of Canada and yourselves." In closing the speaker again complimented the soldiers on their appearance and loyalty in coming to the training camp.

Premier Fleming's address made a deep impression on the boys and the enthusiastic cheering told in no uncertain manner of the good feeling in which his excellent and practical address for their benefit was taken.

A. H. Chute, of the Y. M. C. A. here, presided.

H. W. Woods, M. L. A., introduced the speaker. Following the address a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Hon. Mr. Fleming.

BULGARS AND SERVANS IN "BLOODIEST BATTLE" OF THE BALKAN WARS

Thousands Killed in Action in Which Servians Are Victors.

FIGHTING ALTHOUGH WAR NOT DECLARED

White Governments of Servia, Greece and Bulgaria are Considering "Warlike Measures" Their Troops are Locked in Death Struggle.

London, July 2.—Any remnants of hope of averting a Balkan war is rapidly disappearing. Bulgaria has sent warning notes to Servia and Greece, demanding a cessation of all aggressive movements within twenty-four hours.

These notes were regarded as tantamount to an ultimatum.

A Belgrade despatch via Paris, tonight announces that the King of Servia is presiding at a council which is expected to decide to declare war on Bulgaria. Greece, in notes to Bulgaria and the Powers, justifying her action, accuses Bulgaria of treacherously attacking the Greeks and Servians, in order to seize important territories and so place herself in an advantageous position in the coming negotiations for a settlement of the Balkan differences.

In the meantime, fighting continues, according to Servian advices, on a heavy scale, and the King of Greece, with his staff, has left Saloniki for the front to direct the operations personally.

The reports of the Powers at all the Balkan capitals are urgently pressing the respective governments not to allow unfortunate occurrences to drag them into war.

Much Anxiety Felt.

Berlin, July 2.—The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, in its official greeting to the King of Italy admiring the concern entertained by the members of the Triple alliance over the changes in the Balkan situation owing to their effect in the neighboring land of Austria-Hungary. The newspaper says the present crisis with the danger of a new Balkan war will force sovereigns and statesmen to give preliminary earnest consideration to the situation, with a view to agreeing with Austria on a thoroughly identical policy with that of the triple alliance and thereby facilitating the task of the great European powers in regard to the Balkans.

Bulgaria Appeal to Russia.

London, July 2.—The Bulgarian government has addressed an urgent appeal to Russia, according to a Sofia despatch to the Times, invoking intervention at Athens and Belgrade in the hope of preserving peace.

Bulgaria undertakes to abstain from any hostile movement for twenty-four hours, says the despatch, but fears that a longer suspension of hostilities will be impossible, owing to the excitement among the troops.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Times believes that the port, through Russia has demanded from Bulgaria speedy withdrawal of all Bulgarian troops left at various points on the Turkish side of the Eno-Midja frontier.

Heavy Fighting.

Belgrade, July 2.—Army headquarters report that the Servians are capturing Istip pursued the enemy, capturing over one hundred officers and one thousand men.

Press despatches report that sanguinary fighting has occurred at

CINCINNATI BOARD OF HEALTH ACTS IN STRIKE OF ICEMEN

Ice Plants Will Be Seized and Operated by Officers of Health Board in Interests of Suffering Public.

Cincinnati, July 2.—Following a communication from Mayor Hunt declaring that a public emergency exists owing to the ice men's strike, the board of health, at noon today, ordered the health officers of Cincinnati to seize and operate all the ice plants in this city and to use every available means of distributing ice to the general public. This action followed the refusal of the ice manufacturers to arbitrate their differences with the striking drivers, helpers and engineers of the ice plants.

The drastic action was brought on by a statement from the medical profession to the mayor that unless ice in bountiful quantities was obtained in a short period of time the death rate would be increased one hundred per cent.

Health Officer Laidlaw announced that he would begin work immediately by seizing all ice of a quantity more than five hundred pounds and that he hoped, within an hour or two, to have several plants in operation. He likewise stated that he would ask the union drivers and helpers to go to work for him and distribute the ice.

New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore Report Hottest Weather For Years—Many Deaths and Prostrations Recorded.

New York, July 2.—Five deaths and over fifty heat prostrations were officially reported in and near greater New York today. In addition, every hospital here treated emergency patients whose cases were not reported to the police. It is estimated that a total of those overcome numbered more than two hundred.

The forecasted relief from yesterday's torrid wave did not materialize until late afternoon with cloudiness and a brief shower, instead the maximum official temperature was the year's highest, 92 at 2 p. m.

Yesterday it was 90 degrees at 4 p. m., but today's humidity fortunately was much lower, and the death and prostration rolls would have been far larger.

Philadelphia, July 3.—The hottest weather experienced here in two years occurred today when the thermometer registered 97 degrees at half past one o'clock in the afternoon.

Two deaths and numerous prostrations were reported in this city, while a number of deaths and prostrations occurred in other parts of the state.

THE IMBROGLIO CHILD OF MANY HOPE AND FEARS fitting pendant to the earlier Romanoff assassinations. This is the first photographic picture which has been taken of the heir to the throne since his illness which gave rise to so many mysterious rumors and from which he has apparently not fully recovered.

U. S. SENATORS TO FREE HEADS TALE OF GRAFT

ROCKEFELLER FIGHTS BLAZE IN DAD'S BARN

Directs 400 Volunteer Firemen in Effort to Save Building at Pocantico Hills — Loss $100,000.

Tarrytown, N. Y., July 2.—John D. Rockefeller's big farm on his country place at Pocantico Hills, near Tarrytown, was wrecked by fire. The loss is estimated at $100,000. Two thousand spectators, who came from long distances in automobiles, watched John D. Rockefeller, Jr., direct 400 volunteer firemen, composing the entire departments of Pocantico Hills, Tarrytown, North Tarrytown and Briarcliff. Horses, carriages, tools and farm implements valued at $10,000 were saved.

Mrs. Frederick Roe, who with her family and three others lived in a wing of the barn, smelled smoke soon after seven o'clock. She shouted "Fire!" and an investigation revealed that a loft over the garage which two weeks ago had been filled with hay was a seething furnace. The shouts of the stablemen and their families aroused the caretaker in Mr. Rockefeller's house, south of the barn, several hundred yards, and he telephoned to the fire department at Pocantico Hills and to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who was at his country place about a quarter a mile away.

Mr. Rockefeller in an automobile hastened to the scene of the blaze and assisted the stablemen and farm laborers in saving the ten carriage horses and the portable contents of the barn. When the fire department arrived from Pocantico Hills under its chief, John Reedy, Jr., the latter and Mr. Rockefeller grasped a hose and played it on the burning building, then a mass of flames from one end to another. Sparks were flying in all directions and the sheep house caught fire.

Meantime the assistance of the Tarrytown, North Tarrytown and Briarcliff fire departments had been requested and they arrived in time to keep the heavy roof of the barn from collapsing. The flames in the sheep house were extinguished.

The fire burned for nearly two hours and the sky for miles around was illuminated. When the fire had burned out only the stone and concrete walls were left standing.

How David Lamar Tried to Influence Big Men of Wall Street.

USED NAMES OF PROMINENT MEN

U. S. Senators Involved in Stories Told — Prompt Denial of Some of Statements Made by "Naive" Witness — Interesting Developments.

Washington, July 2.—A story of misrepresentation impersonating of public men, and organized effort to influence Wall Street financiers, probably without parallel in the history of congressional investigation was unfolded today before the senate lobby committee.

A prosperous looking, self-possessed individual, calling himself David Lamar, of New York, self-described as an "operator in stocks," and admitting the bearer of several assumed names, was the principal in the remarkable session. With entire abandon, arousing the committee to laughter, he told by his naive admissions, he told of his impersonations, his participation in attempts to influence Wall Street operations, and his association with Edward Lauterbach, a New York lawyer in efforts to have Lauterbach retained by the Morgan firm, the Union Pacific and other great interests, to head off congressional activity in Washington.

He telephoned to financial men and lawyers in the names of Representative Palmer and Representative Roridan. He assumed the guise of Chairman McOmmer of the Democratic National Committee, to telephone to Chairman Hillier, of the Republican National Committee.

One of the Victims.

Louis Ledyard of New York, counsel for the Morgan firm, was one of his attempted victims. Mr. Ledyard came to the witness stand today armed with almost a verbatim account of the conversations held with Lamar, who had represented himself as Congressman Palmer. As he read the record of the conversations, in the self-unusual in their tone, Lamar, sitting nearby, laughed and nodded, saying "that's right" and raising his leg with apparent enjoyment.

The purpose of his impersonations, Lamar contended, was to secure reinstatement for his friend Edward Lauterbach, in the good graces of the Morgan firm.

Members of the committee tonight demanded that Lamar remain in Washington for reappearance tomorrow. Edward Lauterbach, who recently testified before the committee, was recalled from New York by telegraph tonight and Henry B. Martin, a local man who has figured as head of the Anti-Trust League, was also subpoenaed to appear.

Lamar declared he prepared the resolution for the Steel Trust; that it was given to Martin, who gave it to Congressman Stanley. Subsequently, he said, it was introduced in the house of representatives by Mr. Stanley with but a few "technical changes" from its original form.

Denies Extortion.

Lamar denied that there had been any attempt at extorting money from any of the New York financial men. The story developed through the one mainly through the Ledyard testimony, indicated that the latter had been to various members of the Morgan firm, to tell of the "Steel Trust" investigation resolution, which Lamar had prepared; but that none of the Morgan firm members would pay any attention to the matter or make any effort to stop it.

Lamar paved the way for Lauterbach to call upon Ledyard, according to the testimony given by Ledyard and corroborated by Lamar.

In an interview February 8, 1912, between Ledyard and Lauterbach, the latter declared he came direct from Senator Stone who represented Speaker Clark; and that he had a proposal to make to the Morgan interests for the heading off of congressional activity against the steel corporation. Senator Stone took the stand before Ledyard finished and denounced the whole thing as a "malicious fabrication" and a "common lie."

Members of the Senate committee agreed in the belief that it was a fabrication, and Lamar laughingly clinched the matter by breaking in and admitting there was no truth in the allegations.

During his testimony early in the day, Lamar interjected an attack upon the Union Pacific, claiming he had been a falsification in the books of the company in 1908, by which nearly $20,000,000 had disappeared from its surplus.

BLESSING TO NORTH LANDS

Raging Bush Fires in Cobalt Region Beaten Out by Brief Showers—Conditions Temporarily Improved.

Cobalt, Ont., July 2.—Rain this morning, brief though it was, beat down the bush fires, and coolness has succeeded the extreme heat. There are rumors of calamity but none has been substantiated. The fire crept close to Cobalt last night and a power magazine, containing about ten thousand tons of dynamite was in danger. Members of the fire brigade worked all night and far into the morning to take the explosives out of the magazine to the baseball grounds at West Cobalt. This was safely accomplished.

At Hallsbury, too, the citizens were so alarmed that many were out with hose to drench any falling sparks. Three houses on the outskirts of the town were destroyed. The danger is over until further hot weather and the resumption of strong winds, as nothing but several days of rain could make the situation absolutely safe.
