WRIGHT TAKES ALL THE STOCK

Detroit, Mich., June 4.—Russell A. Alger tonight confirmed a report of the sale of the Wright Aeroplane Co. to Orville Wright by the board of directors three weeks ago.

Mr. Alger said that the aeroplane inventor had asked for the stock and the board of directors had been glad to sell.

"Does that mean that the stock was not paying?" Mr. Alger was asked.

"The business was a profitable one for all of us," replied Mr. Alger. "We received all that we were entitled to for our investments. I cannot tell the terms of the sale or the reason for it. I will say, however, that the stock is now owned by Mr. Wright and that the sale was made at his request. He wanted to buy and we wanted to sell. That's all there is to it."

Mr. Alger stated that previous to the sale Mr. Wright did not own a majority of the stock in the company.

THE INDIAN ATHLETES IN SCANDAL

Washington, June 3.—That Glen Warner, the famous Carlisle Indian football coach, paid James Thorpe, the Olympic champion and star football player, $500 to join the Carlisle team and maintained a staff of paid players who were not students at Carlisle, is charged in the report of Inspector E. B. Linnen, of the United States Commission of Indian Affairs, in an investigation of the Carlisle school scandal.

Warner, who had access to the athletic fund of the school, is seriously charged with manipulation of the funds, and is accused of making presents to the football stars, including watches, charms, medals and clothing.

All the evidence against Warner has been turned over to the Department of Justice by Linnen. Senator Robinson, of the special committee which investigated conditions at Carlisle, said the evidence was brought out under oath.

Among the favored Indian athletes mentioned in the report are Frank Mount Pleasant, William Garlow, Gus Welch, Antonio Lupo, Peter and Frank Hansen, Lewis Tawantini and others, all famous Indian football players or track stars. The charges made by Linnen constitute a most damaging report, and it was virtually admitted that the Department of Justice is about to start action.

NEW MEXICAN MINISTER AT GUATEMALA

Guatemala, June 4.—Announcement of the appointment by Provisional President Huerta of Benjamin Barrios as new Mexican minister to Guatemala was made today. Mr. Barrios is a Mexican citizen of English extraction, and is a well known international lawyer, and has a practice among Londoners.

AMERICAN HORSE IN ENGLISH SHOW

Harry I. Graham's blooded Prince.

Harry Graham has shipped his thoroughbred saddle horse Proud Prince to London for the International Horse Show. This horse won ten first prizes last year at the leading Eastern shows and was champion at the National Capital Horse Show in Washington. He is a black gelding, sixteen hands high, by Nyk, out of Lady Dilead. He will probably be the only American saddle horse in the great London show.

New York, June 4.—Lord Wimborne's polo team, representing Hingham, as challengers for the international polo cup, arrived here Tuesday on the Carnarvon, all in good condition. The players are: Capt. H. A. Tompkinson, No. 1; Capt. Leslie St. C. Chespe, No. 2; Major F. W. Barrett, No. 3; and John Trull, back, with Capt. V. N. Lockett, substitute. Of these, Captains Chespe and Lockett were on last year's team. The Hingham practice Wednesday on the field at Piping Rock, and the American Polo Association will send a strong team against them.

According to Lord Wimborne, there will be little hard practice before the first match on June 9, as his men are as fit as they can be, and they will be out on the field only three or four times. The English expect to give the Meadowbrook four a hard contest, but think they will be handycapped by a lot of ponies not up to the standard of the American lot.

AMES, FORMER GIANT TWIRLER, GETS REVENGE

Leon Ames, the former Giant pitcher, is going like a whirlwind for the Cincinnati Reds. The sorrel topped twirler has made McGraw regret the day he traded him for Fromme, who has been a "bloomer" with the Giants.

THIS DATE IN RING ANNALS

1882—Oscar Battling Matthew Nelson, former lightweight champion of the world and author, born at Copenhagen, Denmark. Nelson entered the ring at 17 and was the victor in nearly all of his early battles, suffering but two defeats in his first four years in the ring. Joe Headmark and Eddie Santry being the victors of those melancholy occasions. In 1904 Nelson began to take on the top-notchers, and defeated Eddie Hanlon, Aurelio Herrera and Young Corbett, but lost to Jimmy Britt. In 1905 he knocked out Britt and in the following year lost to Joe Gans on a foul in 42 rounds. The Dane achieved the championship goal in 1908 by putting Joe Gans to sleep, and repeated in a return match. Since he lost the title to Wolgast in 1910 the Battler has been whipped by a number of second and third raters. Nelson won about $350,000 during his ring career.

A NEW YACHT

Robert Thomson's new gasoline motor yacht Carolita, arrived yesterday morning from New London, Conn., and at once went through the Falls to Marble Cove. The yacht, experienced stormy weather on the passage, but proved herself to be a good sea boat, and made the run in four days. She is a handsome yacht.

"BOB" FITZSIMMONS WANTS TO FIGHT AGAIN

Robert Fitzsimmons, the "Durable Dan" who once stood at the head of the lightweight division, is going to have a birthday party. Oscar Battling Matthew, to give him his complete list of front names, was born thirty-two years ago, June 5, 1882, in Copenhagen, Denmark, the same lively little burg which gave us Johnny Gutenberg, alias Kid Williams, the Baltimore boy who is now making a noise like a bananaweight champion. Bat crossed the Big Drink when he wasn't much more than knee high to a horse, and settled at Hegewich, Ill., where he helped his father till the soil. According to the official records of the Battler's pugilistic career, he began fighting in 1900, but he started in the game long before that. Before he was ten he had established his supremacy over all the village lads. His first real battle in a ring was fought shortly after his fourteenth birthday, in 1896. "Kid" Wallace, a mascot with the Wallace circus, was his opponent. The "Kid" had a reputation of being rather handy with the gloves, and as soon as the "big top" was pitched "Wallace's Kid" started out on a search for victims.

HARVARD GOAT HAS FLOWN

Red Top, Conn., June 4.—Is the Harvard goat in the Yale crews' quarters at Broadview? This was the question which made the crimson carmen knit their brows this morning after they came in from a two-mile paddle down to the Navy Yard and back. Word came to Red Top that the goat, which is Harvard's mascot, had reached New London from Cambridge, by express, and that it had been signed for and taken away in a launch.

Coach Vray had all his crews out on the river for easy paddles today. From a single shell he gave individual instruction. The men in the varsity and freshmen eights were seated as last night, when Coach Vray made a number of changes. As R. F. Herriek was in Boston the Henley eight went out by itself. Its practice was light. Dr. Young, physician to the crews, arrived today to stay until training is over.

ELIS THINK IT'S A JOKE

Gales Ferry, Conn., June 4.—Yale carmen looked upon the report of the disappearance of Harvard's goat today as a joke. None, however, would say that it was not at Broadview enjoying hospitality of the sons of Eli.

Light work was the extent of the morning workout for the Yale crews, the varsity going down stream as far as the Navy Yard at a low stroke and the second varsity crew covering a little over a mile down stream. Coach Nickalls made another shift in the varsity boat, Captain Deneger going back to the second shell and thus resuming his place at No. 2 in the first boat. The varsity used the Dury boat and from now on will use this craft in their workouts. The freshmen eight did little work, a short paddle below quarters falling under charge of Coach Giannini.

TWO MORE AVIATION VICTIMS

Portsmouth, England, June 4.—Commander Rice and Lieut. Thomas S. Creswell were drowned today when an aeroplane in which they were making a flight over Southampton water suddenly plunged into the sea. Creswell was acting as pilot and Rice was a passenger. The sea plane was engaged with several other air craft in manoeuvres.

Walter Johnson of Washington and A. R. Johnson of the Red Sox have pitched against each other three times this year and each game has been won by a 1 to 0 score. The Red Sox pitcher has won two of the three.

been told off before the kid returned to the world, and Nelson, with a large round dollar in his pocket and the cheers of the spectators ringing in his ears, was fairly started on the path to glory. Every life has its turning point, and that dollar transformed Nelson from a farmer into a fighter.
