

NEED POPE TAKES THE CENTRE OF THE GREAT STRUGGLE

Cardinal Della Chiesa elected by Sacred College to succeed Pius X - An Italian aid and in 1854

London, Sept. 3.—A report received here today declares that Cardinal Della Chiesa has been elected Pope to succeed his Holiness Pius X. He takes the title of Benedict XV.

Mr. Della Chiesa, Archbishop of Bologna, Italy, was born near Genoa in 1854, and studied in Rome. He was accompanied by Mr. (afterwards Cardinal) Rampolla to Madrid as auditor of the Papal Nunciature, and with him he returned to Rome in 1887 to serve as subordinate to the great Sicilian on the nomination of the latter as Secretary of State. Mr. Della Chiesa remained in the Cardinal's office until 1901, when Leo XIII. promoted him to the post of Subsecretary of the Secretary of State and Secretary of the Cipher.

On his appointment as Archbishop of Bologna in 1907 the Holy Father honored him by personally consecrating him in the Sixtine Chapel. In 1907 he was appointed Papal nuncio at Madrid in succession to Mr. Rinaldi, but this appointment was cancelled three days later. This incident had occurred just before he was made Archbishop of Bologna. When Mr. Della Chiesa was given this post, it was declared in Rome that it was mainly with the object of combating the modern religious ideas of Bologna being the headquarters of the National Democratic League, whose members advocated what is known as "Modernism" in religion.

In January of 1914, while still at Bologna, the present Pope issued a pastoral letter strongly condemning the league.

It has been 174 years since the late Pope Benedict, on his election in the year 1740, Cardinal Prospero Lambertini assumed that title. He died in 1758. It is an interesting fact that the new Pope was Archbishop of Bologna while Pope Benedict XIV. was born in Bologna.

The election of Cardinal Della Chiesa as Pope would indicate a continuation of the policies of the late Pius X. and Secretary Merry Del Val. He is through him the dream of Pius X. for the ending of the long quarrel between the Italian government and the Vatican might be realized.

There are 66 Cardinals, 46 of whom were appointed by the late Pius X., and strange to say that number has passed away during the pontificate of the dead Pope. Three of these deaths were of Cardinals elevated by Pius X. Of the college at the present time 34 are of Italian birth or nationality, six are sent America, England, Austria and Hungary, two are German and a like number Portuguese, Irish, Brazil, Holland, Belgium and Canada have one apiece. Cardinal Falconio, rated as Italian in this group, is an American citizen, so that there are in reality 33 Italian and 33 of other nationalities.

The conclave of the Sacred College, whose duty it is to elect the Pope, went into session on the evening of Monday, August 31. The announcement of the outcome of its deliberations was made this morning shortly after eleven o'clock.

Prince Chigi-Albani, one of the assistants to the throne in the Pope's household, was notified at a quarter past eleven that Cardinal Della Chiesa had been elected Pope.

At twenty minutes past eleven Monsignor Micalizzi, sub-prefect of the Sacred Palace and governor of the conclave, received a communication from the new Pope asking that the proceedings of the Basilica of St. Peter be opened because he proposed in a short time to issue his proclamation of Benedict XV. Again the crowd of several thousand persons cheered, and at once began to make their way into the Basilica, to hear the benediction of the new pontiff.

At fifteen minutes before twelve the new Pope appeared on an inner balcony of St. Peter's, clad in his pontifical robes. The balcony was hung with red velours, and a heavy gold fringe decorated the railing.

PARIS SOON BE THE PIVOT OF HOSTILE FORCES OPERATING IN AREA OF WEST - CONFIDENT IN POWER TO RESIST ATTACK

London, Sept. 3.—Military experts agree that Paris will soon be the pivot of the hostile forces operating in the area of the West. Even the downfall of the French capital is not expected to end the operations. The feeling of confidence was greatly increased by the news of the great victory of the Russians in Galicia.

The battle, which is destined to decide whether history will repeat itself in a second siege of Paris, is still in progress, according to the latest official communication here. French military historians will write hundreds of volumes about the details of this battle, but all the British public knows concerning this titanic struggle, the most momentous one that has ever taken place in Europe, is contained in one sentence of an official report, issued last night by the press bureau. This sentence was that "continuous fighting has been in progress along almost the whole line of battle."

To this generally the French official communication adds the fact that the allied forces have fallen back toward the southwest to avoid an action which might have been engaged in under unfavorable conditions. How far and to what line the allies have gone is unknown.

There can be no revelation of military secrets, nothing which a patriotic censorship could criticize, in stating these facts, because the German army which is engaging the allies knows precisely where their first line is drawn and the purpose of the censorship is only to suppress facts which might give enlightenment to the enemy.

The brief official bulletin of last night is the first word that the British people have received from their government concerning the present battle. The last previous bulletin was issued on Sunday night, and which reflected the greatest credit on the generalship and discipline of the British army.

The commander-in-chief of the Austrian front, apparently plans to drive in strongly with one army on the east, starting from the Russian provinces adjoining Roumania, and in the meantime merely aims to restrain the Austrians from advancing into the Polish provinces, thus keeping Austria on the alert along the line of two or three hundred miles.
