Lawson's Rheumatic Liniment.

THIS invaluable Liniment has the extraordinary property of affording immediate relief in all cases of Rheumatic and other pains, and suffering from Felons, Salt Rheum, &c., and a faithful trial will result in permanent cure.

The following are a few TESTIMONIALS proving the great efficacy of this Liniment:—

ST. JOHN, N. B., June 2nd, 1873.

Mr. A. Lawson: Dear Sir,—I have used your Liniment with a good deal of benefit, and feel pleasure in recommending it to others for the use for which it is intended. Yours, &c.,

REV. J. PRINCE.

ST. JOHN, June 4, 1873.

To Abiel Lawson, Esq.: Dear Sir,—I have been much troubled with Rheumatism, and could get no relief till I procured a bottle of your Liniment. A few applications made a perfect cure. I take much pleasure in recommending it to those similarly afflicted. GEO. M. BUSTIN.

Mr. A. Lawson: Dear Sir,—It affords me great pleasure to state that your Liniment was the means of curing a severe attack of rheumatism, two or three applications having removed the soreness completely. I am therefore enabled to speak highly of its merits. Yours truly,

LEVI H. YOUNG.

Having proved the efficacy of your medicine while suffering from Bronchitis, in April last, I am only too glad to append my sincere appreciation of your Liniment as a family medicine.

Yours, &c., ROBERT J. ANDREWS.

June 6, '73.

Abiel Lawson, Esq.: Dear Sir,—For a number of months I had been much troubled with Rheumatism, and tried many of the cures recommended, but could find no relief, till I got a bottle of your Liniment. A few applications have made a perfect cure. SAMUEL NEAVES.

ST. JOHN, N. B., June 2d, 1873.

For some time I have had Ague in the face, and could get no relief until I used Lawson's Rheumatic Liniment, which made a perfect cure. I would not be without it. J. H. CROSBY.

Dear Sir,—I have for years suffered with periodical Neuralgia, and have tried nearly all of the remedies in use for this disease but without any lasting effect. About three months since I tried your Liniment, gaining immediate relief; and I am rejoiced to say that I have not since felt the touch of my old complaint. Your medicine deserves its success, and for general purposes I use no other, believing it the best in existence.

Yours truly, JOHN F. LAWSON.

St. John, N. B., June 6, 1873.

ST. JOHN, N. B., June 6th, 1873.

Mr. Abiel Lawson: Sir,—In May, 1872, I was so severely afflicted with acute Rheumatism as to be unable to use my right leg. Being advised to use your Liniment, I procured a bottle, and made one application, which had the effect of removing all pain and soreness in one night. I have not since been troubled with Rheumatism, and I consider your medicine superior to anything extant for cases of this kind.

Truly yours. GEO. R. RIGBY.

N. B.—I had previously used three or four different kinds of Liniment, neither of which gave any relief. G. R. R.

ST. JOHN, N. B., June 9th, 1874.

Mr. Abiel Lawson: Dear Sir,—Having just recovered from a most severe attack of Rheumatism, (from which I suffered for four weeks), I feel bound to testify to the very gratifying effect of your Liniment, which has had the effect of removing the distress altogether. I may, therefore, say, that I fully believe your mixture the best remedy in use for similar cases.

I am, dear Sir, yours, very truly,

JAMES SWEENY.

ST. JOHN, N. B., June 9, '73.

Mr. A. Lawson: Sir,—Having experienced much distress from a strain which I received some time ago, I procured a bottle of your Liniment. I made four or five applications, which have entirely removed the soreness. My breast is now entirely well. Yours truly,

MOSES BELYEA.

Your Liniment has proved of great benefit to me, when applied for Rheumatism, and always gives satisfaction. FRANCIS QUIGLEY.

Abiel Lawson, Esq.: Dear Sir,—Having been troubled for some time Rheumatism, I was advised to try your Liniment. I soon found it to be all it was recommended. I advise all who are troubled in this way to try your Liniment.

Yours truly, THOS. TRUEMAN.

To A. Lawson: This certifies that I have used Lawson's Liniment for different purposes, and consider it the best article in use of the kind, and can cheerfully recommend it to the public

A BACHELOR'S CONSOLATIO

A Romance of the Needle.

BY ROCKAFELLOW.

I.

In a snug little cot, not a thousand miles off,
Lived a lonely, contented old "bach,"
Who cooked his own grub and dined by himself,
And had no one to sew on a patch.

II.

With his cat, and his dog, and his little pet mouse,
Our hero, 'twas said, wanted nothing;
But needles were sharp, and would frequently stick,
So he oft went with holes in his clothing.

III

There no doubt were misses and maids quite near
Who would fly to relieve his distresses,
But he oft had declared he could never abide
The appearance of hoopskirts and dresses.

IV.

Now, this lucky old bachelor heard by a friend,
Or read in his morning journal,
Of the wonderful stitching of sewing machines,
And considered the matter nocturnal.

V.

Having fully determined to get a machine,
He spent a whole day in inspection,
For an hour or so would never suffice
To select from so large a collection.

VI.

For some thought the "Wheeler & Wilson" the best,
And others the "Wilcox & Gibbs,"
While others affirmed that the agents of both
Were too much inclined to tell fibs.

VII.

And a few for the "Florence" were ready to fight,
While most liked the "New Family Singer;"
Another one swore the "Osborne" was best,
The last one, I think, was a shaker.

VIII.

So first to the "Wheeler & Wilson" he went,
Where he found them making a shirt,
At the end of each seam they used needle and thread,
And by experience he knew they would hurt.

IX.

Then down to the agent of "Florence" he went,
And told him the part that was slack.
So the "Florence" a certain advantage had gained
By the feed that could make it sew back.

X.

But our Bachelor friend was dissatisfied still,
For the "Florence" so complicate seemed,
He feared the minutiæ might "get out of fix,"
And could never be wholly redeemed.

XI.

Then they told him another advantage they had
Over other machines in the West,
That four different stitches with it they could make,
And from four he might sure get the best.

XII.

Our hero replied, "What's the use of the four!
If one of the stitches is best,
Why that is the right one to use all the time,
And what will you do with the rest?"

XII.

The "Howe" and the "Wilson" both vainly he tried,
The "Domestic" and "Osborne" as well,
But the "Howe" was too heavy, the "Wilson" too light,
And the "Osborne" broke down on a fell.

XIV.

The "Finkle & Lyon" or "Victor" he tried,
The "Etna," "Bloes," "Leavitt" and "Weed,"
Till worried and vexed, with his fruitless research,
He scarce hoped in the end to succeed.

XV.

After trying in vain many other Machines,
Without any hope of success,
He called where the "Singer New Family" was kept.
And they quickly relieved his distress.

XVI.

For here half a dozen machines were engaged,
In stitching of different sorts,
Which they did so complete, and with so little noise
He acknowledged the truth of reports.

XVII.

In lightness of running, in stillness and speed,
In construction so simple, yet strong,
Sure none but the "New Family Singer" would vie,
Though he'd searched through the infinite throng.

XVIII.

Then the stitch was so neat, so elastic, so strong
That he vainly endeavored to break it,
And so many advantages in it combined
That he quickly decided to take it.

Debate on the Pacific Railway Scheme—Mackenzie and Jones Rival each other in Abuse of the Late Government—The Bill Passes.

OTTAWA, May 20.

Mackenzie replied in a bitter speech. He said the late Government were pronounced lunatics and traitors to enter into such arrangements with British Columbia, which never could be carried out. Tupper had boasted in the former Parliament that the negotiations of the Canada Pacific Railway Company were meeting with success in the English market when the fact was that the Company had never received the offer of a dollar from any British capitalist. He entered into a eulogy of his land and water route, and created a sensation by stating that when this means of communication was complete with Fort Garry the Government would only complete the remainder of the Pacific Railway as they would any other public work, without binding themselves to any stated time or perceptibly increasing the taxation. The scheme of the late Government was a swindling one for the purpose of maintaining themselves in power. The present Government would never make sham promises and would only attempt to carry out what could be accomplished without embarrassing the country.

Mr. Jones argued that the principles advocated by the Premier when in opposition were embodied in the present scheme. He reiterated McKenzie's vituperative charges against the late Ministry, and perorated his speech with Pacific scandal and an appeal to the house to break faith with British Columbia rather than embarrass the finances of the whole Dominion.

DeCosmos delivered a rambling speech alternately denouncing the Government and the Opposition, showing that British Columbia was no burden to the Dominion and that the Pacific Railway was for the benefit of the whole Dominion. He also showed that if the road were built at the Government's rates of bonuses of land and money it would cost $84,000,000. Sandford Fleming's estimate was $100,000,000; therefore, if the Government built the road themselves they would save $16,000,000. No one felt any increase of taxation on account of the Intercolonial, and it would be the same with the Pacific under construction. Toward the close of the debate, Mitchell remarked that he did not intend discussing the question at length. Although utterly opposed to the scheme, it would be useless to oppose it, and the only course to adopt was to throw the whole responsibility upon the Government. He deprecated violent attacks upon the late Ministry, and unfair representations of their scheme, as ungenerous and unjust. While not attempting to suggest any alteration of the scheme he thought that Kirkpatrick's suggestion that the Eastern Branch should be submitted to Parliament should be accepted by the Ministry. He regretted that the measure was introduced at such a stage of the session as to prevent discussion.

The bill was put through the Committee and the House rose at 3 o'clock.

The Circuit Court,

H. C Macmonagle vs. John Lord was finished yesterday afternoon and resulted in a verdict of $288.53 for the plaintiff.

E. McLeod, assignee of J. C. Brown's estate, vs. James Domville et. al., was the next case. C. W. Weldon, Esq., is counsel for the plaintiff, and Dr. Barker appears for the defendants. It is a suit brought to recover warehouse fees claimed to be due when Mr. Brown failed in 1872. The claim is repudiated by the defendants, as the amount claimed is for storing sugar and molasses, which was returned in a damaged condition. It is also claimed that a part of the merchandize was not delivered at all. The defendants also put in, as an offset, a note of hand drawn by J. C. Brown for $1590, which they purchased for $500, as well as a few minor charges. Mr. Bustin, the Locker, and Hon. John Robertson have given testimony in the case.

Canning vs. Town of Portland has been made a remanet.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

NORTON, King's County, Dec. 14, '63.

MRS. LESTER—Dear Madam, I have been troubled for the last fifteen years with Biliousness, and have tried many of the different kinds of medicines recommended for the cure of the above complaint, but received no material benefit until I commenced using your DINNER PILLS, (now about eight months since.) I continued their use according to directions for about three months, and must say that I have enjoyed better health since taking the Pills than I have for the last fifteen years, and would recommend them, with all confidence, to any person similarly troubled.

I am, Madam,
Yours, very thankfully,
HENRY HANEY.
