

The Canadian Courier

THE NATIONAL WEEKLY

THIS issue contains Two Illustrated Pages of Baseball Articles, written by a Fan, a Critic and a Manager; a Thrilling Melodrama of the man who a few days ago defied the Mounted Police, by Francis Dickie; "When the Line Broke," an absorbing story, by H. A. Cody; an article on a New Civic Experiment, by W. Stewart; a Character Sketch of an Eminent Canadian Music Master, by Augustus Bridle.

EDITED BY JOHN A. COOPER

COURIER PRESS, Limited, TORONTO