The Carriage—A Vital Part of the Wonderful Burroughs Visible

Don't be misled by generalities in adding machine advertising or selling. Get specific facts and comparisons on specific points.

Particularly notice the carriage construction, for the carriage makes or mars adding machine convenience and visibility.

The carriage of the Burroughs Visible is so arranged that it gives greater visibility of printing with less effort by operator than any other adding machine in the world.

It brings the printing point at just the proper distance from the eye and at the proper angle.

It is the only adding machine that gives the same convenience of seeing all work at a glance as the most approved visible typewriter.

In the Burroughs Visible carriage every lever and key is arranged for easy and direct manipulation. The carriage is only three inches from the keyboard—no stretching nor shifting necessary.

The paper drops into place in the carriage automatically—like a typewriter. A twirl of the platen knob and you are ready for work!

The carriage leaves the whole sheet exposed to view; no danger of coming to end of paper roll without knowing it. Construction permits interchangeability from 12½" to 20" carriage and vice versa.

Automatically adjusts itself to any thickness of paper without interfering with uniformity of feed. A unique friction-stop locks carriage in any position. The bell counts items listed, warns the operator when end of sheet is neared, and locks the carriage so headings are uniform.

These are exclusively Burroughs points.

Remember that Burroughs Visible machines are built in the Burroughs factory, of the same material, with the same wonderful machine tools, and by the same workmen who have built a reputation for lifetime service into other Burroughs machines.

The Burroughs factory is not a new one, built just to make this one type of machine. It has been running 20 years and even the first adding machines turned out are still in use.

The Burroughs reputation and prestige are being built into every one of these machines and every word of the Burroughs guarantee and of the Burroughs Service pledge goes with it.

Two Shut Up.—Restaurant Patron (caustically)—"I am glad to see your baby has shut up, madam."

Mother—"Yes, sir. You are the only thing that's pleased him since he saw the animals eat at the Zoo."—Puck.

Borrowed.—"I see society people at Newport had a baby show."

"Where did they get the babies?"
"It was a loan exhibition, I believe."
—Washington Herald.

Reason Enough.—"How did you come to bid so extravagantly on so poor a hand?" asked the patient partner.

"Humph!" returned Mrs. Flimgilt. "You didn't suppose I was going to let that woman on my right have the last word, did you?"—Washington Star.

He Knew.—Knicker—"Do you understand mortgages?"

Bocker—"Yes; the first is for the car and the second is for the upkeep."—New York Sun.

Getting Warm.—"Have they started a new party, pa?"

"Yes, my son."
"Say, pa, politics will soon be as bad as religion, won't it?"—Judge.

Poetry and Prose.—"A thing of beauty is a joy forever," remarked the husband as he surveyed her gown.

"You can't jolly me into wearing this dress another season," responded the wife.—Washington Herald.

Hitting Back.—Richard Harding Davis, at a supper in New York, told a story about a dramatic critic.

"The young man," Mr. Davis said, "had roasted an actress dreadfully in his dramatic column. He was introduced to her a few days later, and she said: 'I think it was real mean of you to roast me like that, especially when you know that I have three children and a husband, who is a dramatic critic, to support.'"

Caused a Frost.—"What caused the coolness between you and that young doctor? I thought you were engaged."

"His writing is rather illegible. He sent me a note calling for 10,000 kisses."

"Well?"
"I thought it was a prescription, and took it to the druggist to be filled."—Washington Herald.

Ministering to Himself.—"John," said the minister of a Scotch parish, "I fear you are growing remiss in your religious duties. I have not seen you in the kirk these three Sundays."

"No," answered John, "it's not that I'm growin' remiss; I'm just tinkerin' away wi' my soul masel."—Methodist Recorder.

Suspicious.—Editor—"Have you submitted this poem anywhere else?"

Jokesmith—"No, sir."
Editor—"Then where did you get that black eye?"—Satire.

Doubtful Voter.—Tom McNeal tells of a candidate for sheriff who was going around among the voters soliciting their votes. He had a little book with him in which he entered the names of the voters he interviewed and their politics. He came to one blunt, heavy-jawed and big-fisted man who evidently did not like him.

"Well, Mr. Jones," said the candidate, "I suppose that I can count on your support at the election?"

"Naw, you can't count on my support," said Jones. "I'd rather take poison than vote for a son-of-a-gun like you."

"From the way you talk," said the candidate, as he pulled out his book, "I reckon mebbe I had better put you down as somewhat doubtful."—Kansas City Star.

Discovered.—"There's nothing like the roast beef of old England," declared the man with the monocle.

"I can go bail for that, old chappie," responded the Kansas City man. "We ship a good bit of it out of Kansas City."—Washington Herald.
