Hub bub of fashion

by Nicole Maksim

Where were you in '72? Or better yet what were you wearing back then?

Last Tuesday through Friday twice daily fashion shows ran in HUB Mall. The shows were to coordinate with the mall's "Where were you in '72?" theme.

Glenda Johnstone and Karen Kent, fashion show coordinators and representatives for HUB International Marketplace were "definitely pleased" with the outcome.

The purpose of the shows were to "promote the variety of clothes from HUB merchants, provide entertainment, and to get the spirit of being back to school alive."

The fashion shows opened with music and clothes taking the audience on a nostalgic trip down memory lane, back to 1972. Models wore everything ranging from plaid bellbottoms, a purple poncho, to a gaudy orange and white flowered minidress.

Present day fashion styles were supplied by various HUB Mall merchants.

Audience response was positive. After watching the show twice, student Brent Olexiuk thought "it was funny, the clothes were great." Science student Kathy Sandilands admitted she would "consider purchasing some of the clothes."

As well, Luba's Fashions was pleased to report that students have come "looking and buying" clothes that were featured in the shows.

— ALBERT EINSTEIN

Nearly half a million students can't be wrong.

You don't need to be a you-know-who (who me?) to know that travelling by train is light years ahead of other forms of mass transportation. Nearly half a million students in Canada took the train last year to visit family and friends or take a well-deserved break away from it all.

Of course the relative merits of train travel are easy to see. Where else but on the train can you get up and walk around, enjoy a stunning view, a complimentary meal on many routes, rest, catch up on your studies, travel with a group of friends, meet new people along the way and, in many cases, have the superb convenience of downtown-to-downtown service too?

And with students getting to travel at 33% off the regular fare simply by showing their student cards*, I'll be more than relatively surprised if even more don't take the train this year.

*Student discount not applicable on Fridays and Sundays between 12 noon and 6:00 p.m. on intercity trips anywhere between Québec City and Windsor or anywhere between Halifax and Fredericton (trains 11 and 12) or between Moncton and Campbellton (train 15 only) except when travelling to a destination outside these routes. Student discount is not applicable at anytime on any route between December 15th, 1989 and January 3rd, 1990 or between June 1st and September 30th, 1989 when sleeping car accommodation is purchased except on the Atlantic, The Ocean and The Chaleur.

Take the train. There's nothing quite like it!
