The Trades and Labor Congress seems to be in perfect accord with our aims in this regard. I am hoping that representative men of the Trades and Labor element and the farming element through the grange will meet in a few days at our headquarters here to plan for a great Peace Convention to be held as soon as possible.

I shall be glad if some of your friends would give me lists of names to whom we could send this last appeal and perhaps you would consult Speaker Marcil with reference to French translations and how to reach the Clergy and public throughout Quebec.

I remain,

Yours sincerely,

C.S. Eby
Secretary.
