

this month.

If it then appears that there is a sufficient body of opinion in favour of considering the terms on which united action could be taken, Mr. Chamberlain would be glad to co-operate in the appointment of a joint commission, or to lend his assistance in any other way which may seem best.

I am, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

(Sgd.) JOHN BRAMSTON.

TUPPER PAPERS

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA