Ottawa, 7th February, 1911.

Sir,-

Referring to your letter of the 31st ultimo, enclosing voucher No. 706/10 in favor of Messrs. Wm. Robinson Co. Ltd., for provisions said to have been supplied to destitute Indians, I beg to state that this account does not appear to have been received by the Department before and paid. Before making payment, however, the Department would like to know the names of the Indians who received assistance, to what Band they belong and on whose orders the supplies were furnished.

I herewith return the voucher in order that the names may be inserted by the Company opposite each item.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

G. A. Betournay Esq.,
Acting Indian Agent,
Selkirk, Man.
