

acted oppressively in the matter, nor is there the remotest suggestion of any corrupt or indirect motive, and that their decision should therefore be confirmed.

(Sgd.) H. W. NEWLANDS, J. A.
J. F. L. EMBURY, J.
GEORGE E. TAYLOR, J.

Regina, April 30, 1920.

The marginal headings were not in the Judgment