

The Westminster Book List

TREASURE VALLEY

MARIAN KEITH

TREASURE VALLEY

By MARIAN KEITH

Author of "Duncan Polite" "The Silver Maple"

"Treasure Valley" is a wholesome story, refreshing to mind and heart. No one can read it without enjoyment or without being made better. It is full of fun and goodness.

Cloth only, $1.25

THE LIFE OF THE REV. JAMES ROBERTSON, D.D.

(Late Superintendent at Western Missions)

By REV. G. W. GORDON, D.D., (Ralph Connor)

A copy of this fascinating and instructive book should be in every Canadian home. Ready early in December. With photogravure frontispiece.

Cloth, $1.50

CHRIST'S TEACHING CONCERNING THE LAST THINGS

By the LATE PRINCIPAL CAVEN

Readers of the TEACHERS MONTHLY will be glad to know that there is to be a permanent memorial of the late Principal Caven in the form of a volume of papers and addresses which were prepared by him on various occasions. The opening essay, which is by far the largest and which gives a title to the volume, is "Christ's Teaching Concerning the Last Things." Ten different subjects are discussed in all, with some of which, such as "The Divine Foundation of the Lord's Day" and "The Union of the Christian Churches," the late Principal's name will always be associated. Mr. J. A. Macdonald contributes a biographical sketch.

With Photogravure Frontispiece. Cloth, $1.00.

IAN MACLAREN: THE LIFE OF THE REV. JOHN WATSON, D.D.

By W. ROBERTSON NICOLL, Editor of "The British Weekly"

"When we try to think of John Watson, it is on the unity rather than on the diversity of his character that our thoughts soon settle. He was indeed on one side a man of the world, brilliant, witty, frank, engaging, affluent in conversation, the orator, the wit, the central figure. As a preacher and speaker, his eloquence, the nobleness and warmth of his tone, his keen sympathy, his precipency, put him in the foremost rank. But along with the exuberance and buoyancy, the freedom and the daring, there went a remarkable severity of self-discipline, a fixity of principle, a precision of thought and style, which made him a worthy ruler of men.

With Photogravure Frontispiece. $1.25

THE WESTMINSTER COMPANY, Limited
PUBLISHERS - TORONTO

Please mention "The Teachers Monthly" when writing advertisers