

STOCK GOSSIP.

Here is another claim the Cotswolds are putting forward, that of "multiplying and replenishing" in as rapid a manner as any other breed. The Messrs. Snell, of Edmonton, report the birth this spring of 26 lambs from 8 ewes—seven sets of triplets, and a litter of five. Who can beat this? Next!

J. G. Snell, Edmonton, Ont., writes:—Our Berkshires and Cotswolds have done exceedingly well this winter. So far it has been exceptionally fine for young pigs. We have found the demand for sheep and pigs from the United States better than for some years, and we have made good sales of both. The prospects for Cotswolds are very bright. Since August last we have sold 73 head. Three yearling rams sold for $150.00 each; this looks like getting back to the good old days. We have still a large flock, and have 50 ewes to lamb this spring.

H. Davis, Woodstock, Ont., has recently sold the Shorthorn bull calf Prince Rupert; sired by imp. Roan Prince, and having for his dam Violet's Eclipse; sired by imp. Eclipse, to Mr. Thomas Hart, Innerkip, Ont. He has nine calves already dropped, mostly reds; got by Roan Prince. He has a few heifers and one yearling bull on hand yet. He says orders are coming in for young pigs for spring delivery, of which three litters have been farrowed, all sired by an imp. Berkshire boar, and out of imported and registered sows.

E. L. Smith, Dart, Ont., is the fortunate purchaser of the Clydesdale stallion, Chairman, the third prize winner in the three-year-old class at the late Toronto Spring Stallion Show. He is a most promising beast, and has everything to recommend him. With plenty of size, beautifully moulded, a rich dark bay, with just enough white for effect, he is a right good one individually, and in breeding he is also right. Got by Claymore, a son of McGregor; dam, Lady Salisbury, by Lord Salisbury. With such breeding and appearance he should become popular from the outset in the locality where he is going.
