THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE.

must be careful how we choose many men as bad whiskey, and set of their high destiny as evil. com trusted Him to the care of her-the men, as mothers, as beachers, by pro

Therefore they owe to themselves, to society, to God, to make themselves

There have been women, like George Eliot and George Sand, who held literature to be the pest thing in life.

There is a woman writing to-day who holds the same opinion. Her name is Vernon Lee, and all her knowledge and all her literary skill are wielded against God. The life of George Eliot shows that genius and the fin est literary skill cannot compensate for the loss of God as revealed by Himself. Her life was sad, as you can see by the letters which her hus-and, Mr. Cross, has left us. Praccommitted a breach of morality for without God does not make men and vomen virtuous. For without God it is only part of itself. Cardina versity without a chair of theology is incomplete. It is so with litera since the time of Augustus, in spite of themselves, are Christians in their most despaired of recovery.

trouble began a few years ago, when I passed through a severe illness from which I did not regain my ac customed health and strength, though

I had the very best of care and tread ment. I meemed to grow weake every day. I was pale and emacian ed, had no appetite, could hardly go blood had turned to water, and my nerves seemed completely shattered

All the time I was under medica about, and found my life almost burden. It seemed as though Literature without which her greatest admirers dare not

You see that literature well says that a uni

So futile is it, that all poet tically rejecting Christianity, apologize.

Newman

ture.

futile.

The mission of women useless and unworthy

8 is

When

in

Wo-

world

mental love stories have made the highest mission on earth.

God sent His Son on earth He Virgin-blessed among women.

cept, by example, rule the worthy of their vocation .-

nany wom panions.

HOME INTERESTS Conducted by HELENE.

its cool, crisp breezes, our blood courses a little faster and we feel invigorated. While thus inspired with renewed energy, and as this i the off-time between seasons, we might profit by it and put in order the many things we had laid aside in the heat of summer "to do some other time." There is a certain amount of fixing up of garments to be done, which have been neglected, and no better time could be chosen All sorts of ingenuity will be called into play to create original ideas in stocks, cuffs, ties, kimonos and the hundred and one necessary accesso ries to a woman's toilet. And though it be not possible to give daytime to these little occupations the evening hours having lengthene nothing is quite as pleasant as happy party, each with favorite work in hand, the soft glow of a pretty light over all, and as the fingers ply needle, listening to a favorite author or mayhap the very latest and much talked about work, and about wh ch a discussion must necessarily arise. And all the while much is being ac complished, and so autumn is voted to have its compensations. + + +

TIMELY HINTS.

The enamel of the bath will be kept is required the temperature of the ward pensioning an old prefect of water is tested before it is poured in, and if cold water is to be added it is poured first into the bath. Too hot water cracks the surface.

To revive a dying fire scatter over the embers a tablespooaful of granulated sugar. Old corks should be saved for the same purpose, and they are very useful to add to the wood employed for fire kindling.

To make silk handkerchiefs look as good as new, put some alcohol or methylated spirits in the rinsing water and iron while wet.

Carron oil is made of equal parts of linseed oil and limewater shaken together, and it is a most effectual remedy for burns and scalds. As these accidents generally occur in the kitchen, it is well to keep the remedy there. The way to apply it is to saturate some lint, or, failing that any soft, clean cotton or linen cloth with the mixture and then to cover the injured part so as to exclude the air. It is astonishing how guickly the pain of the wound ceases after this remedy has been used. Oatmeal paste can be made at home by rolling ordinary oatmeal to a powder and sifting it. Add to this flour enough sweet almond oil to make a moderately stiff paste. Cover the han'ds with the paste and sleep in loose gloves. This will soor show a great improvement in the condition of the hands.

When overtired and restless bathe the neck and temples with hot water Bathe the back of the neck particul arly. This seems to relax the mus cles and the veins that supply the brain with blood. A headache will often be relieved, even cured, by hot + + +

At this season of the year, with which are a couple of sliced sweet oranges; beat the whites of two eggs to a stiff meringue, with two table spoonsful of sugar; flavor lightly with orange and pile up roughly on the pudding; set in a cool oven until the meringue rises and turns a delicate brown. The oven must be cool Hamburg Fried Oyster-Take two lozen large, frying oysters; dip them into slightly beaten egg, then roll in freshly grated Parmesan cheese Let stand for fifteen minutes, the dip again into the egg and roll cracker crumbs. Immerse in smoking hot fat and drain on unglazed paper. Plums Glace-For this delectable weet choose a can of large California plums. Turn into a porcelair lined pan and bring to the boiling Drain until the plums are point dry, then roll them in powdered su gar until coated a snowy whiteness To the juice add a cupful of sugar syrup, mix well, turn into the freezer an and, when frozen stiff, pile in on the plums, which have been placed in a pretty dish.

+ + +

HOW HE BECAME A CYNIC. Some lovable traits of character in Prosper Merimee, the famous French novelist, who has left to posterity the reputation of a misanthrope and a cynic, are revealed in the pages of Augustus Filon's "Merimee and his Friends."

Monsieur Filon tells us how this celebrated author devoted one hund red louis of his salary as senator to by the Revolution of 1848, and how for twenty years, he assisted and protected an humble sculptor in whom he had become interested.

Monsieur Filon relates an inciden of Merimee's childhood that shows how susceptible his nature was to strong impression, and how responsible older people, and particularly parents, are for the development of certain traits in children

When the future novelist was five years of age he was once punished by his mother for some naughtiness of which he was guilty. Madame Merimee, who was an artist, and who was at the time engaged at her easel, put the culprit out of the room, and closed the door upon him. The little Prosper, already peni tent, anxiously besought forgiveness through the closed door, expressing great contrition and promising good behavior: but the door remained in exorably shut. Finally, after much effort, he opened it and dragged him self upon his knees toward his mo ther. His piteous supplications and his pathetic attitude so amused Ma dame Merimee that she began laugh.

Instantly arising from his lowly posture he exclaimed indignantly 'Since you mock me, I will never ask pardon again." ,He kept his word. Thus was sown the seed of a certain cynical philosophy that tainted his after life + + +

THE PERFUMED BATH. No woman of fashion fails to pe fume her bath in these days. By this method the body becomes saturated applications to the back of the neck. with a faint, delicate odor. Tablets for perfuming the bath come in every

Mr. F. W. Meyers, King St. E., Berl Ont., says: "I suffered for five yes with palpitation, shortness of breas sleeplessness and pain in the heart, ho one box of Milburn's Heart and Ner Fills completely removed all these d Pills completely removed all these tressing symptoms. I have not sui since taking them, and now sleep well lesi strong and vicence " well an el strong and vigorous." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure Il diseases arising from weak heart, worn i parte tigunes, or watery blood. all di

BE KIND TO-DAY.

Less spent on the dead and mor spent on the living would bring about many happy results. Heart are breaking, loved ones walt and tears flow all because of the with holding of kind words unspoken and letters never sent. The aged fathe and mother far off in the country would often be cheered did the son or daughter more frequently send them a letter. Behold the sad mis takes of others, their remorse, and profit by the same before it is too To-day, now, speak the loving late. word, send the tender message, write the letter you put off day by day and don't wait until you forget it or until bitter memories haunt you + + + the Scientific American, make pale yellow the color key. If it is cold (on a cliff or in the mountains or in the shadow of high, neighboring walls) warm it with a blending mahogany and pink or old rose and old gold hangings combined with a relief of curtains in ivory or ecru tint. If it is sunny, mahogany or other dark woods and blue will give the desired effect. If it is too dark light it up with maple or white enamel, with cream or golden brown or with rose tones on the walls, and put some bright blooming plants and ferns about the windows.

+ + +

THE HOME IN FRANCE.

The father and mother in Paris eat at home when they do not eat out, but absolutely no informal social intercourse invades the apartment which is more than anything else sort of factory in which is whatever the family needs for life outside. A vast amount of sewing is done here. French girls of ever wealthy parents, after they finish school, attend courses of dressmak ing and millinery and to a extent the industry which turns out the French woman as a model good dressing, to be followed by the world, is carried on by the women of the family in what would be th home if the French knew the meaning, of the word. A reception day is rigorously kept, and much entertaining at dinner and dejeuner may be done but always of a formal character. A person having the penetrating qualities of a book agent might ventu to try "dropping in" on a French reatment, but with no apparent be nefit. One day a friend who called to see me, brought me some Dr. Wilprodu liams' Pink . Pills, and asked me to take them. I did so, and after couple of week I found my appetite improving, and took this as a sign that the pills were helping me, and I got another supply. In a weeks more the change in my ap grea pearance and condition was marvel lous, and friends who dropped in to see me hardly thought I was same person. It was not much longer until I was completely cured; in fact I felt better than I have don for years before. I am, therefore very happy to make known to all ail ing women the fact that they can find new health through the use of Dr Williams' Pink Pills " Mrs. Turcott's experience with this same as thousands of others. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are woman on a day when she is not re the greatest cure for the ailments due gularly receiving, but in the natural to poor blood. All the weakness of course of ordinary social experience anaemia; all the distress of indigesin Paris this would never happen

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1905.

The Poet's Corner.

THE LITTLE AND THE LARGE.

Who shall affront the mountains

The columbine? Come hither, pig calm rebuking flowers outlive

Are but one ramdom idle leaf that

In last night's canyon storm. Tho

Doth bate its breath to watch thee

The farther shore. But in these vas

That stirs the smallest blossom loudest din is but the breathing these cool mountain streams when the curtain falls upon thy Peace ! Peace, oh man!

And when the vastest thing thy hand

Shall be the litter of the child's play

These peaks shall rear their verdure Fair sky as for the ages gone; the Shall blossom on and on, to sham or thy puny wars, thy tiny

Who deride vaunted span

these peaks;

thinkest earth battle: that of the pines;

retreats faint.

the brim

little scene, hath made heads in God's hour.

flowers

thy hate

e'er

God.

tlenes

-Collier's.

Our Father

mine.

of Thine

to pray.

dear sake.

do pray;

stand,

means to say,

ther's hand.

means to say,

within it lies.

do pray:

Paradise.

Forgive !

wills must break

30

My

few

th

Mighty Plan.

cities' lore:

means to say,

kneel to pray:

marts and towns,

They turn the leaves not read

The Little teach the Large.

shall Thy Greatness teach me Lit-

....

THE OUR FATHER.

Teach us, dear Lord, all that it

The words, "Our Father," when we

Teach us, Dear Lord, all that it means to say, "Thy will be done," when we do kn will be done, then our proud

Teach us, Dear Lord, all that it

"Forgive our trespasses," when

And this world's hope and trust the word was coined in

W

fide.

Thy

Of

she thee age strifes.

fell

On age;

Takes not one handbredth my man,

And learn thy

Would you might fare with me thus alway, Down to the dusk of my latest day,

FHURSDAY

Dear Girls and Boys

this fine weather.

I am sure you are and run and jump a heated as you would have not heard any nutting experiences.

lightful out in the w

How I wish I could

Dear Aunt Becky:

you a few words.

old. I go to school am in the first reade old enough I am goin teacher. 1 book, arithmetic, geo vesting, and we hav dug. We have fifty

pect the thresher her had a nice drive las chibucto. The trees are all beginning t vellow. I have a ne teaches at her own h

The mail driver has hi us every day. It is feel like winter. I th my letter to a close saying good-bye from Your loving

Kouchibouguac, Ker

A HALF-DONE

"I don't know whe could have meant,"

absently, as she part ppen book she was re haps 'twas nothing al makes me feel uncomi

I hadn't heard it: but fault; I wasn't eave

Emily's troubles you.

in the room, mothe turned quickly in her flush indicating her e

"Yes; it was when I c morning for her patte something she said to it's made me feel unco since. The worst of i can't understand what

I can explain. I'm su never would have said

tentionally to cause

"I know she wouldn said Edith, looking so grate. "Florence wan some slippers like those ed for father's birthday tated, the flush on her

"Aunt Emily told her finished the breakfast grandmother, she mi

didn't want her to beco cousin Edith-a half-do

Mrs. Ferguson was sil her expression, however dicated that her sister' asked Edith, anxiously,

What was it, mother slightest pain."

a deeper tinge.

"Well, dear ?"

"Do you mind telling meant.'

"I had almost forgo

nething you h

Our last teach

CHRISTI

+ + +

with my grandma.

teacher.

term.

I am lear

As I have not w some time. I though

Your loving

+ +

011

Brave little waif of a vanished dawn, Would you might walk with me on and on. Even as now, in the day's decline, Still with your warm little hand in mine. Guiding my steps o'er each rugged nothingness. Thy Soothing my fears with your trustful smile, Kissing the tears from my with'ring cheek-

You are so strong and I am so weakt -E. O. Laughlin, in Youth's Companion.

+ + + AN ANSWER.

Through the long dark she watched beside her dead

The little ripple thou dost make doth "Grant me a sign, O God of lifa and light ! Lest in the ocean of despair and dread My lost soul sink to-night !" Then in the east the dewy roses

Thy clash and clangor but one zephy stirred; A soft breath crept amid the whis > pering corn; And the sweet shrillness of the piping bird Hailed the awaking morn ! -Margaret Elizabeth Blake.

* * * YESTERDAY.

Ship of To-day ! I watch you sail Across the lessening hours to me. What storm can those brave wings assail, What tempest toss that peaceful sea ?

With their sweet oneness with th All happy things you seem to bring, A cargo of long-sought desires Oh would I dwelt within the shadow Rebirth of joy, glad songs of Spring

And the subtle hints of hidden fires, Of these great fingers of Thy law, oh Yet stand I silent and apart.

They point to things not taught in Unwelcoming your fair array, With eyes turned toward you, but in with heart Still with the Ship of Yesterday ! -Margaret R. Schott, in the Century

+ + +

TALK HAPPINESS.

Talk happiness ? Not now and then, but every Blessed day, Even if you can't be sure Of half of what You say; There's no room here for him

Thou, than every child Who whines as on his Way he goes: Is, by the bond, a brother, Lord, of Remember, son, the world is Sad enough without > Your woes. Talk happiness each chance You get-and Talk it good and strong !

Look for it in The byways as you grimly And lose themselves in love for Thy Plod along; Perhaps it is a stranger now Whose visit never Teach us, Dear Lord, all that it Come But talk it ! Soon you'll find "Give us our daily bread," when w

That you and Happiness We will be trustful when we under Are chums -J. Wainwright. Not grasp the loaf from out a bro

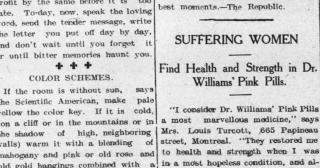

+ + + SIT STILL.

Sit still, my child. 'Tis no great task I ask, No glorious deed, no mighty task; But just to sit and patiently abide, Wait in my presence, in my word cor

"To-morrow morning you, dear," replied M slowly. "Come to m the work is done, and understood.

silence

RECIPES. Iced Ginger Mousse—Take half a upful of sugar and boil with a fourth of a cup of water until it reaches the hread stage. Whip the whites of wo eggs very stiff and pour the sy- up on them, whipping until the two ure thoroughly mixed. A cupful of whipped cream is folded into this mixture, and a cupful of preserved ginger chopped very fine is mixed in at the last moment. Place in a mold, seal carefully and pack in ice and salt for several hours. The syrup in which the ginger was preserved makes an excellent sauce for this meusse. Orange Tapioca—Orange tapioca may be made with milk or water, according to circumstances. Soak two tablespoonsful of pearl tapioca in hot water to cover until the water is all absorbed; place the tapioca in	of bouquets. One of thise dropped into a tub of water will perfume not only the bath and the bather, but the room and the whole house. DONT'S FOR MOTHERS. Don't entertain all your friends with a detailed account of your chil- dren's marvelous sayings and do- ings. Don't permit a fear to be im- planted in your child. Deal summari- ly with those who would dare im- plante it. Don't delude yourself with the idea that at six months baby cannot un- derstand the difference between your "yes" and "no." Don't free your children by perpe- tually worrying about them. They must have some common sense, teach	Such order of living readily permits great economy. One has not to waste time, good clothes or house room in daily preparation for the unexpected guest. Six days of the week a French woman may run her sewing machine in the middle of her salon if she likes, secure from inter- ruption of chance callers. It is said that the chief function of the petit salon of a Paris apartment is to provide storage room for ball gowns which on reception days are taken down from the chandelier and locked up in a bedroom until the guests have departed. BOOKS. Books are true friends. We can al- ways have them with us. As a clear- sighted writter says, they never take oftense, they never betray our confi-	cause they actually make bw, rich, health-giving blood. They don't act upon the bowels, they don't bother with mere symptoms; they go right to the root of the trouble and cure it through the blood. But you must get the genuine-substitutes and imi- tations never cured anyonte See that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is printed on the wrapper around the box. Sold by all medicine dealers everywhere, or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brock- ville, Ont.	s and aches of neu- nd rheumatism; all l-health that wo- ime to time, come And Dr. Williams' hese troubles, be- ly make ow, rich, d. They don't act they don't bother off, all that it means to say, This prayer of Thine when kneeling day by day. For when we know-and live-its meaning deep, No hearts will need to break, no eyes to weeps -Caroline Vinton Henry, in New World. Caroline Vinton Henry, in New World. The harvest fields spread out b me He, The reapers toward me look, vainly cry- "The field is white, the laborer fow, Oh, but the way is so lone, so long! Would I might walk with you on and on, re comes not, merely Holding your fail little hand in mine, To frest beneath the shadow of word solution your fail little hand in mine, To frest to me each restless.	 to wield, Forward to go, and in the battlefield To fight for thee, thine enemies o'arithrow, And in my strength to vanquise every foe. The harvest fields spread out before me lie, The reapers toward me look, and vainly cry "The field is white, the laborers are few; Our Lord's command is also sent to you." My child, it is a sweet and blessed thing, To rest beneath the shadow of my wing: To feel thy doings and thy words are before the statement of the sent to words are betown to the sent to words are betown. 	 waited for to make Ed unfortunate habit, a growing upon her thought Mrs. Ferguson evening, as she gathere to room an armful of p ed articles. "I trust m after her aunt's remark plish what my suggestivity vice for months have f and, with a sigh, Mrs. on the table her collection half-fnished articles. The next day, after f work was over, Mrs. Fe Edith into her room. "Is what Aunt Emily vey bad?" asked Editi "Is it something I'll dr you tell?" "I think I shall not 1 Wy exhibition will explanation at the last moment. Place in a mold, seal carefully and pack in ice and salt for several hours. The syrup in which the ginger was preserved makes an excellent sauce for this meusse. Orange Tapioca—Orange tapioca may be made with milk or water, according be circumstances. Soak two tablespoonstul of pearl tapioca in hot water to cover until the water is all absorbed; place the tapioca in a double boiler with a pint of milk a seant half cupful of sugar, a pinch of salt, and cook until the tapioca is soft and transparent; add the bea	ings. Don't permit a fear to be im- planted in vour child. Deal summari- ly with those who would dare im- plant it. Don't delude yourself with the idea that at six months baby cannot un- derstand the difference between your "yes" and "no." Don't fret your children by perpe- tually worrying about them. They must have some common sense; toach them to make use of it. Don't treat your son and your daughter at twenty as you would have treated them at twelve; remem- ber that they are now a man and a woman. Don't forget that the fire of curi- tosity may be smothered, but not easily extinguished, and that some one else will surely be called upon	provide storage room for ball gowns which on reception days are taken down from the chandelier and locked up in a bedroom until the guests have departed. 	it through the blood. But you must get the genuine-substitutes and imi- tations never cured anyone. See that the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is printed on the wrapper around the box. Sold by all medicine dealers everywhere, or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brock- ville, Ont. True soul-culture comes not merely from sitting at the fact of our Lord and learning of Him, but fro.a going out into the world and living what we know. Not he is holy who knows what is right, but he who lives what is right, hut he who living comes the opportunity for ser- vice. Wherever our iffe touches am other life, there our influence for good	FATHER AND CHILD. FATHER AND CHILD. You are so helpless and I so strong, Oh, but the way is so lone, so long! Would I but fare with you thus alway Down to the dusk of your latest day. Wee little warddeer out of the dawn, Would I might walk with you on and on, Evren as now, in the day's decline, Hobding your frail little hand in mine, Guiding your steps o'er each rugged mile, Greeting with kisses your childish smile, Kissing the tears from your dimpled cheek—	 vainly cry— "The field is white, the laborers are few; Our Lord's command is also sent to you." My child, it is a sweet and blessed thing. To rest beneath the shadow of my wing; To feel thy doings and thy words are naught. To trust to me each restless, longing thought. Deas Lord, help me this lesson sweet to learn. To sit at thy pierced feet and celly years To love these better, Lord, and tel that still Waiting is working, if it be thy will. 	and, with a sigh, Mrs. on the table her collect half-finished articles. The next day, after i work was over, Mrs. Fe Edith into her room. "Is what Aunt Emily very bad?" asked Edit "Is it something I'll de