CORPUS CHRISTI CELEBRATION.

GREAT PROCESSION ARRANGED Grandeur of this Year's Demonstration to Surpass All Others.

Once a year only are we called upon to make open profession of our faith, and it is only right that this be done in a manner fitting to the great mystery which is being commemorated, the institution of the sacrament of love, Corpus Christi—Observance of its special day—Holy Thursday—having been set aside as it occurs during the season when the Church is commemorating the most sorrowful period of the Saviour's life.

This demonstration of faith has always taken the form of a vast procession composed of the faithful who in a most reverential manner slowly walk through the streets of the city, which on other days resound to the confusing noise of busy traffic, but which on this solemn occasion are hushed to silence, save now and again broken by the strains of a song of praise to the Sacrament, being thus honored, or by the sweet voices of the children singing a well known hymn to Mary.

This year the usual pomp and ceremony will mark the observance which will take place on Sunday, June 20. Starting from Notre Dame Church, the different societies and sodalities of men and women, the little communicants, clergy vested in rich vestments of the parishes of Notre Dame, St. Patrick's, Cathedral and St. Helen, cadets of the different schools and colleges and lastly the military guard, around the white plumed canopy, which has an effect at once solemn and impressive, will wend their way through the following streets: Place d'Armes Square, St. James, St. Lambert Hill, St. Lawrence Boulevard, St. Catherine, St. Denis, Bonsecours, Champ de Mars, Gosford and Notre Dame streets back to the church. A handsome repository will be erected in front of Laval University, where a halt will be made and benediction given.

Members of St. Ann's Young Men's Society assisted in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass last Sunday, and received Holy Communion. At the evening service they occupied the middle rows of the Church. The sanctuary decorations and illuminations were unusually brilliant and beautiful. The sermon was preached by Rev. Father Daly, C.S.S.R., it was a glowing tribute to the Mother of God in which he earnestly exhorted the young men to be faithful and loyal in their devotion to the Most Blessed Virgin and to imitate her virtues if they would accomplish great things.

The procession in honor of the Blessed Virgin in which the picture of the Madonna, beautifully decorated, was borne in triumph by the officers of the Society, was an edifying and imposing spectacle to the large number of worshippers that thronged the sacred edifice. The young ladies' choir was in charge of the musical portion of the service and as usual they gave a splendid display of musical talent. Prof. J. I. McCaffrey, organist and leader of St. Ann's choir, acted as accompanist.

St. Ann's is the oldest and largest Catholic Young Men's Society in Montreal. It is thoroughly organized and equipped in all its appointments, and while it spares nothing to afford every member the means of attaining a high degree of literary, physical and social culture, yet religion is the primary object of the society, and the demonstration of practical faith and piety given by its members on Sunday last shows how faithful they are to the practice of first principles.

VICTORIAN ORDER FETE ON JUNE 10.

Lady Aberdeen Herself Will Patronize the Great Event at Dominion Park This Year.

The annual statement of the Victorian Order of Nurses has just been issued. The order reports a year of successful and increasing work. The city of Montreal is divided into eight districts where nurses live, their numbers depending on the growth of the work. The nurses number 29 at the present time, and during the year they have made 35,611 visits.

The Victorian Order was established by Lady Aberdeen. The present head of the Order is Miss Agnes Lynch, and under her direction it has grown to be one of the noblest and most uplifting influences for good in the city of Montreal. It is told by physicians that it would be almost impossible for them to dispense with the services of this devoted band of women. Their work is hard and trying. They are frequently called out at night during rigorous winter and at all seasons of the year and they never refuse a call. The nurses have every opportunity to be the friends of the poor and to spread the doctrine of light, air and cleanliness. We take this opportunity of recognizing and commending their good work in the city of Montreal.

June 10 has been set aside as the date for the annual fete of the Victorian Order of Nurses at Dominion Park. The immense success of the last celebration of this kind is a sufficient guarantee that this year's will be something notable. Lady Aberdeen has consented to be present at the fete in person, and a number of other distinguished persons have promised their co-operation.

SEEK EASY MONEY FROM BLIND BIGOTS.

British People Asked to Contribute to Christianize "Heathen Irish."

We would ask the Protestant natives of Ireland whether they do not feel it imperative on them to take some measures in order to put a stop to the vile campaign carried on against their country in the name of Protestantism, inquires the Catholic Times. The matter closely concerns them. The man who does not feel it his duty to respect his fellow-countrymen and, as far as in him lies, to do them justice, is not deserving of the name. There have been Irish Protestants, to whom Irishmen, whether Catholics or Protestants, owe a heavy debt of gratitude, lovers of their country whose scorn would be aroused and whose hearts would be inflamed with anger by attempts to revile her people. Doubtless there are many such Irish Protestants still. If so they will surely do something effectual to show their detestation of the contemptible methods adopted by the agents of the "Irish Church Missions" in order to extract money from British bigots. In the Worthington Gazette of May 12 we read that a special deputation, consisting of the Revs. W. H. Fishie, "of the Dublin Mission," and W. E. Williams, the secretary of the society, attended the annual meetings of the local supporters of the organization. The Rev. W. B. Ferris, vicar of Christchurch, presided at one of these meetings and is reported to have said that the Irish Church Missions was a home missionary society "for it worked amongst the heathen in Ireland who worshipped as did the heathen in foreign lands." And the Rev. W. H. Fishie, the Gazette states "gave several instances of the heathenism of the people of Ireland. Vulgar attacks of that kind betray ignorance and intolerance combined, but they do not hurt Catholics, for every enlightened person is aware that the Irish Catholic child who has learnt the Catechism knows more about the Christian truths than these ill-instructed Protestant clerics; but it is a disgrace to Irish Protestants that they should tolerate the anti-Irish bitterness and unscrupulous vilification.

of Mrs. Emma Hall of Hamilton, Ont., furnishes proof that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure even the most stubborn cases of nerve exhaustion. Mrs. Hall was left a widow and was forced to work in a mill to maintain herself and her two little children. She bravely faced the battle of life, though she had never had to conform to such conditions before. Notwithstanding the splendid spirit she displayed the work played havoc with a delicate constitution, and some years ago Mrs. Hall noticed signs in herself of a nervous collapse. She consulted a doctor who gave her some medicine and told her "would be all right in a few days." But relief did not come and it was finally a daily occurrence for her to faint at her work. These fainting spells quickly developed into pronounced hysteria and chronic irritability, and Mrs. Hall says that death would have been a relief. She consulted several doctors but got no help, and she felt that she was almost bordering on insanity. In this condition she was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Grasping at even a possibility of help she decided to do so. After taking three boxes she actually found some improvement, and from that time on this improvement was steady and increasing daily until after a few months she felt the cure was complete. She says:—"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done what doctors failed to do, and what I myself thought was impossible. They have freed me from the terrible trouble I suffered, and my old joy in life has been renewed." When Mrs. Hall began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills she weighed only one hundred pounds while under her renewed health her weight has increased to one hundred and thirty pounds.
