VAN DER LINDE RUBBER COMPANY, LIMITED.

PUBLIC Notice is hereby given that under the First Part of chapter 79 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, known as "The Companies Act," letters patent have been issued under the Seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 26th day of October, 1916, incorporating Sophia Tutty, bookkeeper, Ella Lester Kelly, Susie Ross and Myrtle Etiole Thurgarland, stenographers, William Archibald McFarlane and Vincent Thomas Aloysius Foley, students-at-law, and Lester Millman Keachie, barrister-at-law, all of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, for the following purposes, viz.:—(a) To carry on the business of manufacturers of and dealers in rubber and moulded goods and goods and products in which rubber of any kind whatsoever or any analogous substance may be used and to manufacture and deal in plastic goods, materials and products of all kinds whatsoever, and to cultivate rubber plants, guayule and all other plants capable of being used for the manufacture of rubber or similar products and plastic goods, and to carry on the business of rubber plantations in all of its branches, and to carry on and work the business of manufacturers, winners and buyers of every kind of rubber plants and vegetable, mineral or other product of the soil; to prepare, manufacture and render marketable any such product, and to sell, dispose of and deal in any such product, either by wholesale or retail, and to carry on the business of chemists and electricians, and manufacturers of and dealers in all kinds of chemicals and electrical goods; (b) To buy, sell, manufacture, refine, manipulate, import, export and deal in all substances, apparatus and goods capable of being used in any such business as aforesaid or required by customers of or persons having dealings with the company, either by wholesale or retail; (c) To own, construct, operate, manage and deal with ships, barges, vessels and other marine craft, and so far as may be expedient to carry on the business of general merchants and buy, lease or otherwise acquire and to clear, plant and work rubber estates and plantations or any interest therein, as may be deemed advisable in the interests of the company; (d) For the purpose of supplying the needs of the company's business, to purchase, lease or acquire any interests in lands, water powers and water privileges and to develop therefrom any power, electrical or other energy needed for said business on or outside the lands of the company and to use and transmit the same and to sell, lease or dispose of said lands or interests therein and to sell or dispose of surplus power or energy not required for the needs of the company and to enter into working arrangements with other companies, persons, firms or corporations for the use or transmission of such surplus and to establish, operate and maintain any electric, gas or other lighting, heating or power plant and to sell or dispose of such surplus electric, gas or other light, heat and power and all the residual products of such plant; provided, however, that any sale, distribution or transmission of electric energy for light, heat and power beyond the lands of the company shall be subject to all provincial and municipal laws and regulations in that behalf; (e) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, exchange or otherwise, land, buildings and hereditaments of any tenure or description and any estate or interest therein, and any right over or connected with land, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and to construct, reconstruct, erect, alter, operate, maintain and manage all buildings, erections, factories, shops, storehouses, depots, machine shops, engine houses and other constructions and erections for its business and to hold, improve, decorate, furnish such buildings and erections as may be deemed proper, and to acquire as aforesaid all other property, movable and immovable, necessary and useful for carrying on any of the purposes of the company, and with power to sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of any such property, lands or interests therein or rights thereover as the company may deem proper; (f) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the company's property or rights; (g) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the company; (h) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire and use, any inventions, patents, brevets d'invention, trade marks, trade names, licenses, concessions and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive, or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention or discovery which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the company, and to use, exercise, develop, improve or grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights or information so acquired; (i) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same; (j) To take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the company or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the company, notwithstanding the provisions of section 44 of the said Act; (k) To enter into any arrangement with any government or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions; (l) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the company (or its predecessors in business) or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object; (m) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the company, or for any other purpose, which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the company; (n) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, any personal property and any rights or privileges which the company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock in trade, as may be required and to construct, maintain and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the company; (o) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof; (p) To invest and deal with the moneys of the company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and to lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons; (q) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company or any part thereof for such consideration as the company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the company; (r) With the approval of the shareholders, to remunerate any person or company by the issue of fully paid-up stock or otherwise, for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the company's capital, or any debentures, bonds or other securities of the company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the company or the conduct of its business; (t) To issue paid-up shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of the company in payment or part payment for any property or rights which the company may desire to acquire or, with the approval of the shareholders, for any services rendered or to be rendered or for any work done or to be done for the company or in or towards the payment or satisfaction of debts or liabilities owing by the company; (u) To adopt such means of making known the products of the company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals and by granting prizes, rewards and donations; (v) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the company; (w) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects; (x) None of the powers given by any paragraph aforesaid are to be restricted or limited by reference to or inference from any other paragraph. The operations of the company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere by the name of "van der Linde Rubber Company, Limited," with a capital stock of three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into 3,500 shares of one hundred dollars each, and the chief place of business of the said company to be at the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario.
