

The Catholic Record.

"CHRISTIANUS MIHI NOMEN EST, CATHOLICUS VERO COGNOMEN."—"CHRISTIAN IS MY NAME, BUT CATHOLIC BY SURNAME."—St. Pacian, 4th Century.

VOLUME 9.

LONDON, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, JANUARY 8, 1887.

NO. 430.

NICHOLAS WILSON & CO. 126 Dundas Street. Tailors and Gents' Furnishers. FINE AND MEDIUM WOOLLENS A SPECIALTY.

INSPECTION INVITED. THE SCHOOL QUESTION. II. CONTINUED FROM FIFTH PAGE. The sum, arising from the tax for school purposes, shall be divided as follows: 1. An amount proportionate to the value of the property entered in panel number three, shall be divided between the Board of Roman Catholic School Commissioners and the Board of Protestant School Commissioners in the relative proportion of the value of property entered in panels number one and two respectively...

of its police protection. So long as Ottawa continues part of the Province of Ontario, its municipal government must be conducted on the principles obtaining everywhere else. But we have always thought that Ottawa, with one or two of the neighboring townships, should be formed into a federal district, and given over altogether to the tender mercies of the Federal Government.

AFTER THE BATTLE. Now that the contest in which the patriotic people of Ontario bravely met and signally overcame the blinded partisans who afflict the Province with their presence, is over, we have but to offer hearty congratulations to the majority on its great and significant triumph. Never was a more severe and never a more important contest fought out in Ontario. The Conservative party, led on by the Mail, entered into the fight by inciting five-sixths of the population to wage relentless war on the helpless and unoffending one-sixth. Malevolence, misrepresentation, mendacity, slander, all were vigorously plied in support of the Mail "No-Popery" platform. The electorate of Ontario was asked, nay adjured, to efface legislation, to violate treaties, to trample upon the constitution, and to smash the very confederation to pieces, because the Mail would have Mr. Meredith made Premier, and a war of races and creeds inaugurated to make of Canada a veritable hell upon earth and a blot upon civilization. To destroy Mr. Mowat's government, the Mail was prepared to set neighbor against neighbor, citizen against citizen and all men against country in fratricidal and suicidal conflict. But the people would have none of the Mail's dictation nor of Bunting's advice. They resolved to stamp Mowat with warmest approval and stigmatize his opponents with severest condemnation. The elections of Tuesday, Dec. 29th, will be forever memorable in the history of Ontario. The constituencies then voted:

MR. C. DONOVAN, M. A. SEPARATE SCHOOL GRADUATES ENTERTAIN THEIR FORMER PRINCIPAL AT A COMMEMORATIVE DINNER—A MAGNIFICENT REUNION. Times, Dec. 30. As fine a company of young men as has been seen together in Hamilton for a long time surrounded the table in the dining room at the Commercial Hotel last night, on the occasion of a complimentary dinner tendered to their former principal, Mr. C. Donovan. M. A., Inspector of Separate Schools. There were present as guests Mr. Ballard, Public School Inspector; Rev. Fathers Craven, Slaven and Halm, and Messrs. J. G. Buchanan and Morrison, of the daily press.

Table with columns for Town, Value, and Amount. Includes entries for Dillon, Clancy, Town of Chatham, Township of Chatham, Dover, Raleigh, Ramey, Tilbury East, Wallaceburg, and West Kent.

The spread comprised edibles of the best description well served, and spoked volumes for the purpose of "mine host" Doyle. After the cloth had been removed Mr. Donovan made a few pleasant remarks, and proceeded to "call the roll" when the following gentlemen who had previously been boys under him in the R. C. School answered to their names: Joseph F. O'Brien, Alphonse Schwendau, Andrew O'Brien, M. Malone, Patrick Padden, John O'Brien, John O'Connor, Geo. Collier, Albert Schwendau, Chas. Marks, John Hunter, Nicholas Buck, James M. O'Brien, Wm. Howard, Chas. Brennan, P. Obermyer, John Buck, F. Byrne, James O'Heir, H. O'bermyer, Daniel McAuliffe, Jas. Duly, Wm. Fitzpatrick, John Devine, James O'Brien, Sarsfield Sweeney, Thos. Cummings, E. Byrne, Eugene Schwendau, John Reardon, James W. McGowan, Thos. Fitzpatrick, Wm. McCarley, Joseph Delorme, Wm. Hunter, Wm. Howard and Wm. McKinty.

MR. CURRAN'S SPEECH. We publish elsewhere a speech delivered by Mr. J. J. Curran, M. P., at Chatham, on the 17th of December last. Our readers are well acquainted with our views and position on the points dealt with by Mr. Curran. We give the speech, however, as a matter of justice to him.

MR. DONOVAN'S SPEECH. The Vice Chairman then gave "The Educational Interests," which elicited an able response from Mr. Ballard. He spoke highly of the Canadian system in general and the Hamilton schools in particular. He had visited the Separate Schools with Inspector Donovan, and felt satisfied from what he saw that the schools, their teachers and the Inspector were abreast of the times. (Applause.) Mr. DeLorme sang "The Minstrel Boy" with good effect. "Canada Our Home" was drunk with enthusiastic cheers. Mr. M. Malone responded eloquently and with true patriotic spirit, enlarging upon the natural resources and the great possibilities attending the future of the Dominion. He concluded with a neat compliment to his former teacher.

THE BAZAAR. The bazaar now going on in aid of St. Peter's Cathedral promises to be one of the most successful yet held. Next week we will give an extended notice together with the names of the prize winners.

DONOVAN, in responding, warmly eulogized Hon. Mr. Ross for his zeal, ability and indefatigable labors in the cause of education. "Our Absent Friends" was proposed and ably treated in response by Mr. John Devine. Many of the absent ones were scattered in different parts of America, but he felt that all were present in spirit and would bear the reunion with feelings of gladness, especially as it had been so successful.

OBITUARY. Mr. Denis McCarthy. One by one the old familiar faces drop from the ranks of the living and go to meet their reward. The morning that ushered in a bright New Year—the morning when friend met friend and wished each other happiness and wished during its continuance—on that morning to one home whose door had suddenly been summoned to the presence of our blessed Lord. Mr. Denis McCarthy was an old resident of London and had at the time of his death attained the ripe old age of eighty years. It is hardly necessary we should write of him any words of praise. Our people all knew him and all held him in the highest regard. He was truly a model man, honest, sincere, and industrious, a Catholic whose example was a blessing in the parish. In all matters pertaining to the welfare of the church and of religion he was ever found in the front rank, eager to forward the interests of both. He was for more than twenty years a member of the St. Vincent de Paul's Society, and in the carrying out of its purposes his kindly charitable nature could be seen to better advantage than in any other capacity. The funeral took place on Monday, 3rd instant, a Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered up in St. Peter's Cathedral for the repose of his soul. Rev. Father Tierman took occasion to refer to the holy life spent by the good man who had now gone to his reward. The rev. gentleman referred in touching terms to the great assistance rendered him by the deceased during the eleven years he had been pastor of St. Peter's. At all times he could be relied upon to lend a willing hand in the promotion of every good work. He leaves a widow, three sons and four daughters to mourn his loss. Two of the last mentioned are Sisters of St. Joseph. We tender to the family our heartfelt condolence in their sad affliction.

At a late meeting of the Ottawa city council the following resolution was passed through the usual formalities: "It was moved by Ald. Greene, seconded by Ald. O'Leary, that the city clerk be instructed to give notice in proper manner, that application be made to the Local Legislature at its next sitting, for an act to amend the Municipal act to enable the Dominion government to take appointment and control of city police. Carried; yeas 11 nays 3. We doubt if the Legislature of Ontario ought to pass any such law as the Ottawa city council desires in the matter of his police protection. So long as Ottawa continues part of the Province of Ontario, its municipal government must be conducted on the principles obtaining everywhere else. But we have always thought that Ottawa, with one or two of the neighboring townships, should be formed into a federal district, and given over altogether to the tender mercies of the Federal Government.

MR. CURRAN'S SPEECH. We publish elsewhere a speech delivered by Mr. J. J. Curran, M. P., at Chatham, on the 17th of December last. Our readers are well acquainted with our views and position on the points dealt with by Mr. Curran. We give the speech, however, as a matter of justice to him.

MR. DONOVAN'S SPEECH. The Vice Chairman then gave "The Educational Interests," which elicited an able response from Mr. Ballard. He spoke highly of the Canadian system in general and the Hamilton schools in particular. He had visited the Separate Schools with Inspector Donovan, and felt satisfied from what he saw that the schools, their teachers and the Inspector were abreast of the times. (Applause.) Mr. DeLorme sang "The Minstrel Boy" with good effect. "Canada Our Home" was drunk with enthusiastic cheers. Mr. M. Malone responded eloquently and with true patriotic spirit, enlarging upon the natural resources and the great possibilities attending the future of the Dominion. He concluded with a neat compliment to his former teacher.

THE BAZAAR. The bazaar now going on in aid of St. Peter's Cathedral promises to be one of the most successful yet held. Next week we will give an extended notice together with the names of the prize winners.

OBITUARY. Mr. Denis McCarthy. One by one the old familiar faces drop from the ranks of the living and go to meet their reward. The morning that ushered in a bright New Year—the morning when friend met friend and wished each other happiness and wished during its continuance—on that morning to one home whose door had suddenly been summoned to the presence of our blessed Lord. Mr. Denis McCarthy was an old resident of London and had at the time of his death attained the ripe old age of eighty years. It is hardly necessary we should write of him any words of praise. Our people all knew him and all held him in the highest regard. He was truly a model man, honest, sincere, and industrious, a Catholic whose example was a blessing in the parish. In all matters pertaining to the welfare of the church and of religion he was ever found in the front rank, eager to forward the interests of both. He was for more than twenty years a member of the St. Vincent de Paul's Society, and in the carrying out of its purposes his kindly charitable nature could be seen to better advantage than in any other capacity. The funeral took place on Monday, 3rd instant, a Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered up in St. Peter's Cathedral for the repose of his soul. Rev. Father Tierman took occasion to refer to the holy life spent by the good man who had now gone to his reward. The rev. gentleman referred in touching terms to the great assistance rendered him by the deceased during the eleven years he had been pastor of St. Peter's. At all times he could be relied upon to lend a willing hand in the promotion of every good work. He leaves a widow, three sons and four daughters to mourn his loss. Two of the last mentioned are Sisters of St. Joseph. We tender to the family our heartfelt condolence in their sad affliction.

At a late meeting of the Ottawa city council the following resolution was passed through the usual formalities: "It was moved by Ald. Greene, seconded by Ald. O'Leary, that the city clerk be instructed to give notice in proper manner, that application be made to the Local Legislature at its next sitting, for an act to amend the Municipal act to enable the Dominion government to take appointment and control of city police. Carried; yeas 11 nays 3. We doubt if the Legislature of Ontario ought to pass any such law as the Ottawa city council desires in the matter of his police protection. So long as Ottawa continues part of the Province of Ontario, its municipal government must be conducted on the principles obtaining everywhere else. But we have always thought that Ottawa, with one or two of the neighboring townships, should be formed into a federal district, and given over altogether to the tender mercies of the Federal Government.

MR. CURRAN'S SPEECH. We publish elsewhere a speech delivered by Mr. J. J. Curran, M. P., at Chatham, on the 17th of December last. Our readers are well acquainted with our views and position on the points dealt with by Mr. Curran. We give the speech, however, as a matter of justice to him.

MR. DONOVAN'S SPEECH. The Vice Chairman then gave "The Educational Interests," which elicited an able response from Mr. Ballard. He spoke highly of the Canadian system in general and the Hamilton schools in particular. He had visited the Separate Schools with Inspector Donovan, and felt satisfied from what he saw that the schools, their teachers and the Inspector were abreast of the times. (Applause.) Mr. DeLorme sang "The Minstrel Boy" with good effect. "Canada Our Home" was drunk with enthusiastic cheers. Mr. M. Malone responded eloquently and with true patriotic spirit, enlarging upon the natural resources and the great possibilities attending the future of the Dominion. He concluded with a neat compliment to his former teacher.

THE BAZAAR. The bazaar now going on in aid of St. Peter's Cathedral promises to be one of the most successful yet held. Next week we will give an extended notice together with the names of the prize winners.

OBITUARY. Mr. Denis McCarthy. One by one the old familiar faces drop from the ranks of the living and go to meet their reward. The morning that ushered in a bright New Year—the morning when friend met friend and wished each other happiness and wished during its continuance—on that morning to one home whose door had suddenly been summoned to the presence of our blessed Lord. Mr. Denis McCarthy was an old resident of London and had at the time of his death attained the ripe old age of eighty years. It is hardly necessary we should write of him any words of praise. Our people all knew him and all held him in the highest regard. He was truly a model man, honest, sincere, and industrious, a Catholic whose example was a blessing in the parish. In all matters pertaining to the welfare of the church and of religion he was ever found in the front rank, eager to forward the interests of both. He was for more than twenty years a member of the St. Vincent de Paul's Society, and in the carrying out of its purposes his kindly charitable nature could be seen to better advantage than in any other capacity. The funeral took place on Monday, 3rd instant, a Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered up in St. Peter's Cathedral for the repose of his soul. Rev. Father Tierman took occasion to refer to the holy life spent by the good man who had now gone to his reward. The rev. gentleman referred in touching terms to the great assistance rendered him by the deceased during the eleven years he had been pastor of St. Peter's. At all times he could be relied upon to lend a willing hand in the promotion of every good work. He leaves a widow, three sons and four daughters to mourn his loss. Two of the last mentioned are Sisters of St. Joseph. We tender to the family our heartfelt condolence in their sad affliction.