ARRIVALS.—The English Steamer last week brought five young men as candidates for our ministry. One had previously arrived and was sent to New Brunswick Ray. H. Daniel, authorized by Rev. H. Pope, placed himself in association with Revs. J. Read and A. W. Nicolson, in appointing the young Brethren to their sevented by the sevented of the property of the sevented by pointing the young Brethren to their several fields of labour. Their names and near the Rocky Mountains—one of nature's destinations are as follows:-St Martin's N B. Richard Onie: P

B., Edward Jenkins; Berwick, N. S., R. John McDonald, Esq., a man of great soul, of den; Amherst, N. S., Geo. Johnson.

We are indebted to the good services of Rev. W. W. Brewer and W. H. Heartz, in concert with J. Lawrence, Esq., we presume, for this welcome addition to our ministerial staff. May the young men find great prosperity and happiness in the land of their adoption!

Suggestion. - The return of Delegates from General Conference should be improved by the Churches. They have a fine report to give, and it will do our people good. In one instance a meeting of this kind has already produced excellent results. The spirit of union will be strengthened and desponding hearts greatly cheered, by detailed reference to that admirable Conference. By all means call out the Delegates.
