WHEDON'S COMMENTARY, FOR THE BERMAN LESSONS OF 1876.

Best Commentary for Sunday School Workers, Ministers, and Bible Students.

You need Vol. III of the Old Testament Series, written by Rev. Dr. Steele and Rev. M. S. Terry; Vol. IV of the same series, by Rev. M. S. Terry; and Vol. III of the New Testament, by Dr. Whedon. The Volumes of the Old Testament are larger, and contain over a third more matter than those on the New Testament.

Old Testament Volumes, $2.50 per vol. New Testament Volumes, $1.75 per vol.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Dr. Whedon has set the example of Commentaries that do not skip the hard passages.—Dr. E. O. Haven.

Altogether these Volumes head the list of Biblical hand-books of interpretation. Zion's Herald.

In the research Mr. Terry is indefatigable, laying under contribution all that recent exploration and scholarship have brought within his reach. He shuns no difficulty and shirks no labor.—New York Christian Advocate.

Scholars and average readers will find this Commentary popular in form, yet solid in its critical value.—Christian at Work.

There is an unusual fullness of detail on the little things which we all desire to know, but which are seldom found in similar works.—Sunday School Times.

It shows the fruits of ripe scholarship, using the latest results of archaeological and critical information.—Evangelical Lutheran Review.

Just published. Vol IV of the New Testament Series, 1st Corinthians to 2nd Timothy, inclusive: by Dr. Whedon. Discount to Ministers and Teachers.
