Mr. Speaker then addressed his Excellency as follows :

May it please your Excellency,

In presenting for your acceptance various Bills of Supply for the services of the current year, it becomes my duty to state, that from the high sense the House of Assembly entertain of your Excellency's solicitude to promote the interests of the Colony, they have been induced to provide liberally for those objects recommended by your Excellency to their consideration—and I am happy to have it in my power to assure you, that both branches of the Legislature have, invariably, throughout the whole of this laborious Session, evinced every disposition to co-operate with your Excellency in every measure conducive to the common welfare.

His Excellency was then pleased to give his assent to the said Bills, which are intituled as followeth :

XIV. An Act to establish a Reward for the destruction of Bears and Loupcerviers.

XV. An Act to authorize a further issue of Treasury Notes.

XVI. An Act to amend an Act made and passed in the Eleventh year of the reign of his late Majesty, intituled An Act for granting Licences to Tavern or Innkeepers and Storekeepers, and for regulating persons Licensed—and to suspend the operation of the Acts therein mentioned'—and to suspend part of an Act passed in the Thirty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled 'An Act for regulating Servants.'

XVII. An Act to amend an Act made and passed in the Tenth year of his late Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue an Act made and passed in the Eighth year of his present Majesty's reign, intituled an Act to continue an Act made and passed in the Sixth year of his present Majesty's reign, intituled an Act to revive, alter and continue an Act made and passed in the Fifty-second year of his late Majesty, intituled an Act for raising a Fund to make and keep in repair the Pumps, Wells, and Streets of Charlotte-Town, and for other purposes therein mentioned."

XVIII. An Act for appropriating certain monies therein mentioned, for the Service of the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-one.

And then his Excellency was pleased to make the following Speech to both Houses :

Mr. President, and Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council :

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly :

It affords me infinite satisfaction to mark the sense I entertain of the harmony and confidence that have subsisted between both branches of the Legislature during the present Session, with my cordial approbation, and to express my conviction that it offers the surest pledge of your anxious desire to meet the exigencies of the Colony, and to cherish and minister to the various sources of its internal prosperity.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly :

I return you my thanks for the readiness and liberality with which you have granted the Supplies for the service of His Majesty for the current year, and for the aid you have afforded to the agricultural interests of the Colony.

Mr. President, and Gentlemen of His Majesty's Council :

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly :

The necessary public business being concluded, I am enabled to release you from further attendance in Colonial Parliament; and, at the same time, to return you my warm acknowledgments for the zeal and diligence which you have manifested in the consideration of the many important subjects to which your attention has been directed during this Session.

After which, the Honorable the President of His Majesty's Council said—

"Gentlemen,

"It is his Excellency the Lieutenant Governor's will and pleasure, that this General Assembly be prorogued until Tuesday the Twenty-first day of June next; and this General Assembly is accordingly prorogued until Tuesday the Twenty-first day of June next, then here to be holden."

End of the First Session.
