If subordinates refuse to honor their leaders' agreements, leaders must resign."

PRESIDENT WILSON'S SPEECH HAS DISQUIETED SOME GERMAN CIRCLES

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—President Wilson's speech of Saturday last before Peace Congress together with reported decision of Supreme Council at Tuesday's session that German colonies must not be given back to Germany, has disquieted some German circles. The Boursen Zeitung for instance says: "If President Wilson is correctly reported he confesses openly that he too like Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George, does not desire Germany in future community of nations as an equal among equals but as a nation watched by overseers. Vorwaerts says:—"The League of Nations is making a lovely beginning. The decision of western powers to take German colonies for themselves is born of spirit diametrically opposed to that proclaimed by President Wilson. We Germans would prefer an honest policy of stand and deliver to policy of imperial aggrandizement adorned with ethical and oratorical phrases. But since America has not yet agreed to pact we shall later see whether America can do anything except make speeches."

The motion was made by Mr. Kells, seconded by Mr. Taylor.

The work of repairing the bridge on the county road at Eldorado has been finished.

Hastings Has Great Future

Development Council Formed to Further the County's Industries—Meeting Held Last Night—Mineral Resources Especially Emphasized—Need of Cheap Power.

Hastings has been generally regarded as a county with a past, but at a meeting of the County Councillors and other local representatives held in the Belleville Club last evening the future of Hastings county was discussed with glowing optimism. This optimistic outlook is not based upon any dream of theorists, but upon a very material and practical foundation, which might be summed up in the plain words of John Walter Evans, M.E., President of the Tivoli Electric Steel Company of Belleville, in opening his address last evening: "There are few locations in Ontario having the variety and abundance of minerals that are to be found in the county of Hastings."

Should Spend a Million

After reviewing the history of attempts made in the past to develop the resources of Hastings county, and enumerating the various mineral properties with which he was personally acquainted, Mr. Evans said a grant should be made.

Dominion Government of $1,000,000, of which $75,000 to be applied in thoroughly testing the working of the iron, the balance to be used in determining the value of other economic minerals, of which there are many occurrences on the surface.

If this work were carried on it would give employment for hundreds of men. Among the returned soldiers there are men possessing knowledge of minerals, prospecting and mining, who could be made up into parties under the supervision of competent men, to prospect for minerals in the county.

Mr. Evans said that work on the enormous iron deposits of the county should begin at once, and he suggested that the Imperial Munitions Board should allow two of the ten electric furnace units now in Toronto to be moved to Belleville for the treatment of ores.

County's Vast Possibilities

E. Guss Porter, M.P., who was the first speaker, said that Hastings possessed all the natural facilities to make it one of the greatest of the counties in the Dominion. The possibilities in agriculture, manufacturing, lumber, pulp, cattle and sheep raising were such as to demand immediate attention from the Government. He urged the people of the county to combine in this matter and to take a deeper interest in the resources that lay at their hands. He suggested the establishment of an organization to be named "The County of Hastings Development Council."

Prof. Stanley Graham of Queen's University spoke in detail of the mineral wealth of the county, of which he knew from actual experience. He believed that a Government survey would bring the county back into favor as a mining district.

Make It a Manchester

Joseph James of Actonville spoke of the resources in water powers. He said that while he believed that the Hydro had done good work in Ontario, they should not kneel down and worship a fetish. "We must have cheap power. We have the natural facilities, and if public ownership can't make it, we are not going to worship Adam Beck or anyone else. If we could develop the power going to waste in the Mohr Valley, we could make this county a little Manchester of industry. Power can be produced here at $5. per horsepower. The Government must come in and help us to develop our resources," said Mr. James.

Settlement of Soldiers

R. J. Graham, speaking as a manufacturer, said the Government might well consider Hastings county as a settling ground for returned soldiers instead of the clay belt.

John Elliott, manager of the Standard Bank, in speaking on organization, said that the meeting was one of the most unique ever held in Belleville. He urged immediate action in organizing the proposed Council.

Development Council Formed
A resolution was passed for the immediate formation of an organization.
