RUSSIA HAS EQUIPPED ELEVEN MILLIONS OF MEN

Using Their Superiority in Numbers to Smash the Teuton Defences.

London, June 23.—The German version of the fighting on the Russian front is given in a despatch from Berlin which says that the Russian offensive has got "stuck" in the opinion of German military circles.

Information has reached Berlin that Russia has more than 11,000,000 well equipped soldiers under arms now. The report continues: "There are no foreign correspondents with either the Austrian or the German armies engaged in the Galicia or Bukovina struggle. The German and Austrian correspondents have got somewhere near the battle scenes continue describing the terrible onslaughts of the Russian masses in waves from eight to fifteen deep.

It is asserted that at some points of the attack upon the Austro-Hungarian line the Russians had a superiority of five and sometimes ten to one. This is not at all improbable. "All reports indicate that the effect of the Germans taking an energetic hand in the game already is making itself felt upon the Russian advances, which while perhaps not yet actually stopped, is beginning to falter at a number of points.

"Gen. Brussloff appears to be increasing his pressure on the centre of the middle sector, but this movement is apparently being strongly affected by the counter-pressure of the Germans against the Russian line in the northerly part of Volhynia.

"The next days should develop how far the Russians will be able to carry out their plan of a concentric offensive for the possession of Lemberg, the capital of Galicia, which was retaken from the Russians last June. Strategically the present Russian successes can be said to be of only practical value and real importance if Brussloff is able to follow them up and attain Lemberg as a goal. The Russian movement, otherwise, has merely political and moral importance, but comparatively little military value.

Another to Take Command.
"Gen. Brussloff appears to be the first Russian strategist who has proved himself worthy of the metal of the German strategist who will soon be matched against him. Over-confidence on the part of the commander of the Austro-Hungarian army on the sector first crushed in by the Russians, together with failure to know what the Russians were preparing opposite his lines, appears to have been more or less responsible for the results of the surprisingly heavy onslaught.

"Essential measures, I understand, have been taken in his case."

John Bull: "I won't have this thing hanging over my head any longer. I'll have it in my hand."
—Punch, London.

THE MINOR LEAGUE WONDER.

Shocker Still Has to Have Defeat Registered.
Urban Shocker, the former Canadian League pitcher, now with Toronto, is the talk of the Minor League world. Shocker won his seventh straight start Sunday, and stands undefeated since Bill Donovan sent him to the Leafs from the New York Americans. A remarkable feature about his pitching is his stinginess with hits and runs. His average figures out at 4 1/2 hits and 2 runs per game. Here is his record:
May 17—Beat Rochester 5-3, allowing 4 hits.
May 20—Beat Richmond, 4-3 (11 innings), allowing 5 hits.
May 24—Beat Baltimore, 6-3 (11 innings), allowing 6 hits.
May 25th—Beat Providence 4-3, allowing 4 hits.
May 29—Beat Rochester 5-0, allowing 4 hits.
June 6—Beat Rochester 5-1, allowing 3 hits.
June 10—Beat Buffalo 1-0, allowing 4 hits.
June 13—Beat Montreal 14-1, allowing 6 hits.
*Manning relieved Shocker in 6th and gets credit for game.
*Manning relieved Manning in 5th, Manning getting credit for game.

Paris, June 24.—Late details show that yesterday's fighting near Verdun equalled in fury anything experienced. The total German force engaged on a two mile front are estimated as between four and five divisions. It was only by the last of the day that the German forces were worn out and thinned by hours of bombardment, and that enemy succeeded in rushing Thiaumont work and the adjacent advanced trenches.

The Thiaumont fortification of the enemy hoped to continue to charge and sweep away the defenders of the latter place; but the French counter-attacked, with such vigor that he was able only to clear the positions first seized, while he was busily engaged in strengthening
