So when the fit of sorrow was over, Donald sank into a deep sleep, from which he did not awake for hours; and then he was quite re-

> In the meantime preparations were being made to bury a number of the victims of the fire, among them the three whose fate has been related; but 1, to save the inmates of the sick rooms from the effects of excitements, the physician Soon the hour arrived. Outside, friends and neighbors of the dead stood Sept. 9-Schr. Rose, Busque, Tracadic, flour, in little groups, here and there, conversing in low tones; while within, the gloomy hall and dead-room were crowded with relatives. Every face was stamped with the awful nature of the occasion. Strong men and women were as little children, unnerved in the presence of such ghastly proofs, as they believed, of the wrath of God upon their unhappy kindred and country. Not a word was spoken, not a sob was heard. Every brain was paralized, so to speak, in the presence of that terrible thought. Such was the scene within; when the jolting of carts without and the en-The attention of Presbytery was called to the current year:
