NATURAL PHENOMENA IN AUSTRALIA.

Australia has been called a country of contrasts, not only in a point of climate, but in nature itself. The diseases incident to men and animals are different in this remote region...

Whistling girls and crowing hens.—There is a proverb that "Whistling girls and crowing hens always come to some bad end." But, notwithstanding the old proverb, a wiser step for men to defend their property is to whistle...

Correspondence.

"We would announce that a person named C. J. Ferdinand, whom we engaged as an assistant in the literary department of this paper, has withdrawn from it, and now has no connection directly or indirectly with this office.—North Star."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD. Dear Sir.—As the writer of the above was asked enough to write nearly a thousand lines to conduct a newspaper not in existence, whose proprietor is a pensioner, whose office is a myth, whose printers are his three female children, and whose supporters have got to be unpaid, will you allow me also to add to the miserable nothing which has been accorded me, that I withdraw my services...

I am yours truly, C. J. FERDINAND. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD. Sir.—I believe that into whatever place or society the most introduce himself, he generally contrives to make himself unpleasantly conspicuous and disagreeable to persons of sense and good manners...

Your obedient servant, "DO YOU KNOW WHO JACK IS?" July 7, 1868.

On Dr.—Since the murder of Detective Cutler, in Canada, the Dominion Government has been unable to find any person belonging to the regular detective force to whom the movements and reports the conversations of Whelan, and the other Fenian prisoners, and have written to the different Governments of the Maritime Provinces asking them to send gentlemen of acknowledged ability to act in that capacity.

Mr. "Tommy" Curtis, stock-editor of the Patriot, Adjutant-General of the regular pay of the Fenian force, a gentleman who can fill the important position of plump, and general even-dropper, to perfection—He can obtain testimonials for his ability in this line, from the Leader of the Government, as well as other influential gentlemen who have been acquainted with his antecedents...

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOL. It afforded so much pleasure to attend the annual Examination of the pupils of St. Joseph's School, which took place in St. Andrew's Hall, on the afternoon of Thursday last. Among those present, were His Lordship Bishop Melvill, Very Rev. Dr. McDonald, V. G., Rev. Angus McDonald, Rector of St. Dunstan's College, Rev. Jas. McKenna, and several ladies and gentlemen who take an interest in educational affairs...

SCHOOL EXAMINATION OF NOTRE DAME CONVENT. The annual Examination of the Pupils of the Convent of Notre Dame, took place at St. Andrew's Hall, on Monday morning, at 9 o'clock. No cards were necessary for attendance. The spacious hall was decorated with laurel and evergreen. The walls were adorned with legends in various colors, the work of the young scholars; and from the ceiling, a triangular pendant lantern with arched arms, and encircling the Gold Medal—destined for one whose general good conduct and amiability of temper exceeded herself for her preceptors. The room was filled to its utmost capacity with the parents and relations of the students, the students of St. Dunstan's College, and the general public...

approximated perfection as such as youthful linguists could have been expected. They were so conversant with their own books as to be able to give the history of the language in the most perfect manner...
