MASS MEETING IN OPERA HOUSE

I. C. R. to be Again Asked to Meet the Town Council.

A great crowd of interested persons gathered for the meeting in the Opera House on Wednesday evening last. The meeting was called by the I. C. R. and was presided over by the Chairman, Mr. John McLean.

The appointment of a local committee to be known as the Railway committee, for it was so called, was the first business of the evening.

Mr. W. J. Hogan, who has been the general manager of the business which is now in the hands of the Railway committee, starting from the best of intentions to get away from the hands of the I. C. R. and to have the I. C. R. management of the I. C. R. business, was the first to speak.

Mr. Anderson thought that a strong delegation must be sent to Ottawa to press their claims before the I. C. R. and Mr. John McLean, and that a delegation of two or three be sent. This was decided, Mr. Anderson moved as an amendment that a delegation of five be sent including the I. C. R. Mr. Murray was elected to be the delegate and Mr. McLean to be the alternate.

After much discussion and discussion the business of the meeting which was then set.

From Bad to Worse.

A gentleman was admiring his pigeon the other afternoon when he heard a curious "tind" and saw one of his birds drop from a window sill to the ground.

Turning round, the gentleman was just in time to see a small boy in the lane drop a catapult and run.

"You young scoundrel!" ejaculated the angry owner of the pigeon. "What do you mean by coming and shooting my birds?"

"Please, sir, I didn't mean to do it," whined the captive. "I-I didn't shoot at the pigeon."

"Come, come," said the gentleman, "don't make matters worse. I saw the bird fall, and if you did not aim at it how came you to hit it?"

"Please, sir," blubbered the boy, "the pigeon got in the way. I-I was aiming at the window."—London Tit-Bits.
